Hardman Youths Attend Cove School

By OPAL HASTINGS

On Sunday about noon Jim Stevens took Frances Inskip, Mildred Clary and Irl Clary to Heppner where they met Rev. R. V. Hinkle and then went on to Cove to attend the Episcopal summer camp and school. Rita Robinson and Vern McDaniel are also at Cove but they left here Saturday. Mildred Clary received the free scholarship offered by Bishop Remington. Her Sunday school attendance for the year was perfect and that was why it was awarded to her. The other four were sent by the Cove club, an organization within the high school student body.

Ethel McDaniel and children, Vern, Vera and Cecil, Miss Muri Farrens and Rita Robinson left Saturday morning and planned to spend the night at Union, then go to Cove Sunday. After a day or two there they are all, except Rita and Vern, going on to Enterprise where they will visit Ethel's sister, Bee Windsor. Mrs. Anson Rugg of Rhea creek went as far as La Grande with them where she will stay for a visit.

Mrs. Owen Leathers who has been on the sick list for some time, has been suffering for weeks from rheumatism. She is able to be around now and is quite a bit better.

Buster Bleakman had some unfortunate luck one day last week. He was working at Reed's mill when he was so unlucky as to break some ribs. This was quite a painful experience and has kept him from going back to work.

Owen Leathers went to Tyndal Robison's for several days to make troughs.

John McDonald and his son Lewis of Boardman, who formerly lived here, have been visiting and attending to business for a time. Mr. McDonald and Lewis are now working at the Bertha Dean place in the mountains cutting wood. Mrs. McDonald is staying with Ethel Bleakman who is ill. They may stay in that vicinity all summer.

Esten Stevens and Mrs. Frank McDaniel went to Fox valley Saturday to see Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Musgrave. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Wes Stevens who live near Hamilton now. They returned to Hardman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bobison left for Portland last week with a truck load of stock.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Saling of Bull Prairie were visitors at the home of Mrs. Owen Leathers Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Lovgren were in Condon Saturday to attend the Rodeo. Vester Hams, Marjorie McFerrin and Harry Owen were also visitors at the Condon Rodeo but on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers and sons Gus and Elmer moved to the mountains where the men are cutting logs.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robison, Doris Ray and Ilo Merrill were in town Monday.

Guy Chapin went to work this week building fence for Stanley Robison.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell and son Everett were in town for a short time Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniel took a three-day trip last week. They went to Pendleton, La Grande, Cove and other places and returned by way of John Day. They reported that they found the weather very warm, but had a great time in spite of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniel went to Ditch creek Saturday evening and enjoyed a visit there with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman. They also did some fishing and returned Sunday evening, but no big fish stories are being circulated.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Sr., were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren Sunday. Mr. Lovgren came after them and also brought them home later in the day.

Mrs. Ada Cannon, two sons Bud and Pete, and two daughters Lola and Charlotte, were visitors in Heppner Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fraters, Mrs. Charles Fraters and Mrs. William Lee were in Heppner Saturday.

Miss Alta Stevens, Miss Frances

Inskip, Miss Alene Inskip and Jim Stevens ate dinner at the John Stevens sheep camp last Sunday.

Frank Fraters and Fred Gallagher were here on business Saturday.

4-H Clubbers End Record Two Weeks At Oregon State

Two weeks of work and recreation have been completed by the largest number of 4-H club members ever to assemble in a club session west of the Mississippi, and more than 1800 youngsters and their leaders have returned to every county in Oregon after fulfilling their motto of "making the best better" at their 24th annual session at Oregon State college.

Portland sent the largest delegation this year, as usual, having about 180 members present. Lane county was next with 121, followed by Douglas with 80, Washington 76, Klamath 73 and Clackamas 66.

Mary Louise Armstrong of Portland was chosen president of the girls' executive council this year. The council is made up of the presidents of each of the girls' living organizations. Mary was president of the group housed in the Pi Beta Phi sorority house. Heading the boys' governing group was Roger Dumdi of Carlton, who, with the nine other council members, was elected at a general meeting of the boys.

The other members of the girls' council included Mary Olive Snarr of Portland; Barbara Sargeant, Hopewell; LaVerne Whitehead and Carolyn Kaufman, Marion county; Betty Hill and Ethel Ann Newton, Lane; Ann McNabb, Sherman; Eleanor Hanley, Washington; Jean Bateman, Lincoln; Ruth Shelby, Linn; Yvonne Prophet, Grant; Phyllis Keith, Josephine; Marilyn Rightmeir, Klamath; Lou Britton, Douglas; Margaret Belton, Clackamas; Lillian Winn, Multnomah, and Maxine Sutton, Curry.

Other members of the boys' executive committee, charged with keeping nearly 700 boys in attendance "in line," were Joe Berger, Beaverton; Ed Setniker, Hillsboro; Bob Blinkenstaff, Klamath Falls; Chancy Barnes, Halsey; Dean Jackson, Cottage Grove; Walter Robertson, Blachly; Clayton and Wilbur Nyberg, Tualatin, and Bob King, Moro.

More than 70 per cent of the club members attended on scholarships awarded for outstanding work in the various projects, of which 204 were awarded by granges of the state.

OSC Ends Year With Record Total of 4476

Oregon State College—By far the largest total enrollment for the full year at Oregon State college ever recorded has just been reported by E. B. Lemon, registrar, in a year-end tabulation. Regular course students for the three terms for 1937-38 totaled 4476 compared with 4137 last year and a previous high mark of 3828 made in 1928-29. This year's total is more than twice that of four years ago when 2227 enrolled in the year 1933-34.

This 4476 includes only those students taking work in the regular college year, and eliminates duplications. Added to this are 705 in last year's summer session and 155 in short courses, making a grand total of adult campus students for the year of 533. Total enrollments for all years since figures are available starting in 1888 show 92,040 regular course students, 19,275 in summer sessions, 17,749 in short courses, 955 in miscellaneous classifications, for a grand total of 130,011 for the 51-year period.
