Four Inches New Snow Falls at Hardman

By OPAL HASTINGS

Hardman has about four inches of snow and the coldest days of the new year. Snow started falling on Friday night and it snowed most of Saturday, but on Saturday evening the fog came and has been here ever since. The snow is welcome to the skiers but not to stockmen.

Ed McDaniel moved into his new home recently, and on Friday 50 or more persons gathered there for a house warming. After Mr. McDaniel opened and displayed his many gifts, delicious refreshments were served. Part of the evening was spent at his house singing songs, then the crowd adjourned to the high school and danced for awhile.

Bill Mahrt of Hamilton was here on business Thursday and Friday. He overhauled the light plant at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings were in Heppner on business Friday.

The people of the community were grieved to hear of the death of one of our early settlers, Martin Lovgren, and they extend their sympathy to the family.

The Community Sings met at the usual hour. It was moved and carried that a business meeting of the club be held only on the first of each month. Two specials were given. Mrs. Richard Robison gave a reading entitled, "Lasca," and Ed McDaniel played two solos on the banjo.

The "Let's Talk" club held a rather short meeting. Although the meeting was brief much business was transacted. Current event reports were given by Mrs. G. I. Clary, Mrs. Roy Robinson and Miss Iris Morton.

OREGON GOATS TO SAIL

Corvallis—Added to Oregon's recent fame in sending seed corn to the corn belt is the sending of Angora goats to northern India where goats abound. A graduate student at Oregon State college, Mohamed Aslam Khanmai, of Peshawar, India, has selected nine pure bred goats from Polk county herds and is shipping them to the director of agriculture in his home province, where goats are the most common domesticated animal. The Oregon stock will be used in breeding work to improve the quality of the native stock.
