Condon Wins Iose Game

Heppner's high school baseball team went to Condon Friday, returning on the short end of a 6-5 score. The game was very even, with Heppner leading by one point at the end of their half of the last inning, but Condon succeeded in getting the tying and winning runs in their half of the same inning.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom Coming Next Saturday

The annual Junior-Senior banquet will be held Saturday, May 14, at the Parish house. The dinner is being served by the Episcopal ladies. Each year the junior class sponsors this banquet in honor of the senior graduating class.

After dinner there will be several speeches, including those of Mrs. Rodgers, Mr. Blankenship, Mr. Knox, Spencer Crawford, Paul McCarty, and several others.

Immediately after the banquet there will be a prom at the local gymnasium-auditorium. The entire Heppner high school is invited, and they in turn may invite one outside friend. The admission cost is 65c a couple, 40c for gentlemen without ladies, and 25c for ladies without gentlemen.

The decorations for the prom will portray a garden scene, with a big yellow moon overhead. Lighting effects will be in the form of a large lilac chandelier.

During intermission a very entertaining floor show will be presented, featuring both grade and high school talent. Music will be furnished by the Rhythmeers.

School Publishing Annual

For the first time in three years, Heppner high school is publishing an annual, the Heppnerian. Under the supervision of Miss Smith, the students are doing the writing, typing, and mimeograph work. Annuals will be available Monday for the cost of $1.25 each.

PINTO-POINTS

The sports double-header today between Heppner and Hermiston on the local athletic grounds offers something new in competitive entertainment for Heppner sport fans... this sports feature, which will be inaugurated here, is that of tennis... Heppner hasn't had a tennis team since 1917, but with the recent construction of two hard-surfaced courts, which resulted in a surprising interest in tennis, both grade and high school, A. H. Blankenship consented to instruct a Mustang net squad... the team has tied one match, that with Pendleton, and lost one to Hermiston... the inexperience of the local players, three freshmen, a junior, and two seniors, perhaps accounts for the none-too-remarkable record thus far this season, but a win over Hermiston, the predicted Umatilla county champion, will give Heppner an upset victory. The other half of the double-header is a baseball game between Heppner and the Bulldogs... some are rather fearful of this game's outcome, especially if the errors total up as they did in the last game at Hermiston... the final score was 25 to 2, with Heppner sadly claiming the latter figure.

Last week Coach Knox gave his physical education students one of the stiffest tests possible when he gave the boys in his gym classes an order, as an examination of physical condition and endurance, to take ten laps around the track at the rodeo grounds, to be completed in 41 minutes... each lap is a distance of one-fourth mile, and ten such trips make a total of two and a half miles... some of the fellows kept up a consistent pace for the entire two and a half miles, jogging along at a dog trot, some even sprinting the last lap... others couldn't keep up a trot; some couldn't even produce a fast walk... the best part of the show was the after-effects... some of the speedier lads paid for their flashy demonstration, for as soon as they finished, they were practically forced to take advantage of the opportunity to rest their weakened anatomy... it was all some could do to walk back to the gym... after the distance men reached the gym, they sat down on the first stable object that came in sight, and there was no moving them until they felt physically able to head for the showers... one boy thought he would demonstrate his reserve strength and chin himself on an overhead bar... it took two attempts to raise his chin to the level of the bar... after he succeeded, he called it quits and gently eased himself against the wall for a longer rest.

Quoting an item carried by Dick Jones' sport column in last Saturday's East Oregonian: "Note to coaches at Oregon and Eastern Oregon Normal: Ellwynne E. Peck, Lexington, and La Verne Van Marter, Heppner, recently awarded scholarships to the university, are, respectively, track and basketball stars." The paragraph then expressed the abilities of two other lads who were granted scholarships to the La Grande normal. However, in connection with the two previously-mentioned Morrow county athletes, Peck and Van Marter, especially the latter, are undoubtedly outstanding track and basketball men, but their ability in football far exceeds anything they have ever shown in either track or basketball... playing with Lexington's six-man football team last fall, Peck displayed some real football talent in his ball carrying and blocking, while Van Marter, who captained Heppner's gridiron eleven, led his team to several victories with his 195 pounds smashing forward walls of many eastern Oregon football teams... in fact Van Marter is considered of such football calibre that John Warren, University of Oregon frosh coach, called on him some time ago in connection with his playing football with the Webfoot freshman squad next fall.

