Umatilla Now Vegetable Center

Pendleton—Umatilla county, usually thought of as the home of big wheat farms and the Pendleton Round-Up, is now one of the northwest's major vegetable growing areas. In addition to 20,000 acres of canning peas, cannery operators could also handle the product of 4000 acres of asparagus, they say. Experiments are also under way with canning carrots and spinach on irrigation projects, according to agricultural leaders here.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet Tuesday, March 8, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. O'Hara, with Founders Day program.
