

WILLOWS GRANGE NEWS

Willows grange will be host to Morrow County Pomona grange at Cecil, Jan. 8. Besides the regular business there will be a program at 1:30 to which the general public is invited. Musical numbers and addresses on subjects of interest to the people of the community will be featured.

Willows grange held its December business meeting at Cecil Sunday morning, Dec. 26. J. O. Kincaid was elected master as Alex Huber had declined to serve in that capacity. Subordinate election of state officers was held. At the close of the business meeting pot-luck dinner was served to the members and visitors present.

In the afternoon a program and Christmas tree party for nearly 100 members and friends was held. The program featured a candlelight ceremony and most of the numbers centered around that topic. The hall was beautifully decorated with bells, wreaths, red and green roping and a lighted tree.

Candle holders in the shape of yule logs were placed all about the room—holding dozens of candles, which were lighted as a part of the program by three young ladies of the grange. The program was as follows: Opening song, "Joy to the World," by all; prayer, Rev. Hinkle; paper, "Christmas Trees and Christmas Candles," by Mary Lundell; lighting of the Christmas candles, by Three Graces, Dorothy Brady, Harriet Heliker and Helen Lindsay; song, "The Christmas Story," by Patricia Drake; guitar numbers, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Silent Night," by Billie Eubanks; recitation, "Kriss Kringle," by Estelle Ledbetter; vocal solo, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," by Donald Heliker, accompanied by Veda Eubanks; recitation, "The Night Before Christmas," Harold Brinkman; paper, "Christmas at the White House," Mary Lindsay; vocal duet, "His Lowly Birthplace," Mildred and Helen Lundell, accompanied by Gladys Drake; recitation, "Horse and Buggy Days," Donald Ball; song by all, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," Living Christmas Tree, ten little girls dressed in green dresses with tinsel trimmings and lighted candles; closing song, "Silent Night," by all.

After the closing song old Santa Claus made his appearance, to the delight of the youngsters and oldsters and with the help of some of the young folk dispersed treats of candy, nuts and oranges to all present, and sent many packages away to those who were unable to attend.

Water Erosion Claims Attention

With the increase in trashy summerfallow acreage from practically nothing a few years ago to some 40,000 acres in 1937, the emphasis on soil conservation work in Morrow county is shifting from wind erosion to water erosion, says County Agent Joe Belanger. Although less spectacular, water erosion has probably caused greater and more permanent losses over most of the Columbia Basin counties than wind, he says.

American Home Education Praised

Corvallis—American colleges are far ahead of those in England in adapting home economics education to the modern student needs, writes C. Winifred Harley, visiting professor at Oregon State college this year, in an article published in an English Journal, "The New Era." Professor Harlow devotes most of the article to a description of the practical training in nursery school and home management houses afforded at Oregon State, and concludes with the query: "When will the Domestic Science colleges in England begin to open nursery schools and take a serious interest in the psychological as well as the physical factors which affect a happy and comfortable home life?"

Seven Rye Varieties Tested

Burns—Seven different varieties or selections of rye are being tried out under Harney county conditions on the farms operated by Claude Boyle of Burns and R. B. Jackson of Wagonite, in cooperation with County Agent W. A. Sawyer. Three one-rod rows of each variety have been planted, using the standard variety test plot method, Sawyer says.
