Visit Glutton Falls On Sneak Day

By OPAL HASTINGS

The Hardman high school took sneak day on Wednesday. They hiked to Glutton falls where they enjoyed a doubtful lunch which included stewed coffee flavored with cinders, scorched potatoes and oleomargarine, cookies, mince pie, sandwiches and apples. The afternoon was spent in recovering from the lunch and getting home, and then recovering for good. They intend to go again.

Raymond McDonald and Duff McKittrick spent the week end with their families.

Mrs. Whetstone, mother of Mrs. William Becholdt and Mrs. E. J. Merrill, died in Heppner Friday morning.

Mrs. Ada Cannon is all ready for spring driving with her new maroon DeSoto car.

On Friday the Spray high school came here for sneak day. They visited high school in the morning and played soft ball in the afternoon. They have a very good team which is shown by the fact that they won,
