

Yearly Americanism Contest Launched By Auxiliary

8th Grade Students to Write Essays, Answer Questions

By LUCY E. RODGERS

As one of its major activities, the American Legion auxiliary of Heppner sponsors an essay contest for the girls of the eighth grade and a contest on the Flag Code for the boys of this grade. This year's competition is just starting, with completion set for April 30.

Americans believe in individual liberty insofar as it can be used without injuring the rights of the community. Americans believe in freedom of speech and of the press. The true American will not abuse these rights. Americans believe in a universal education which discovers or reveals the best function for each individual and helps him to achieve that end. Americans believe in the dignity and strength of common nature and in democracy as its ultimate triumph.

In the popular mind the flag of a nation is associated with its wars, due, no doubt, largely to the fact that flags or banners had their origin in man's struggles for supremacy. But war achievements are only part of what the flag of a nation represents. A nation's flag represents its peace accomplishments, which are often greater than those of war. The ideals, the traditions of a people, their progress and achievements are symbolized by their flag. Let us remember that our Flag represents the peace achievements of the American people, and let us not forget that "Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war."

This year the girls may choose between two titles. 1. Why I Believe in Democracy. 2. Education for Democracy. The essays are to be approximately 500 words in length. They must be written on one side only of regulation note-book paper. Writing must be legible, spelling correct, words carefully chosen and sentences well constructed. Pages must be numbered and the writer's name should appear in the upper right corner of each page.

Each week there will appear in the Heppner Gazette Times a list of ten questions pertaining to the Flag of the United States. The boys of the eighth grade will answer these questions in writing. Some 50 questions in all will be published. The papers must be neatly written, words correctly spelled and the meaning and thought clearly expressed. The questions must be numbered just as they are in the paper and the boy's name should be written at the top of each page.

Both boys and girls will be scored by their teachers on the following qualities: Scholarship, honor, service, courage, and leadership. All together the highest possible score will be 100 points. Each of the above mentioned qualities will count 16 2-3 points. The essay and the answers to the Flag Code questions will each count 16 2-3 points.

The girl receiving the highest score will be given the American Legion Medal Award and have her name inscribed on the American Legion Auxiliary Honor Roll which hangs in the eighth grade room. There will be a suitable award for the girl receiving the next highest score. There will also be awards for the boys receiving the two highest scores.

All papers, both essays and Flag Code answers must be in the hands of the Americanism chairman by April 30th.

CMTC Will Enroll Two County Boys

A Citizens Military Training camp will again be held at Vancouver Barracks, Washington, this summer during the period from July 9th to August 7th. Over 500 boys from the five counties in southwestern Washington, and the entire state of Oregon will be entertained at the camp. The quota for Morrow county has been tentatively set at two boys. The county quota may be increased depending upon the number of applications received.

C. J. D. Bauman, Heppner, will again act as county chairman of the Military Training Camps association for Morrow county. He will be in charge of local arrangements for the enrollment of boys from the county.

Archie D. McMurdo has volunteered his services to act as medical examiner of boys who apply for attendance at camp.

Starl J. Hamrick, Heppner is so far the only applicant from Morrow county.

To attend camp a boy must be at least 17 years old, in good physical condition, of good moral character and able to read and write. Complete expenses of attendance at camp are furnished by the government which includes a bountiful supply of well balanced food, uniforms, quarters and bedding and transportation allowance to and from camp at the rate of five cents per mile.

Requests for further information should be made to the local chairman or by writing to the CMTC Officer, Vancouver Barracks, Wash.

STOCK MEETINGS HELD

Carl Ewing, supervisor, and O. J. Johnson, range examiner of the Umatilla National forest, were in the county this week assisting with a series of meetings of stock associations. Meetings were held at Lena, Rhea creek and Spray on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the Five Mile, Hardman and Tamarack associations, respectively.

CORRECTION

In announcing the meeting of Inland Empire Waterways association at Walla Walla in these columns last week the date was incorrectly stated. It should have been Friday, March 25. Location of port districts and type of port facilities will be discussed.

Spencer Crawford made a business trip to the San Francisco bay region the end of the week, returning home Tuesday morning.

Future Farmers Have Successful Banquet

The officers of the FFA will hold meetings every night this week to get in good practice and be prepared for the sectional meeting at Arlington, to be held March 25.

The FFA banquet was a great success. All of the parents were not able to attend it. The following gave speeches: Judge Johnson; Jack Healy giving speech that he will give at the Arlington sectional meet; Mr. Blankenship, the school superintendent; Mr. Pinckney, the new local banker, and Mrs. Rodgers, Morrow county school superintendent.

O. E. S. TO MEET

Ruth chapter 32, Order of Eastern Star, will have a Constitution Day program at its regular meeting at Masonic hall tomorrow evening, and refreshments will be served, announces Mary Guild, worthy matron.

U. O. Students Start Spring Term March 21

University of Oregon, Eugene, March 15—Students of the University of Oregon, new and old, will begin spring term studies Monday, March 21, when registration will be held, it was announced here by Dr. Donald M. Erb, new president of the institution.

Students entering for the first time, as well as those who have been forced to drop out previously, will be especially welcome, it is stated, and ample course offerings in every school and department on the campus are open to them: Students entering this term may, by attending some summer sessions, catch up and graduate with the present freshman class, it is pointed out.

New students entering at this time will have the distinction of being the first to be welcomed by the new president, who a few days ago took over his duties as head of the university.

Registration, which set new records for fall and winter terms, is expected to continue above former marks for the spring term, and an enrollment of well over 3,000 is predicted.

Classes for the spring term will continue until May 31, when examinations for the first three classes will start. Seniors will take examinations earlier and will have commencement exercises May 29 and 30. Examinations for others will end June 5.

Summer sessions this year are scheduled to start on June 20.

Approximately 30,000 claims for unemployment compensation insurance have been approved to date according to D. A. Bulmore, administrator for the Oregon Unemployment Compensation commission.
