J. A. Walker Was 53-Year Resident

By OPAL HASTINGS

J. Albert Walker was born Feb. 6, 1861, in Santa Rosa, Calif., and died in Heppner Thursday, Dec. 2, 1937. He was a resident of Hardman for 53 years. He leaves many friends among the old timers. His living relatives are his brother, Jasper Walker who lives in Hardman and a sister, Mrs. H. Beard of Klamath Falls, besides a number of nieces and nephews. Alvin Kleinfeldt of Heppner preached the funeral sermon. Mrs. Neal Knighten and Miss Iris Morton sang three duets.

The Rebekah lodge gave a Thanksgiving supper for the Odd Fellows and their families. Cards and games made a joyful occasion for all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams and their son Forest were business visitors in Heppner Monday.

Ed Clark was a business visitor in Hardman Tuesday.

A club for parliamentary practice was organized Wednesday evening just after the community sing. The purpose of this club is to learn how to carry on meetings in a parliamentary manner. Officers elected were Donald Robinson, president; Vern McDaniel, vice-president; Rita Robinson, secretary; Marvin Saddler, sergeant-at-arms. Committees for business, constitution and naming committees were appointed.

Slim Emert of Ione was at Roy Robinson's ranch last Tuesday getting several watering troughs.

Mrs. Bud Ayers was taken to Heppner for medical aid. Her mother, Mrs. Walter Farrens, went with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman were business visitors in Hardman Tuesday.

The name chosen for the sixth grade paper is "Six Bits." Mildred Clary handed in the name and was awarded the candy bar as prize.

The community sing met again after the Thanksgiving vacation. It was decided to put on a pageant, "When the Star Shone," at Christmas time. Special numbers were as follows: a duet and encore by Norvin and Perry Adams; solo and encore by Kenneth Batty, and a reading, "The Cremation of Sam McGee," by Marvin Brannon.

Nelson Knighten, Marvin Saddler, Mrs. Lewis Batty and children visited in Kinzua Sunday.

A dance was held at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday night and a good time was reported. Music was furnished by Scott Brown's orchestra. Another will be held in two weeks with the same music.

Creth Craber was a visitor at the high school Thursday.

Miss Iris Morton, Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon, Mrs. Neal Knighten, Mildred Clary, Albert Schunk and Nona Inskeep returned Sunday from Milton-Freewater where they attended a Christian Endeavor convention held there from the 3rd to the 5th.

The losing side on news reports at the grade school gave the winning side a party. Refreshments were cake and jello. The winning side was headed by Vera McDaniel, the losing side by Mildred Clary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gallagher and family have returned from Toppenish, Wash., where they have been picking apples. Charles Fraters came with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lee and family are moving to Heppner where they will make their home.

Christian Endeavor was held Sunday evening at 6:30 with Mrs. G. I. Clary as leader.

Corvallis—Two Oregon men, both of whom are graduates of OSC, former members of the Oregon Extension service and former members of the state-owned radio station KOAC, have "moved up a nothch" in radio work, according to word received here.

C. R. Briggs, formerly agricultural program director of KOAC, and later regional director of information for the Soil Conservation service, has been appointed western radio program director for the United States department of agriculture, succeeding W. L. Kadderly, who has gone to Washington, D. C., to accept a position in the national office of the U. S. D. A. service. Kadderly was for many years director of KOAC.
