

Local Happenings

J. J. Wightman and daughter, Mrs. Claude Graham, and baby daughter left yesterday evening to catch the Portland Rose at Arlington for a trip to Mr. Wightman's old home in Pennsylvania. The Wightman family came to Heppner just a year after the big flood in 1903 and have lived here continuously since. Mr. Wightman's Pennsylvania home was at Dauphin, about six miles from Harrisburg, the state capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belanger left Sunday for Corvallis where they are spending the week while Mr. Belanger is in attendance at the annual conference of county agents and extension workers. Tuesday noon Mr. Belanger was heard over the radio from station KOAC in an interview in which he told of soil conservation work being done in this county.

Some person in Heppner is wearing a lost wrist watch very dear to its owner. It is engraved on back "From Mother to Wesley M. Smith, Dec. 25, 1929." Mr. Smith's mother has passed on, and he believes the party finding the watch may realize its dearness and return it to him at 2915 NE 14th St., Portland, Oregon.

C. J. D. Bauman and Frank Alfred motored to Portland yesterday to attend state conventions of sheriffs and district attorneys. They were accompanied to the city by Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Isom who will remain until after Christmas while Mr. Isom is enjoying a vacation from his work with Standard Oil company.

A. W. Nelson, "roving reporter" with the Walla Walla Union-Bulletin, arrived in Morrow county the first of the week, seeking out historical and economic data for articles in the paper he represents. Mr. Nelson was in the printing business in La Grande for many years.

Rod Thomson, who has been with the local Union Oil company plant for several years, this week received notice of transfer to Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thomson, Jr., were in Pendleton Monday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins and family were in town Tuesday from the Rhea creek home. Mr. Hoskins was among those from this section attending funeral rites for the late Ralph Stanfield at Echo Monday afternoon.

Frank Fraters was a visitor in town Tuesday from the Eight Mile farm. He reported digging postholes to a depth of two and a half feet a few days before without uncovering any dry dirt.

Miss Ruth Cowins was expected to arrive home today to spend the Christmas vacation from her studies at La Grande normal school. Mr. and Mrs. Cowins went to Pendleton to meet her.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin were among residents of the Ione section transacting business in town yesterday. Mr. Mankin believed present winter weather to be "just right."

W. H. French passed through town this morning on his way from the Blue Mountain farm to Portland for a fortnight's visit.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers at the Corda Saling home in Heppner, Tuesday morning, an 8½ pound daughter.

Stephen Wehmeyer is home on furlough from the army for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wehmeyer, coming from Fort Lewis, Wash., where he has been stationed.

Miss Mary Rood is visiting this week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Lester Döblittle, coming from California on her way to Kansas where she expects to reside in the future.

GIFT SUGGESTION—Why not give her a beautiful Poinsetta for Christmas. See them on display at the Phelps Funeral Home, Phone 1332, Heppner, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Hara and family moved their residence this week into the Notson house on Gale street which they have rented.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Sackett returned to their home in Salem the first of the week after spending some time here on business.

MASONIC ELECTION SLATED
Regular election of officers will be held by Heppner Lodge No. 69, A. F. & A. M., at the stated communication next Saturday evening. Attendance of all members is urged by J. O. Turner, worshipful master. Installation of the new officers will be held next Monday evening in joint ceremonies with Ruth chapter, O. E. S., preceded by the usual turkey dinner for members of both orders with their wives and escorts, at 6:30.

LADIES AID MEETS
Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met Tuesday, Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. M. L. Case. Mrs. Case led the devotions by reading the 23rd Psalm and Mrs. L. W. Briggs led in prayer. The annual bazaar was set for the 18th. Present were Mrs. Carl Young, Mrs. Alta Brown, Mrs. Emma Hager, Mrs. L. W. Briggs, Mrs. S. H. Shannon, Mrs. Mary Bailey, Mrs. Alex Green, Mrs. Calar Slocum, Mrs. Lulu McCarty, Mrs. Jennie McCarter, Mrs. King, Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Claude Cox, Mrs. Kate Slocum, Mrs. Chriswold, Mrs. Helen Brown. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Young.

TOT INJURED IN FALL
Jimmy Green, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornett Green, fell through a window glass when jumping on a bed at home Saturday afternoon, receiving a severe gash on the forehead that required several stitches to close.
