Issues Safety Leaflet A strong plea for united effort to reduce Oregon's pedestrian fatalities is contained in a leaflet published SALE OF BEAL PROPERTY.

Secretary of State

is contained in a leaflet published this week by Secretary of State Earl Snell, who announced it will be widely distributed throughout the state. Stating that more than 1500 pe-destrians were killed or injured on Oregon streets and highways last year, the leaflet goes on to describe the chief pedestrian hazards and to the chief pedestrian hazards and to explain how to avoid them.

"We want to encourage pedestrians as well as motorists not only to obey the strict letter of the law, but also to follow the rules of courtesy and common sense on the highway," Snell said. "This leaflet shows graphically were here over the week end from how violation of those rules frequently leads to death or agonizing injury, and asks for cooperation in spreading information about safe walking Community safety councils and several other organizations will assist in distribution of the leaflet, Snell said. Copies may be obtained by writing to his office in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocket Sprouls and Janet were in the city a few days the first of the week visiting relaon, to-wit: The east half of the southwest quarter, the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 15, and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 22, all in Township one (1) North, Range 25 East of the Willamette Meridian. All bids will be received by the under-signed at my real estate office in Hotel Heppner, Heppner, Oregon. Dated and first published this 7th day of July, 1938. F. W. TURNER, Administrator.
