IONE NEWS

McMurrays Return From Arizona Sojourn

By MARGARET BLAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Laxton McMurray have returned home from Tucson, Ariz., where they spent the winter. Enroute home they came up through California and along the coast highway but were fortunate in missing the floods and storms.

Mrs. A. Newlin is getting the house she recently puchased from A. E. Stefani ready to move into. S. E. Graves who has been living there has moved into the John Louy house on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmott Botts have to the house on Second street belonging to Mrs. Visa Louy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Colvin have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Colvin's sister, Mrs. Dan Long, while looking over farm property with a view toward locating here.

The H. E. club of Willows grange will hold an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter on Friday, March 18.

Arthur Reed who has spent the winter with his sister, Mrs. Della Corson, has returned to his home at The Dalles.

Members of the sophomore class gave a farewell party for their class sponsor, Alexander McDonald, at the I. O. O. F. hall last Thursday evening. Members of the high school student body, teachers of both high and grade schools and other invited guests enjoyed a pleasant evening of games and dancing. At refreshment time Mr. McDonald was presented with a gift by Jane Fitzpatrick, president of the class.

Erling Thompson drove to Portland on Friday. He was accompanied by Alexander McDonald who went from there to Bellingham, Wn., to join the baseball club with which he has accepted a position. Miss Frances Stewart also accompanied them and spent the week end in Portland.

Mrs. Henry Gorger was a Pendleton visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and the tournament. nephews, Roderick and Gerald Phillips of Portland, arrived Saturday evening for a short visit with Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Dixon Smith. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley of Eugene and H. C. Wood of Portland were overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bryson last Thursday. Mrs. McKinley is the daughter of Mr. Wood.

Mrs. Charles Botts and daughter, Mrs. Jane Brown, went to Yakima, Wn., last Friday where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Botts' daughter, Mrs. Jack Griffen, who is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McCabe are moving to Heppner where they will live on the Walter Rood farm owned by Dr. McMurdo.

Mrs. Margaret Rietmann has retuned from Portland where she spent several days under medical observation. She is somewhat improved from her recent illness. Miss Jessie McCabe will assist her with her work.

The Past Noble Grand club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Bristow on Friday afternoon, March 25.

Charles Carlson, Joyce Carlson and Eva Swanson are home from college for the spring vacation.

BOARDMAN NEWS

Boardman People Petition for Road

By LA VERN BAKER

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller motored to Heppner Friday to take over a petition asking for the road by the canal to be made a county road. This was granted and now the school bus and mailman may go along that road.

Ted Wilson and Stanley Partlow spent Friday and Saturday in Arlington where they attended the tournament. Home Economics club was held at the grange hall Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Ray Brown as host-

H. B. Thomas, Maritta Thomas, Janet Gorham and Vernon Hussell motored to Arlington Firday evening to see the tournament.

A basket social sponsored by the senior class was given on Wednesday evening. The evening started out with games of Bug, after which the baskets were auctioned off. Free coffee was served in the cafeteria and then dancing was enjoyed.

Earl Blayden of Huntington visited at the J. F. Gorham home Wednesday evening. He was enroute to a basketball tournament where he was to play.

Miss Lois Messenger, Miss Eleanore Tildon, Mrs. Maude Kobow, Elmer Sullivan and J. Rothenberger motored to Portland over the week end. Miss Tildon's sister, Patty, returned with them and will attend school here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kahoun and daughter of Walla Walla visited at the Ray Brown home over Sunday. moved from the E. G. Franks home Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown remained here for a while.

Miss Wilma Myers of Pendleton spent the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kruse of Newberg are on the project visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Macomber of Heppner visited at the Nate Macomber home over the week end. Mrs. Claude Coats and Echo spent Saturday shopping in Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. L. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Corwin motored to the tournament in Arlington Friday evening.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers of Heppner visited the school on Tuesday.

Eldon Shannon returned to his work on the highway Thursday, after having a short lay-off.

Mrs. O. B. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hango and Mr. and Mrs. A. Simile motored to Spokane over the week end on business.

