Many Attend Rites For Dale Bleakman
Funeral services for Dale Bleakman at the Church of Christ in this city Sunday afternoon brought an overflow attendance of friends and relatives, and the floral tribute was exceedingly large. Rev. R. C. Young and Alvin Kleinfeldt, Methodist and Christian ministers, officiated, and pallbearers were all close friends of the deceased who had worked with him on highway work at various times. Interment was in Masonic cemetery. Vinson Dale Bleakman was born October 18, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bleakman at Hardman. He married Miss Ora Aiken of Grant county Jan. 3, 1929, and to this union a daughter was born, who with the widow survives. Surviving also are the parents, a brother, Rho Bleakman of Monument, and a sister, Mrs. Herbert Hynd of Cecil. Mr. Bleakman passed away at Morton, Wash., on June 21, from lethargic encephalitis, having been ill but two days. He was in charge of the Morton division of Bureau of Public Roads work at the time of his fatal illness.

More than 1000 boys and girls at the recent 4-H club summer session at Corvallis attended classes in traffic safety conducted under the auspices of Secretary of State Earl Snell. The young people filled out traffic questionnaires and were tested on the "reactometer," which measures the length of time it takes them to react to a traffic light by stepping in the brake.

REPORTS HEAVY RAIN

F. F. Wehmeyer who returned the end of the week from fire school on the head of Birch creek, reported that the upper reaches of the creek which sent the devastating deluge through Pilot Rock was visited by a heavy downpour coincident with the disaster. The flat where the school was held was flooded to a depth of four inches. Had the runoff not been diverted partly through other channels, he said, the waters might easily have washed the little Umatilla county town clear into the Columbia.

EIGHT MILE FARM SOLD

The former Oscar Keithley farm in Eight Mile was sold this week by Federal Land Bank of Spokane to Lawrence Palmer of Lexington. Eight hundred acres of wheat land was involved in the deal.
