

Celebration of President's Natal Day is Planned

Workers Named, Appeal Issued by J. L. Gault, Chairman

President Roosevelt's Birthday celebration plans for Morrow county were launched at meetings this week under direction of J. L. Gault, county chairman. Named on the executive board were Dr. A. D. McMurdo, vice president J. J. Nys, treasurer; H. R. Gaily, secretary; Frank Alfred, Mrs. Chas. B. Cox, Henry Aiken, Dr. L. D. Tibbles, Hanson Hughes, Mrs. Floyd Worden, Mrs. W. H. Cleveland, Harry Duvall, Bert Mason, D. M. Ward.

An area plan for thoroughly canvassing the county to obtain funds for the foundation to combat infantile paralysis, main objective of the birthday celebration, was set, with workers in the various areas named as follows:

Hardman: Bernard Bleakman, Mrs. Irl Clary.

Eight Mile: Leonard Carlson, Mrs. Clive Huston.

Heppner: R. B. Ferguson, annual ball; Mrs. Chas. B. Cox, women's organizations, social; Harvey Miller, subscriptions; N. E. Peavy, school.

Lexington: Orville Cutsforth, Emma Breshears, Mrs. S. J. Devine, Wm. Doherty.

Ione: Mrs. Werner Rietmann, Walter Roberts.

Morgan-Cecil: Elmer Griffith, Mrs. Hurst.

Boardman-Irrigon: Jack Gorham, Ralph Jones.

Lena-Pine City: Marion Finch, Mrs. Rose French Francis.

Headline feature will be the annual ball at the Elks hall in Heppner, Saturday evening, January 29, with admission charge set at $1.00 a couple and 25 cents for extra ladies.

In launching the birthday celebration, Mr. Gault has issued the following appeal to people of the county:

I have been appointed chairman for Morrow county for President Roosevelt's Birthday celebration to raise funds for the new national foundation recently organized to fight infantile paralysis.

The affairs of the new foundation, inspired by the President and organized with his full approval, will be directed by a board of trustees of 34 of the leading men of the United States among whom there has been selected an executive committee of the following nationally known men: Keith Morgan, chairman; Edsel B. Ford, Marshall Field, Walter J. Cummings, George E. Allen, Fred J. Fisher, W. Averell Harriman, S. Clay Williams, Nicholas M. Schenck.

With the president approving and such men directing, there is constituted a double guarantee that the affairs of this foundation will be efficiently and honestly administered so that all funds collected will be faithfully used for the purposes intended.

A strong executive committee has been organized for Morrow county, the personnel of which together with the community or area chairmen selected appears elsewhere in this paper. These men and women will be active but our results will depend upon the support and interest of every individual of the county.

We desire a short, intensive campaign. In this issue appears President Roosevelt's statement outlining the necessity of this foundation. Be sure to read it, as coming from him it must appeal to you most forcibly.

From the different compliance acts inaugurated by the President during the past five years and the various loaning agencies of the government, Morrow county has particularly benefited. The President himself is a victim of this terrible malady. Fortunately for him, and as millions of our people believe fortunately for them, he had the means and the indomitable courage to largely overcome its after effects, staging a comeback that finally resulted in his becoming the executive head of our country.

The very least Morrow county people can do is to cooperate in a substantial way by the giving of their time as well as the making of contributions to this most worthy cause. Help and support the different activities of your neighborhood. Many subscriptions should be made by those who have received direct benefits through legislative acts recommended by the President. It affords an unusual opportunity to manifest your appreciation of his efforts in your behalf.

May I add a word personally? The depositors of the two closed banks in your county are fortunate in securing so large a return of their money. The one bank has returned every penny. The other, with a dividend announced today of 16 percent, will have received 75 percent of their money. My expectation in early 1933 was not to exceed a 40 percent return. I am certain a fifth dividend will be had and that the ultimate returns will be at least 80 percent, or possible a little more. I sincerely hope the depositors of these two banks will not overlook this rather remarkable return of their money during this campaign for funds for this really great undertaking.

This appeal has the full approval of our executive committee. If our President can devote a part of his time and give from his means to support this great cause, can't you? He has given us the challenge. Let us not fail to meet it.