Mrs. Gladys Fortier, Miss Norma Gibbons and Earl Cramer, all of Spingfield, are spending the week visiting at the Frank Cramer home. Miss Cecelia Brennon of Condon came over with them to visit over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles of Forest Grove visited friends on the project Sunday.

Misses Mildred Ayers and Virginia Compton spent the week end in Arlington where they attended

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens have moved to Umatilla where they will make their home.

Mrs. Harry Ford returned home Friday evening from Walla Walla where she was called to help take care of her mother who is very ill. Roy W. Lieuallen of Heppner and Mrs. Betty Painter of Pendleton are on the project selling the Wearever aluminum products. They are giving lovely dinners in many homes.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McCabe of Ione at Heppner hospital yesterday, a 7 3-4-pound son, Al-

Most Amazing

REMINGTON PORTABLE only

PIRST TIME! Remington's
new purchase plan now lets you buy through our store a genuine latest in Remington Portable direct from the factor only 10e a day. Not used or rebuilt. Not in plete. A beautiful brand new regulation Reton Portable. Standard 4-row keyboard, stanwidth carriage, margin release on keyb spacer, automatic ribbon reverse, exclu-ington feature—"Self Starter" parag every essential feature found on stan-writers. With your machine we send you free a course in typewriting. Teaches touch quickly, easily. Soon you dash off letters than with pen and ink. You also get a has sturdy carrying case free.

HEPPNER GAZETTE TIMES

LADDIE GALE CAN'T TRY LOCAL COURT; vision after Montana was added to THERE ARE NO NO. 12 SHOES

By PAUL McCARTY

Tuesday morning before the final buzzer sounded in the big brick of 19 who tips the scales at 195 and school building on the hill in northof knowledge were to formally open, all the students who follow basketball were found to be in an inquiring mood, each asking the other, "Did you see Laddie Gale?" Some Jewell, 6 feet 7, both his team mates. of them had seen him down town the previous night, and one boy, a close follower of casaba sessions, recognizing him from newspaper pictures, walked up to him, asked him if he wasn't the person in question. Gale finally admitted such af- the same size; Wintermute wears ter joking for a minute, and then the delighted lad said, "Well, let me shake your hand." It was just like striking up an old acquaintance.

Someone will ask, "Who's Laddie Gale?" Well, anyone who possesses the least bit of knowledge on college basketball knows personally, or otherwise, Mr. Gale. He's none other than the famed University of Oregon basketball star, a junior, who scored 249 points in the northern division of the Pacific coast said Gale when asked if Luisetti had conference to establish a new record, and who just returned from the coast play-offs at Palo Alto and San Francisco, which Stanford took in two straight games.

The nature of Laddie Gale's visit in Heppner and at the Norman This lanky Oregon boy who scored Florence farm on upper Willow 30 points in the two Stanford games day conference is planned is "Decreek is purely pleasure, he coming up here with a cousin of Norman Florence, with whom he stays in Eugene while attending college. It's the play a lot better ball up here. "Too Lobaugh, principal of Walla Walla first trip for Gale to this country and he liked it immensely but can't get used to the rolling hills without 20-game season that was inaugur- arts at Whitman, will appear on the trees, which offer such a decided ated this year in the northern di- program.

contrast to those of the valley.

Laddie is a strapping young lad penetrates the upper strata at a via Portland. He's a fairly small felon the squad, he hoofs a number 12 shoe, while John Dick trods on size 13 and Jewell, a large 14. Because of lankiness, both he and Wintermute, when traveling on roadtween them so they will have suf-

the country's number one basket- of number 12 basketball shoes, as ball star, at Stanford last week, and he left his footwear in Eugene be-Gale says he's a real player, but fore starting for Heppner. without Hank, the Indians wouldn't get far. "He's weak on defense." why he never fouls.'

as fouls are not called very closely.

the conference.

