

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford, daughter Miss Jane Crawford and sons Raymond and Arthur arrived Sunday evening from their home at San Rafael, Cal., to visit for a week with relatives and friends. Mr. Crawford holds the position of associate editor with Underwriters Report, an insurance publication produced in San Francisco. They drove north by way of the Pacific highway, the Weed cut-off to Klamath Falls, The Dalles-California, Ochoco and Heppner-Spray highways, and found evidence of heavy showers all along the route.

Miss Ruth Green and brother Joe Green drove to Eugene Sunday where Miss Green expected to enter University of Oregon summer school. For some time before leaving Miss Green conducted a research on the early history of Heppner for inclusion in an article to be read over KOAC, college radio station, in connection with a program citing histories of various towns of the state.

Mayor and Mrs. Cecil L. (Buck) Lieuallen of Pendleton were calling in the city yesterday with Mrs. Lieuallen's father, Jack Hynd, coming up from the Hynd ranch where Mr. Lieuallen and family had been overnight guests Tuesday. They were returning to the Round-Up city.

Eddie Robbins, who will join the University of Oregon law teaching staff the coming year and who is the son of a law professor at Harvard university, was here this week visiting Francis Nickerson and together they went to the Nickerson farm near Ukiah for an outing.

J. G. Barratt, son Bill and John Crawford left yesterday evening in the Barratt car for the Barratt summer sheep range in Montana. Mr. Barratt took the boys along to see some of the beautiful scenery in the Glacier National park section where the sheep graze.

Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers and Mrs. R. C. Young departed today for The Dalles where they joined Rev. Mr. Young in representing the local church in the annual conference of Methodist churches. Mrs. Rodgers is attending as a lay delegate from the local church.

Charles B. Cox returned home Tuesday evening from a trip to Portland where he joined Mrs. Cox. Together they visited at Newberg with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morton, former neighbors here. Mrs. Cox remained in Portland for the rest of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett and Billy expect to leave for Portland tomorrow where Mr. Bennett will attend a Smith-Hughes conference for a week. Mrs. Bennett expected to go on to Seattle to spend a couple of months.

Alva Jones motored to Portland Tuesday and expected to return yesterday evening with Mrs. Jones who has been visiting for several weeks in Portland at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. V. Crawford.

T. J. Humphreys arrived home this morning from a three-weeks' trip on which he visited with his daughter, Miss Evelyn Humphreys, at San Francisco and with relatives in the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham returned home this week from a vacation trip. Going first to Portland they were joined by Miss Bess Huddleston who accompanied them on to Seattle.

Mrs. Olive B. Bassett of Sacramento, Cal., arrived this week to spend the summer at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Hughes, and family at the Willow creek farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Sackett have been spending the week here from their home at Salem attending to business in connection with the estate of the late S. E. Notson.

J. G. Barratt returned Saturday evening from a business trip to Portland.

Walter E. Moore, manager Pendleton Production Credit association, was a business visitor in the city Saturday afternoon and enjoyed greeting old-time friends.

Alvin Lass, who has been working at the farm of Mrs. Lucy O'Brien, underwent a major operation at Heppner hospital Monday.

Mrs. Virginia Hesselstine arrived Tuesday from her home at Walla Walla to visit with her son, Clarence Hesselstine.

James Pointer Christian minister at Lexington and Ione, was a visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Miller of Morgan at Heppner hospital Monday, a 9-pound boy.

Alex Cornett suffered a heart attack Monday and is being cared for at the James Furlong home.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for the flowers, fruit, cards, ice cream, ice and those doing our washing and especially Mrs. Ida Kopp and Mrs. Henry Clark during Mary's illness.

James Lindsay and family.

CATCHES HAND IN WRINGER

Mrs. John Wightman sustained painful injuries this morning when her hand was caught in the wringer while washing. She was rushed to a physician's office and was resting quite well after receiving treatment.

● Ten Years Ago

(Gazette Times, June 28, 1928)

New school board takes over with S. E. Nodson, chairman, Dr. A. D. McMurdo and Chas. Thomson, directors, Mrs. Claude Cox, clerk.