Band Trip to Pendleton
 The Heppner school band journeyed to Pendleton last Saturday to participate in the Bargain Days celebration which marked the end of National Music week. After marching through the streets the band played a concert on the street. The people of Pendleton were very enthusiastic over the band.

Track Team Fourth at Condon
 The Heppner track team took part in the track meet held in Condon last Saturday. The boys did very well, placing fourth. Guy Moore placed first in the broad jump and second in the two-twenty. Arthur Vance was fourth in the high jump and third in the half-mile. Bill Blake ran fourth in the mile. Scores of the top four teams were as follows: Condon 51, Arlington 50, Wasco 13 and Heppner 12.

Student Elections Held
 The annual Heppner high school student body election was held last Monday, with the following students being elected from a large field of candidates to fill the vacancies left by the present administration: President, Bill Barratt; vice-president, John Crawford; secretary, Frances McCarty; treasurer, Joan Wright; sergeant-at-arms, Wilbur Worden; yell duchess, Anna Marie Johnston; yell duke, Warren Blakely, Jr.

In addition to these regular student body officers two students, a boy and girl, were elected from each class to serve on the Hehisch committee. They are as follows: Sophomore class, Pat Dooley and Hugh Crawford; junior class, Norma Prock and Jack Merrill; senior class, Howard Patton and Sybil Howell.

Faculty Opinion on Freshman-Senior Love Affairs:

Mr. Peavy: "Love knows no bounds."

Mrs. Clark: "Can it be taken seriously?"

Miss Smith: "Love affairs?????"

Miss Nordstrom: "Foolishness."

Mr. Bennett: "Baloney."

Mr. Knox: "I'm no Dorothy Dix. I would like to remark that this situation is unique in my experience."

Mr. Blankenship: "Results in bad effects on freshman and senior morale."

Student Opinion on Said Same:

Florence Becket: "Robbing the cradle."

Margaret Browning: "It that's the best they can get—"

Scott McMrdo: "I believe everyone should try to cultivate close friendships."

Maxine McCurdy: "I don't approve of love affairs, but I think friendships are O. K."

Don Bennett: "It's a great life if you don't weaken."

Harry O'Donnell: "I'm not saying—that is, it's O. K.; there's no harm in it."

Arlene Morton: "Is there such a thing as love?"

Bethal Blake: "It's the most foolish thing I have ever seen or heard of."

Vacation Nears
 As vacation nears and school is nearly out, many students forget their sole purpose of going to school and start slackening up on their work. Semester examinations will be given next Tuesday and Wednesday, and until then we had better not forget what our books are used for. The seniors, above all, should take all precaution in their work. They not only have to worry about perhaps not graduating but also since this is their last year in school, about leaving with a clean slate and a good name.

Fifth Grade News
 Of the fifth and sixth grade division, Alden Greeley received second place in the poppy poster contest. Alden is in the fifth grade. This contest is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Joseph Hughes received honorable mention for his poster. We had our regular meeting Monday.

Humor
 Some people have all the luck. We know a fellow who was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, and now he has a gold plate there. It is rumored that Kemp Dick has written to Washington, outlining his latest scheme for spending Government money. He suggests covered roadways be constructed in all sections where there are heavy snowfalls by merely roofing across from billboard to billboard. Matrimony says, "I do"—Alimony says, "I due."

Dictators are great humorists—they can gag a whole population. The European dove of peace seems to be reposing in a machine gun nest.

Teacher: "What is the formula sign for water?"
 Art Mc.: "H-I-J-K-L-M-N-O."
 Teacher: "What do you mean?"
 Art: "Why, you said it was H to O."
