Inskeep Elected Director at Hardman

By OPAL HASTINGS
The annual meeting of the Hardman Union high school No. 1 was held Monday for the purpose of electing one director from District 40 for five years. The candidates were Alice Hastings, Forest Adams, Neal Knighten and A. D. Inskeep. Mr. Inskeep was elected. On the election board were Mrs. Owen Leathers, Mrs. George Hayden, Edward McDaniel and Mrs. G. I. Clary, chairman.

Relatives and friends were very grieved to hear of the passing of Dale Bleakman, who was born and lived in Hardman until passing high school. Sympathy is extended to his wife, daughter and parents, from their many friends here.

Lon Merrill was visiting in Hardman last week. He came from Monument.

Irl Clary who has been ill for some time was taken to the veterans' hospital at Walla Walla Saturday. He did not know how long he would have to remain there. When he first came to Hardman he went to the hospital and spent a year there.

Ed McDaniel returned to town after being in Lonerock two weeks.

Buster and Delsie Bleakman and Raymond Reid went to Hood River to see Mrs. Earl Redding. While there they picked some cherries and strawberries to bring home. They reported a very pleasant trip.

Sam McDaniel, Sr., has been ill for two or three days. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Early Friday morning Mrs. Roy Robinson and Creston drove to Cove to bring home the Hardman young people. Rita Robinson, Vern McDaniel and Mildred and Irl Clary returned with them, and all available space on the inside and outside of the car was filled with quantities of baggage and bedding. Frances Inskeep returned with the Heppner group in Mr. Hinkle's car. They tell tales about a "stream-lined train" which they saw on the way home. Everybody had such a good time at Cove that most were saying, "We'll go again next year."

Mrs. Loy McFerrin was called to Baker Saturday where her mother passed away.

Ima McDaniel and Elma Harshman were in Heppner Monday where Mr. McDaniel visited a dentist.

On Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Morton home in Portland, Miss Iris Morton, who was principal of our grade school last year, and Marvin Brannon were united in marriage. Hardman friends who were present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten, Miss Mildred Clary and Irl Clary. After a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Brannon will return to Hardman and will reside in the upstairs apartment at the Knighten home. We extend to them the community's best wishes for happiness.

Mrs. Bessie Cook of Independence, a sister of E. J. Craber, visited at the Craber home last week. Years ago she lived in Hardman.

Nelson Knighten left Thursday for the Harold Wright ranch where he is employed for the season.

Irl and Mildred Clary left early Saturday morning for Portland where they will visit for some time with Miss Anne Conmery, a sister of Mrs. Clary.

Jap Walker moved last week and is now residing in rooms at the hotel building.

On Wednesday Mrs. Harlan Adams, Mrs. Owen Leathers and Leon Chapin were in Heppner.

Mildred McDaniel came home from the mountains where she has been for the past ten days with her husband, Frank McDaniel.

Lew Knighten had all his teeth removed last week. He is feeling better again after several painful days.

Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and girls, Mary Stanton and Les Robinson spent Sunday at Delbert Robinson's sheep camp.

Creth Craber visited Marie Clary Sunday.

Percy Bleakman and family were visiting at the E. J. Merrill home last week end. They came up from Lakeview to attend the funeral of Dale Bleakman. Percy is employed by the bureau of public roads.

Kenneth Bleakman and family and Mrs. J. J. McDonald went to Arlington Sunday to get Mr. and Mrs. Owen Bleakman, bringing them to Heppner. They returned to Tupper ranger station Sunday evening.

Harry French returned from the coast this week where he spent a few days on a vacation.

Miss Frances Inskeep, Jim Stevens and Henry Graham drove to Camas prairie Sunday. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins for a few minutes.

Miss Nona Inskeep and Miss Ollie Hastings are staying for a few days at the Jones ranch where Osceol Inskeep is working.

Henry Graham is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Inskeep.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Athena visited their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. F. Matin, Saturday.

Earnabelle Peck is visiting in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Root and Mr. and Mrs. E. Barlow and daughter Carma motored to Heppner Sunday where they attended a birthday dinner.

Since July 1, 1935, when the safety responsibility act went into effect in Oregon, 2363 operators' permits have been suspended or revoked subject to the provisions of the act, according to Secretary of State Earl Snell. This means that the 2363 operators will be required to furnish proof of their financial responsibility before they will be eligible to apply for new licenses, or to have their licenses reinstated.

Highway travel in Oregon, measured by gasoline consumption, was more than four per cent higher during the first five months of 1938 than during the same period last year, according to Secretary of State Earl Snell. Travel during May held a high level although it dropped one per cent below last May's record breaking figure.

Apricot Crop at Irrigon Fine Quality

By MRS. W. C. ISOM

Mr. Swearingen motored to Pendleton Saturday with a truck load of apricots. He was a Milton visitor Sunday, bringing home a load of boxes and left Monday for Portland with a load of apricots. Glen Aldrich accompanied him to Portland. A large crop of apricots is being harvested on the Swearingen place this year. Five pickers, five packers, two box makers and two nailers are employed steadily. The "cots" are a very fine quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Caldwell of Portland were guests of Mrs. Caldwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caldwell, Saturday night.

Mrs. W. C. Isom was a business visitor in Heppner Tuesday night and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brownell of Portland visited Mrs. Brownell's mother, Mrs. J. A. Grabel Saturday night, being enroute to visit their daughter, Mrs. Ada Chapman, who is in the Pendleton hospital.
