

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shelley of Pleasant Hill and Mrs. Shelley's sister, Mrs. John J. Bartsch of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, were visiting old time friends in Heppner the end of the week, driving over from the Grant Buchanan home at Echo where they were visiting. Mrs. Shelley and Mrs. Bartsch lived as girls on the farm in Blackhorse where Mrs. Catherine Doherty and family now live. Among their old-time neighbors were Mack Gentry, Orve Brown and Ralph Barton.

Miss Vivian Hobbs of Rose Hill, Va., is a guest at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bayless, arriving Friday by train at Pendleton where she was met by Mr. and Mrs. Bayless. This is Miss Hobbs' first visit to the west coast. She spent twenty days on the trip across the country, enjoying stop-overs at various points along the way. She expected to go on from here to Spokane. Miss Hobbs is a daughter of Mr. Bayless' sister.

W. A. McGuffie, representing Don Clay commission company, was among sheep buyers in the city Tuesday. Mr. McGuffie makes his home at Yakima and gave sad reports of the season's fruit market. Loads of cherries are going to waste on the trees, and an abundant apricot crop is largely rotting for lack of takers, he said. He recalled fine pears selling there at $8 a ton last year and potatoes at one time sold 10 cents for a 50-pound sack.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green arrived the end of the week from Portland, and Mrs. Green remained for a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Agnes Curran. Mr. Green returned to Portland Sunday, being accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Ridings who was on her way to join Mr. Ridings at Eugene after a month's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee with their son and daughter, Orrin of San Francisco and Miss Kathryn of Oregon City, left Sunday on a motor trip to Yellowstone National park. Orrin who holds a position with Standard Oil company arrived at Oregon City Saturday, being accompanied from there by Miss Bisbee, Clackamas county health nurse.

Mrs. F. S. Parker and daughter, Miss Kathryn, arrived home Saturday evening from a week's visit at the home of daughter and sister, Mrs. Dorris Mitchell, near Joseph. They found Mr. Mitchell able to do his own work again after being laid off for many months by injuries received in an automobile accident.

George Hislop, representing Hislop Sheep company of Spokane, was in the city Tuesday receiving sheep for the company. He is a student at Stanford university and holds a position on the campus daily newspaper which impelled him to make a visit to the Gazette Times office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt left Tuesday morning for Spokane where Mr. Barratt went to attend a meeting of directors of Northwest Production Credit association. From Spokane they expected to fly to Montana to look after sheep interests there before returning home.

Walter Cason has been visiting relatives and friends here for several days, coming from Yakima with his daughters, Mrs. Muriel Vaughn and Mrs. Sybil Irwin, who with their families visited in Yakima last week.

Mrs. Blanche Watkins of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruth Aiken, at the Lotus Robison ranch, and also relatives at Kimberley, Monument and John Day. Mrs. Watkins is a sister of Judge C. L. Sweek.

S. J. Devine has been in the city this week doing work at the apartments following completion of harvest with a reported average of 24 bushels, at the north Lexington farm.

Walter Dobyns was in the city Monday from the Eight Mile farm, preparing to start harvest that afternoon.

Henry F. Blahm of Walla Walla, former resident, arrived in Heppner this morning accompanied by his son-in-law, daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Hergealt, Robert and Eleanor, who make their home in Portland. Mrs. Hergealt will be remembered by friends here as Miss Elizabeth Blahm. Mr. Blahm was looking after property interests in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. O'Donnell and son Jack returned yesterday from a motor trip to Portland. They were accompanied by Miss Virginia Nickerson of Oakland, Cal., niece of Mrs. O'Donnell and F. B. Nickerson who will visit at the O'Donnell and Nickerson homes for a time.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Oscar Washburn at the home of Mrs. Washburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Jones, yesterday a 7½ pound daughter. Mrs. Washburn was formerly Miss Vallis Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Frye, son Maurice, Jr., of Alameda, Cal., Mrs. Donald Bills and son Philip Freeman of Los Angeles, are visiting at the home of Mr. Frye's mother, Mrs. Olive Frye.

The Burl Coxen family returned this week from a motor trip which took them through central Oregon to Bend, across to Eugene and back home via Willamette valley points.

Frank C. Alfred, district attorney, left last Friday evening on a week's vacation motor trip with Mrs. Alfred to Crater Lake, Oregon Caves and points of interest on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson returned the end of the week from a visit to the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Becket, at Wallowa.

Mid Summer Sale—Coats, Suits and Hats, ½-price. Special rack of dresses sold regularly to $8.95 priced $1.95, $2.95, $3.95. Curran's Ready-to-Wear. 17-20

Mr. and Mrs. George Hayden were in town yesterday from the mill in the mountains. They reported rising temperatures in the mountain region.

Mrs. Fred Everson of one was a Heppner visitor Monday. She reported some grain in the Ione section yielding as high as 38 bushels to the acre.

Jason Biddle was in the city yesterday from the Rhea creek farm and reported his harvest about finished with a 17-bushel average.

Miss Frances Rugg is spending vacation from her work at Banks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rugg, on Rhea creek.

Harry Duvall reports his harvest completed on the Bell ranch, north of Lexington with an average yield of from 22 to 24 bushels.

Miss Mildred Clowry and Bernard McMurdo returned the first of the week from a vacation motor trip to Seattle and way points.

Miss Anabel Turner accompanied her father, F. W. Turner, to Portland Sunday and remained in the city for a visit.

