Morton-Brannon Nuptials Reported

By OPAL HASTINGS

The people of the community were much interested in the recent Morton-Brannon wedding and are now able to give some details. We know the bride was lovely in a white embroidered net dress, Queen Anne style. There was a wreath of orange blossoms and lilly-of-the-valley, and a bride's bouquet of cream rose buds and baby breath. Although we are not acquainted with Miss Nadine Morton, the bride's sister, we know she was very lovely in a pink crepe dress with bolero of net. Her bouquet was of pink rose buds and sweet peas. As best man the new Mrs. Brannon chose Osman E. Morton, her brother. The bride was given away by her father, H. J. Morton. The Rev. H. O. Wilson of the First Christian church of Portland performed the marriage rites and Miss Ruth Vaughn played the prelude and wedding march. Miss Roberta Vannice sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me," Miss Marjorie Boon cut the wedding cake and Miss Edith Tone served at the punch bowl. We all enjoyed hearing about the wedding and wish Mr. and Mrs. Brannon loads of happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten and Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robison and Doris and Miss Erma Scott left Sunday for Blue Mountain springs where they spent the Fourth, returning home Monday evening.

A large crowd met Tuesday evening and called upon the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brannon in a most quiet manner—the silent type of charivari. After singing a number of popular songs around the piano everyone went to the hall and danced for an hour or so.

The funeral of Mrs. Martin Lovgren was attended by more friends than any other funeral in recent years, for Mrs. Lovgren was well liked and respected by everybody. Mrs. Harlan Adams, Mrs. Neal Knighten and Mrs. Marvin Brannon sang three songs accompanied by Mrs. G. I. Clary.

Mrs. Kinnard McDaniel went to the Weatherford ranch at Arlington to cook during harvest.

Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and Miss Delsie Bleakman went to Heppner with Miss Murl Farrens Saturday.

The grade school board held a special meeting on Saturday and awarded the wood contract to James Brannon.

The birthday party honoring Mrs. Ethel McDaniel was a very nice one and she received many beautiful gifts. Sandwiches, jello, cake and punch were served. The birthday club is proving to be a very happy arrangement for providing social affairs.

We were all surprised to see a picture of Mildred and Irl Clary in last Thursday's Oregonian. They are enjoying their visit in Portland.

Mrs. B. H. Bleakman and Delsie with Raymond Reid went to Heppner Sunday evening to the show.

Glen A. Merritt of Everett, Wash., is visiting with friends and relatives, Mrs. Owen Leathers and Opal, G. Adams and Ed McDaniel.

Mrs. Gladys Corrigan and Maud Samuels of Echo visited in town on Thursday.

Alice Hastings, Oren McDaniel, Kenneth Press and Mrs. Sam McDaniel went down to the Ira McConkie ranch Sunday.

Buster Bleakman and Herbert McDaniel went to Blackburn's mill on Saturday to attend to some business.

Mrs. Alma Scott was in Hardman Friday from Heppner to attend the funeral of Mrs. Martin Lovgren.

The grade school board met on July 2 and levied the budget for the coming year. The taxpayers will meet on July 25 at 2 p. m. to vote on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers and son visited a short time Sunday at Bull prairie guard station with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Saling.

Miss Nona Inskip and Miss Allie Hastings returned home from the Jones ranch Monday evening where they have been on a visit. Miss Alene Inskip went to the ranch the same evening.

On July 1 the stage was brought to Hardman by Elbert Cox who has the contract for the next four years, coming to Hardman every week day and then to Eight Mile three days a week. The Hardman people were grieved to think that Geo. Bleakman will not bring the mail into Hardman for the next four years. He was so considerate of everyone and practically every day did errands in Heppner for someone here.

Fog and the bad weather with heavy snow never fazed him. He brought the mail through and always arrived with a smile and joke for someone. So you will know that he will be terribly missed by his many friends, young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bobinson of Lonerock called at the E. J. Merrill ranch this week.

Victor Johnson and family, Duffrin McKittrick and family, Raymond McDonald and family motored to Juaquin Miller to celebrate the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stone and Lucille Reed of Spokane are spending the holidays at Reed's mill.

SISTER-IN-LAW PASSES

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Happold and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Oviatt, from Heppner, and Mrs. Ray Oviatt from Hermiston attended funeral services at Wasco Saturday for Mrs. J. R. Yocom, nee May Brock, 28, who died at The Dalles hospital a few days previously from pneumonia following a major operation. Mrs. Yocom was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Kane, Mrs. Happold and Mrs. Ray Oviatt. Besides the husband, Mrs. Yocom is survived by three children, Shirley, Beverley and Joe. The family home is on a farm a few miles east of Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Blankenship and daughter Jean were in the city over the week end from Seattle while Mr. Blankenship attended to business in connection with his office as superintendent of local schools. He is attending summer school at University of Washington.