When asked if he thought Oregon had good chances of winning the conference title next season, he answered, "Yeah, I think so." His statement was backed up by the fact that the only regular the Webfoots lose by graduation this June is Dave east Heppner, indicating that the height of 6 feet 4 inches. He left Silver, and one reserve, Ray Jewell. morning classes of the institution Palo Alto Sunday noon and reached Speaking in modesty, Gale said the Heppner Monday afternoon, coming university had some men on the bench who were as good as the fellow compared to Slim Wintermute, lows playing and all but one will a 6 foot, eight inch giant, and Ray return next fall. Gale is looking forward to next season, for the powers He and his team partners have one in control at the Oregon institution thing in common, says Gale, and have been talking some of a trip to that is in their shoe size. Although Madison Square Garden in New he's far from having the biggest feet York to show the eastern fans how basketball is played by the clubs from the northwest.

A Phi Delt at the university, Gale is taking business administration and physical education, the latter with the coaching field in mind. He would trips by train, use three berths be- like to shoot baskets in the local gymnasium before he leaves Friday, ficient room for both head and feet. but this will be out of the question He played against Hank Luisetti, unless someone shows up with a pair

TEACHERS INVITED

Walla Walla, Mar. 10 (Special)any weaknesses. "He plays out where School officials and teachers of the guards usually play and that's Heppner were invited yesterday to attend the Fourth Annual Confer-Gale can't see much in the style ence of Secondary Education to be of basketball they play down south, held at Whitman college Saturday, March 26.

The theme around which the all thinks the teams in the northern veloping Desirable Personality division are better than the ones in Traits." Glenn Todd, superintendent the southern division and that they of schools at Lewiston, Idaho; Dean long, much too long," said Gale in high school, and Dean W. R. Davis, reply to what he thought about the head of the division of letters and

"First National Bank West of the Rockies"

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PORTLAND, OREGON

Condensed Statement of Head Office and 42 Branches as of March 7, 1938

RESOURCES Cash on Hand and Due

from Banks $28,236,798.53
United States Bonds 30,027,778.69	$58,264,577.22
Municipal Bonds and Warrants
Other Bonds	6,369,124.25
Loans and Discounts	33,579,191.73
Stock in Federal Reserve Bank	169,500.00
Bank Premises, Furniture and Fixtures	2,610,145.11
Other Real Estate	71,137.25
Real Estate Sold under Contract	98,453.88
Customers' Liability-Acceptances	33,897.98
Interest Earned	451,162.79
Other Resources	74,315.07
	$106,695,073.06

LIABILITIES

Capital$	3,000,000.00
Surplus	2,650,000.00
Undivided Profits	804,529.72	$ 6,454,529.72
Reserves		1,441,722.08
Acceptances		35,134.23
Interest Collected in Advance		202,856.25
Other Liabilities		56,833.48
Deposits		98,503,997.30
		$106,695,073.06

The First National Bank of Portland Can Serve You in Many Ways...

Savings Accounts Checking Accounts Safe Deposit Boxes Trust Department Automobile Loans Personal Loans Home Loans Commercial Loans MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

STATE-WIDE SERVICE WITH

42 CONVENIENTLY LOCATED FIRST NATIONAL

BRANCHES

PORTLAND

Down Town Fifth, Sixth and Stark

Up Town Sixth and Morrison

East Side S.E. Morrison and Grand Union and Russell 42nd and Sandy

Denver and Kilpatrick 80th and S.E. Stark 82nd and S.E. Foster

OTHER OREGON BRANCHES

ALBANY ASHLAND ASTORIA BEND CONDON COQUILLE ENTERPRISE FOSSIL GRANTS PASS GRESHAM HEPPNER HILLSBORO HOOD RIVER KLAMATH FALLS LA GRANDE LAKEVIEW MALIN MARSHFIELD MEDFORD MERRILL MOLALLA MORO NEWBERG NORTH BEND NYSSA OREGON CITY PENDLETON SALEM STAYTON THE DALLES TILLAMOOK

UNION

WALLOWA

WOODBURN

ESTABLISH BANK CREDIT THROUGH THE Cash Buyer Plan