

1938 AAA Program Stays Despite New Proposals

Congress' Action Supplementary, State Leaders Say

Work in Oregon toward putting into effect the 1938 agricultural conservation program will continue as planned and now under way, regardless of any expected action in congress on pending agricultural bills, it is pointed out by N. C. Donaldson, executive secretary of the state AAA committee, at Corvallis.

The pending bills will not supersede or displace the present agricultural conservation program, but will, if passed, add to or supplement the present program, it is explained by Donaldson.

With community meetings and elections having been completed in all parts of the state, new county organizations are now being completed preparatory to going ahead with the 1938 program in every county. As soon as the state goals on the total soil depleting acreage and total potato acreage are received, the state committee will set up county goals, after which the county committee will break down the totals into farm goals. As far as known now, none of this work will be materially affected by proposed additional legislation.

Meanwhile, the various county committees have issued invitations to all farmers who have not participated in previous programs to sign work sheets for 1938. All those who had turned in such sheets in 1936 or 1937 will automatically be listed, but there is now opportunity for any others to prepare to participate in the coming year if they so choose. There is nothing compulsory about the participation, of course, and even after the work sheets are signed, there is nothing to compel the grower to apply the program on his farm if he believes it to his advantage to do otherwise.

Thousands of applications for payment under the 1937 program are now being handled at the state office, and some 500 have already been passed for payment. First checks will be issued and distributed from the accounting office in the near future.

Heppner Edges Out FFA Smoker Win

Although the Boardman boys had a little trouble when their bus broke down, the F.F.A. smoker was held as planned and turned out to be a great success.

Leland Edmundson of Heppner and Harold Tyler of Boardman battled out the rounds to a draw. Although Edmundson lost the first round by a large margin, he came back in the second and third rounds and pulled a draw out of a pretty deep hole.

In the second bout of the evening, Jack Healy of Heppner and Louis McDonald of Boardman fought a hard battle with Healy edging out in front with a victory after being floored twice in the first round by McDonald's round-house hay-makers.

Floyd Williams of Heppner and Ralph Skoubo of Boardman showed more brawn than science in their match, with Skoubo winning by a fair margin over Williams.

In the fourth bout Rufus Hill, Heppner, lost his bout to Roy Partlow, Boardman, being completely outclassed by the Boardman lad.

During the intermission between the fourth and fifth bouts, Marvin Casebeer and Emmet Kenny, both of Heppner, put on a mixed bout with Kenny wrestling and Casebeer boxing. Next two girls came out and worked some tricks.

Probably the best bout of the evening and the most talked of for many days before the smoker was the one between Johnny Hays of Heppner and Ted Wilson of Boardman. This bout was somewhat of an upset to a lot of fans, because Hays won over Wilson in the third round with a technical knockout. Wilson also hit the floor twice in the first round under the pile driver blows of Hays. The bout that decided the smoker in Heppner's favor was the one between Dean Gilman, Heppner, and Louis Skoubo, Boardman, with Gilman winning after some good hard slugging.

In the main event of the evening Howard Patton, Heppner, battled Tannehill, Boardman, to a draw in a rather slow bout.

Final score: Heppner won three bouts, lost two, and tied two. Boardman won two, lost three, tied two.

Jarmon-Woodworth Rites Held in South

At 10 A. M. Thanksgiving, Lura P. Jarmon, daughter of Mrs. E. P. Jarmon and the late Mr. Jarmon, and Denny Woodworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Woodworth of San Francisco, were married in the candle-lighted room at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Horace T. Strong, at Bakersfield, Cal. The vows were exchanged before the Rev. Anthony S. Donat, pastor of the First Congregational church.

Mrs. Philip Martin played the first movement from "Moonlight Sonata" (Beethoven) as the couple assembled before the altar of yellow chrysanthemums and greenery lighted by white tapers. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Horace T. Strong. Mrs. Everett W. Hood, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and S. L. Osborne was best man.

The bride was attired in her tailored traveling dress of navy blue silk crepe trimmed with white leather, and carried an old-fashioned lace-frilled bouquet of sweet peas, carnations and gardenias.

Among those joining the bride and bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. Strong for Thanksgiving dinner were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Osborne of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wells of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Martin, Mesdames Minne Symmes, E. P. Jarmon, Everett Hood, Mr. H. W. Longfellow and the children Betty Lee and Robert Lyman Strong of Bakersfield.

After a honeymoon in the Bay region the couple will live in Newman, Cal., where they both teach. Mrs. Woodworth is an alumna of Oregon State college, receiving her higher education at Stanford university.

4-H Club Members Win More Awards

Further word of Oregon winnings in contests held at the National 4-H Club congress in Chicago shows another first place in the western division and two more college scholarships for national placings. Edward Weston, Tillamook, placed first in the west and third nationally in the rural electrification contest, winning a free trip to Chicago and a $200 scholarship. Jacqueline Morton of Cottage Grove, already announced as first in the west in the Montgomery Ward girls' record contest, has placed fourth nationally, winning a $150 scholarship.

Helen Michael of Eugene, winner of the famous 4-H Moses leadership trophy, will appear in an NBC broadcast from Chicago December 4 at 9:30 o'clock Pacific time, and the Oregon delegation, consisting of seven club members and H. C. Seymour, state leader, will participate in a western farm and home hour broadcast from San Francisco December 8.

W. T. Gerard was a business visitor in the city Monday from the farm near Lexington. He expressed pleasure over the fine weather and the good condition of crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake and small son were business visitors in the city Monday from their home at Ione.
