Hardman Pupils
Vote No Vacation

By LA VERN BAKER

An Associated Press item, rating the first page of the Oregonian on December 30, said that the teacher of a school in Eagleville, Missouri, let her pupils decide upon how long a vacation they should have and they decided upon one day.

The Hardman high school went there one better. They voted almost unanimously that no vacation at all was desired in spite of the fact that this was the only year in over a decade when Christmas and New Year came on Saturday.

Edith Stevens returned to the Weatherford home near Arlington where she has been working for the past year.

The dance at Hardman Saturday night was one of the best dances ever held here. The old time music by Scott Brown's orchestra had many of the old timers out dancing who had not danced for years. Another dance will be held here Jan. 15 with music by the same orchestra.

The last few days have been rather cold and disagreeable. Between the fog and a light skiff of snow it is also hard on all kinds of stock.

Believe it or not, but the telephone wires are shivering.

Case Adams and Richard Robison motored to The Dalles Friday.

An impromptu dancing party was held at the high school Friday night in order to see the old year to a happy closing and to greet the new year. Sandwiches and coffee were served. There was a small but enthusiastic group in attendance. The cheering and other demonstrations at midnight indicate a noisy year for Hardman.

Since Mrs. Neal Knighten was ill, Mrs. McCutcheon led the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday night. The discussion was on new year's resolutions. Marvin Brannon will lead next Sunday.

Mrs. Neal Knighten, Mrs. Lewis Knighten and Mrs. Maud Robison were business visitors in Heppner Tuesday.

The Community Sing met at the regular hour Wednesday evening. In the absence of Miss Morton, Marie Clary played the piano. In order to show their approval of his work, Marvin Brannon was reappointed chairman of the program committee with power to choose the other members.

Misses Vera McDaniel, Neta Rae Bleakman and Mildred Clary visited high school Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats and daughter Echo of Boardman were visiting relatives and friends here last week end.

The Let's Talk club met Wednesday night with Ethel Knighten as chairman and Vern McDaniel as secretary. A humorous panel discussion was given by Irl Clary and Donald Robinson on the affirmative side and Rita Robinson and Marvin Saddler on the negative. The topic was that every man, woman and child in Hardman should give up smoking at once.

Mrs. Charles Fraters of Eight Mile has been visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gallagher.

B. F. DeVore has gone to spend the winter at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Archie Barnard, at The Dalles.

Arlton Stevens has gone to work for Ed Musgrave on lower Rhea creek.

Little Darlene Brannon whose hand was severely burned, is getting better, but the hand still gives her much pain.

Doris Robison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robison, was enrolled on Monday in the 3rd grade.

Mrs. George Samuels and her little foster daughter, Shirley Ann, are visiting here for a week end with Mrs. Samuels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, and with other relatives and friends. A daughter, Mrs. Ralph Corrigan, brought them over from Echo.

Miss Neta Rae Bleakman who has been spending the week here at the Roy Robinson home, went to Heppner after the dance. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman, came out to attend the dance.

Mrs. Neal Knighten, Lester Brannon and others are recovering from the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clemmer and daughter and Irvin Allen came in from the Oral Scott ranch in the Blackhorse district to attend the dance.

Just Thought of Something—

We hope the state doesn't sue Loes Stevens for colliding with the graduate.

Case Adams likes ice cream.

Marvin Saddler was mightily displeased Friday night.

James Stevens doesn't read his cigarette ads.

John Kerrick, speaker from the office of Earl Snell, secretary of state, recently completed visits to 44 high schools which took him from Helix, above Pendleton, to Portland, showing two short movies which emphasize important safety lessons. The movies were shown to more than 5,000 students on a previous tour of 27 high schools. He is currently on a speaking tour of 33 coast high schools.
