What is the minimum equipment required for my vehicle?

Your automobile must be equipped with headlights, tail light, muffler, horn, rear view mirror, windshield wiper, foot brake and emergency brake, all in good working order.

How strong must my headlights and tail light be?

Your headlights must be strong enough to render clearly visible a person standing in the road 200 feet ahead of your car, under normal conditions. Your tail light must give off a red light plainly visible at least 500 feet to the rear. Your headlights also must not be focused so as to cause a glare in the eyes of approaching drivers.

TOWN TEAM GOING

Heppner's town casaba throwers have organized for the season with Jimmy Driscoll as manager. In their first game last week they lost to Ione, 33-21, but expect better reports. Practice is set Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Sunday afternoons at the school gym. On the squad for the first game were Driscoll, Roy Gentry, Herman Green, Curtis Thomson, Kenneth McKenzie, Howard Furlong, Jack Parsons and Riley Munkers.

There will be a dance at Ione Legion hall, Saturday, Dec. 11. Music by the Troubadors.

If Christmas Should Come Tomorrow??

Fortunately for all of us, Christmas doesn't come tomorrow, as the rush to crowd into the last minute everything which needs yet to be done would be an impossibility. But consider—leisurely, orderly manner. No last-minute. Yes, last year we promised ourselves that next Christmas would be different. We would take care of our gift-buying in a ute headaches like, "John, we haven't a gift for Susie of Dannie of Jimmie yet. We've got to get them something."

PRECIOUS MOMENTS ARE SWIFTLY PASSING IN WHICH TO PROVE THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS

Yes, we promised ourselves. But, how futilely, unless we take advantage of the remaining time, to put our good resolutions into effect.

We're not kidding ourselves. We know, and you know, there is and must be a Santa Claus. Christmas Day will reveal it anew if we have forgotten. But then will it be too late, when again we realize—
