Mrs. Ayers Honoree
Of Bridal Shower

By OPAL HASTINGS

A bridal shower was held at the high school on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 10, for Mrs. Harvey Ayers. After the presents were opened and distributed for everyone to see, a lunch was prepared. The refreshments consisted of cake, coffee and sandwiches. Those present were Mrs. Walter Farrens, Miss Dolly Farrens, Mrs. J. B. Adams, Mrs. Maude Robison, Mrs. Richard Robison, Mrs. Ted Burnside, Mrs. Dick Steers, Mrs. Roy Robinson, Mrs. Lewis Knighten, Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon, Mrs. J. W. Stevens, Mrs. Bernard Bleakman, Mrs. Frank McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Clary, and all of the high school students. Gifts were sent by many others who were not present.

The grade school Valentine party was held Friday afternoon, Feb. 11. Since it was Mildred Clary's birthday, they made a special party of it and took the afternoon off. Refreshments were cookies, jello and whipped cream. They had many interesting games and had their Valentine box.

Mrs. Raymond McDonald has been ill for several days.

Mrs. J. W. Stevens, who has been attending the Ensley family reunion in Portland, returned home last week.

Mrs. Frank McDaniel has been visiting in Heppner for several days. Miss Neva Bleakman visited Mrs. Charles McDaniel between stages Wednesday.

Three parties were scheduled for last Friday night but the Christian Endeavorers were timid because of the weather and the high school withdrew in favor of the "Let's Talk" club. Everybody was agreeably surprised with the supper served by the boys. An exceptionally good time was reported by those attending.

After Hardman had a 12-inch snow blanket and good skiing weather for several days, a warm wind played havoc with the snow and it was melting rapidly when a change in the weather brought more snow.

A. D. Inskeep, his son Osel and daughter Nona were attending to business in Heppner Saturday.

The three McFerrin children who enrolled in Mrs. McCutcheon's room are Alberta, in the 4th grade; Evelyn, in the 3rd, and Royun, in the 1st.

Marvin Saddler led Christian Endeavor Sunday evening. The topic for discussion was "The Value of Christian Endeavor."

Vern McDaniel and Rita Robinson are in charge of contributions for preserving the battleship Oregon. The girls are not only representing the high school but the community as well. They would appreciate any contributions. So far 34 persons are on the roll of honor, and the girls are still working.

While the Rebekahs were practicing their degree teams Tuesday the Odd Fellows gave a surprise supper for them, consisting of clam and oyster soup with crackers, coffee and peaches.

The last "Let's Talk" club meeting was interesting, the largest attendance being present since the club was started. The long postponed debate was held. The question was, "Resolved: That the Let's Talk club have instruction in public speaking and criticism thereon." The judges were Miss Delsie Bleakman, Marvin Brannon and G. I. Clary. Mrs. G. I. Clary was chairman and timekeeper. The affirmative side was upheld by Mrs. Stanley Robinson and Mrs. Neal Knighten and the negative by Marvin Saddler and Donald Robinson. The affirmative was the winning side.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniel were visitors at the Bert Bleakman home in Heppner Sunday, where they spent the night and returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers and their sons, Gus and Elmer, were business visitors in Heppner Monday.

Charley McDaniel and Dick Steers are trapping under the W. P. A.

Mrs. Neal Knighten spent Wednesday afternoon visiting the Stanley Robinson and E. J. Merrill homes.
