HARDMAN NEWS

Hardmanites Return From Speech Festival

By OPAL HASTINGS

One of the high lights of our whole year was the trip to the speech arts festival at La Grande. Very early Saturday morning Vern McDaniel Opal Hastings, Mildred Clay, Irl Clary, Donald Robinson, Truman Cannon, Richard Robison and Mrs. G. I. Clary left Heppner and arrived at La Grande at 8:15. They were shown over the buildings and at 10:30 Opal Hastings and Irl Clary took part in the poetry reading. In the afternoon Irl, Mildred, Vern, Opal and Donald put on the play, "Not Quite Such a Goose," and then enjoyed the other plays, and at 5:30 there was a festival dinner at the Fireside which was poorly attended. The Hardman group, however, enjoyed this part of the day very much for Professor Kaiser of the speech department not only read Lindsay's Sante Fe Trail, but afterwards the whole group read the poems together as a choral reading. Then all went back to E. O. N. when another group of plays was put on. The Hardman people left La Grande at 10:15 and were home very tired and sleepy at 2:15, but determined to go again next year and take about three days for the trip.