Homer Green was in town Monday from the Eight Mile farm looking up help to assist in his wheat harvest.

Oral Scott was in town from the Blackhorse farm Monday getting ready to start harvesting operations.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Wightman and children were week-end visitors in Heppner from Arlington.

W. E. Mikesell was sufficiently recovered from his illness to be down town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner came over from Baker Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Flora Dimick and Mrs. Josie Jones left yesterday for Portland to attend Buyers week.

BUCKNUMS SEE PRESIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. William Bucknum returned home the first of the week from a motor trip to Los Angeles where they visited at the home of Mr. Bucknum's brother Elmer and family. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Lilliven, nee May Kilkeny, at Long Beach, and were met in Los Angeles for a visit by Matt Kenney, nephew of Mrs. Bucknum, who is in navy service at San Diego. They saw President Roosevelt when he appeared in San Francisco, and at Oakland visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, nee Helen Farley. A drive-in theater at Los Angeles, homes of movie stars, and a drive across the Golden Gate bridge at San Francisco were among highlights of the trip.

FRANCES MARIE LOVGREN

Funeral services were held from Phelps Funeral home Saturday afternoon for Frances Marie Lovgren, 20, who died Friday at the family home in Eight Mile following an illness since last October. Rev. R. C. Young, Methodist minister, officiated and interment was in Hardman I. O. O. F. cemetery, beside her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lovgren, both of whom passed away in recent months. Frances Marie was born July 25, 1917, being aged 20 years, 11 months and 20 days. She is survived by five sisters and six brothers.

BOBBY BALL TO PORTLAND

Bobby Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball, was taken to Portland Saturday night for specialized treatment in his serious illness with inflammatory rheumatism. Phelps ambulance moved him and his parents drove down in the car of Mrs. Agnes Curran. He was taken to the Portland Medical hospital and underwent an emergency operation to relieve pressure on the heart. Encouraging reports have since been received.

Ten Years Ago

(Gazette Times, July 26, 1928)

City swelters in Old SSI's grip. Climax came yesterday at 108. Men overcome by heat.

Heppner Rodeo dates set Sept. 27 to 29.

Mrs. Egbert Young died at Eight Mile yesterday.

Miss Melba Chidsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Chidsey, former residents, weds Joseph E. Stoy at Centralia, Wash.

Mrs. L. V. Ritchie passes at Ione.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnston will leave tomorrow for La Grande to attend meeting of Eastern Oregon Medical association.

R. J. Carsner, state legislator and prominent stockman of Sprap, was in the city the first of the week.

J. G. Thomson and sons Roderick and James, Jr., are enjoying a fishing trip into Grant county.

Phelps Funeral Home

Ambulance Service
Trained Lady Assistant
Phone 1332 Heppner, Ore.

WHY BAKE?

—when you can get the choicest Bakery Products so economically at the
HEPPNER BAKERY

ASK FOR
HEPPNER BREAD
FROM YOUR GROCER

All Products FRESH DAILY

BOY INJURED

Little Gene Bauernfeind of Morgan was brought to a local physician's office this morning for treatment of a nasty wound in the face received while attempting to cut wood at the camp in the mountains. Martin Bauernfeind, father, who accompanied him was not sure whether a stick flew up and hit the boy or whether it was the axe, but the boy's cheek was laid open just below the eye and the eye was discolored. It was not expected to prove serious.

33 COYOTES IN JUNE

The three U. S. Biological survey trappers in Morrow county killed 33 coyotes in June, according to report of Roy Fugate, district agent at Portland. Each worked thirty days. Of the total Adam Knoblock accounted for 12, Oscar D. McCarty 5 and Alva L. Stone 16.

Morrow County Grain Growers

G. J. RYAN, Manager

DAILY MARKET SERVICE AVAILABLE

REPRESENTING

North Pacific Grain Growers
Kerr-Gifford & Co.
Continental Grain Co.

SEE US BEFORE YOU SELL

The STAR Reporter

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

Two hours and forty minutes crammed full of entertainment!
LOUIS-SCHMELING FIGHT PICTURES

The shortest championship fight in history!
Slow motion showing details of every blow

—plus—

CITY STREETS

with Edith Fellows - Leo Carrillo

Two lovable characters in a heart-thrilling story

—plus—

THE DEVIL'S PARTY

with Victor McLaglen - William Gargan - Paul Kelly

Four boys and a girl—products of Hell's Kitchen; Fate flung their paths in different directions until trouble brought them together
Oswald Cartoon

SUNDAY-MONDAY

GREAT FOR WHAT AILS YOU!

TUESDAY

HOLD THAT KISS

with Mickey Rooney - Maureen O'Sullivan - Dennis O'Keefe
Mickey Rooney drives them looney—besides having a clarinet and a real swing band all his own! A rollicking riot of romance and fun.
Cartoon LaSavate

WED.-THU., JULY 27-28

PAL NIGHTS

PAL NIGHTS

HELL DIVERS

(Reissue)

Wallace Beery, Clark Gable, Conrad Nagel, Dorothy Jordan, Marjorie Rambeau, Marie Prevost, Cliff Edwards
Romance and adventure take to the air in one of the truly great pictures produced for the screen.

Pal Nights: 2 adults 35c—2 children 10c

Gang Comedy

News of the Day

STAR THEATER
HEPPNER, OREGON