Mrs. William Wilson died at home here Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Rasmus of Los Angeles were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Rasmus in this city from Monday to Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Burgess departed this morning for their summer home at Elk lake.

Paul Rietmann, prominent Ione wheat raiser, died in this city Sunday.

Two hundred people attended farmers' picnic at Akers grove in Eight Mile Sunday. . . . Carl Bergstrom won horseshoe pitching contest for men, Mrs. Ben Anderson and Mrs. Ray Drake for women.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy M. Turner arrived from their home at Long Beach, Cal., on Tuesday night.

Phelps Funeral Home
Ambulance Service
Trained Lady Assistant
Phone 1332 Heppner, Ore.

WHY BAKE?

—when you can get the choicest Bakery Products so economically at the

HEPPNER BAKERY

ASK FOR HEPPNER BREAD
FROM YOUR GROCER

All Products FRESH DAILY

Fire Guards Talked For Grazing District

Protection against fire and rodents for the north Morrow grazing district is being considered today by district authorities in conference with Marvin Klemme, regional grazer, and Mr. Galt, who are here from the office at Burns.

Construction of fire guards is the largest immediate problem facing the local district, known as Oregon District No. 7, at the present time, said Joe Belanger, district secretary.

NOTICE TO FIRE CRACKERS

Notice is hereby given that the sale and discharge of fire crackers and other combustibles within the City of Heppner, is strictly forbidden by ordinance, and that the ordinance will be strictly enforced, and all persons found guilty will be prosecuted accordingly.

Dated June 23rd, 1938.

BY ORDER OF THE COUNCIL,
E. R. HUSTON, Recorder.

THE STAR Reporter

Matinee: Saturday 1 p. m.; Sunday 1 p. m., 3 p. m.

Friday-Saturday:

Cassidy of Bar 20

Another thrill-packed Hopalong Cassidy hit—plus

Goodbye Broadway

with

Alice Brady—Charles Wininger
Tom Brown—Dorothea Kent
Inimitable offerings by Tom Riggs and Betty Lou.

Sunday-Monday:

Robert Louis Stephenson's KIDNAPPED

with

Freddie Bartholomew—Warner Baxter—Arleen Whalen—C. Aubrey Smith—Reginald Owen—John Carridine—Nigel Bruce—Ralph Forbes H. B. Warner—E. E. Clive—and a cast of 5,000.

The immortal tale of love and adventure on sea and land.

Disney Cartoon Movietone News

Tuesday:

MR. MOTO TAKES A CHANCE

with

Peter Lorre—Rochelle Hudson
Robert Kent—J. Edward Bromburg
The famous Saturday Evening Post master of mystery faces another astounding adventure.

Comedy Novelty

Wed.-Thu., June 29-30:

MERRILY WE LIVE

with

Constance Bennett—Brian Aherne
Alan Mowbray—Billie Burke
Patsy Kelly—Ann Dvorak—Bonita Granville—Tom Brown—Marjorie Rambeau.

A side-splitting bunch of hilarity in a house full of crazy people.

—Starting July 1st, Saturday Matinees will be discontinued for the summer. Sunday Matinees as usual at 1 p. m. and 3 p. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen, Betty and Glenn are invited to use this coupon for complimentary admissions. Please use before July 1st.

Star Theater

HEPPNER, ORE.

FIREWORKS

FIRE CRACKERS
SKY ROCKETS
ROMAN CANDLES
TORPEDOES

HARRY WELLS
At Dick Wells Ranch

CELEBRATE

at

Kennewick

JULY 2-3-4

THREE DAY RODEO

(Inland Empire Championship)

Pioneer Reunion, Sunday

Dancing, Saturday -- Monday

Smoker, Saturday -- Monday

Races

Concessions

Property Owners

The Heppner Abstract Co.

wishes to announce that besides issuing Abstracts of Title, it has made arrangements to issue

TITLE INSURANCE

and

MORTGAGE INSURANCE

in this County, at

Portland Prices

Thanking you for past business and guaranteeing you the lowest prices on Abstracts or Title and Title Insurance

J. LOGIE RICHARDSON,
Manager

Phone 503