

County Schools Prepare for Opening First of Next Week

Mrs. Rodgers Gives Outline of Changes, Predicts Good Year

By LUCY E. RODGERS, County School Superintendent.

Morrow county schools will open September 5 and 6 with most of them opening the sixth. The Hirl school opened Monday, Aug. 29, with Miss Lois Hewitt as teacher. Miss Hewitt is a new teacher in the county this year.

There are no changes in the administrative offices of the county schools but there will be several new class room teachers. In District No. 1, Miss Rachel Forsythe will fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Juanita Carmichael and Mrs. Carmichael will teach grades 3 and 4 in Dist. No. 12, and Mrs. Edna Turner who formerly taught these grades will have the primary department. Mrs. Lavelle White Sherman, the primary teacher in this school for a number of years, has resigned. One new teacher in the high school will take Miss Mary Alice Reed's place and Miss Reed will go to Nyssa. Mr. C. F. Langley of Wasco will have charge of the grade school athletics and will teach the upper grades.

District No. 35 will have two new teachers in the grades, Miss Gladys Brashears who formerly taught the Liberty school and Miss Katherine Schrof of Monmouth. Mr. Homer R. Williams of McMinnville will be a new teacher in the high school.

District No. 25, Boardman, will have two new high school teachers, Miss Esther McGrew and Mr. Glenn Mallery.

District No. 10, Irrigon, will have the same corps as last year and in addition there will be added another teacher in the high school.

District No. 26, Pine City, will have all new teachers except one. Mr. Barton Clarke will return as principal and high school teacher Miss Zella Robbins of Halfway will assist Mr. Clarke in the high school. Miss Lois Kent and one other whose contract has not yet been registered will teach in the grades.

District No. 40, Hardman, will have the same teaching staff in both grades and high school.

In the one room rural schools, Miss Oleta Rainey will teach again at Dist. 5, Morgan. In Dist. No. 11, Liberty, Miss Eva May Smith, who taught at Gooseberry, will be the teacher. In Dist. No. 24, Willow, Miss Lois Hewitt is teacher. In Dist. 29 Miss Miriam Mayer will teach. Miss Mayer is a new teacher in the county. Mrs. Vera Reed will be at Dist. 31, Eight Mile again. Mrs. Walter Blackburn is returning to Dist. 42 and Mrs. Harriet Robison will teach again at the Hail Ridge school, Dist. 49. Mrs. Margaret Cason will teach the Matteson school, Dist. 59. Mrs. Lena Kelly who was the former teacher of this school will teach at Kimberly.

Districts 36, Gooseberry and 27, Alpine have suspended their schools and the pupils will be transported to Ione and Pine City respectively.

No children who are under six years of age, unless they will become six by November first, will be admitted. If it were possible to have kindergarten work for five year olds and over the four year olds would be admitted. But under our present set-up first grade teachers can handle only those who are ready to begin reading. It is true, yes, that some children are not ready for reading at six years of age but our present school law says they may enter school at six years without taking into consideration the reading readiness of the children.

We have an efficient corps of teachers in the county and expect this to be an outstanding year educationally for the county.

The institute will be held jointly with Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Baker and Malheur counties at Pendleton, Oct. 20 and 21. This is known as the Eastern Oregon Regional Educational conference.

President Roosevelt said recently in a letter to the world's C. E. convention: "What this weary world most needs is a revival of the spirit of religion. Would that such a revival could sweep the nations today and stir the hearts of men and women of all faiths to a reassertion of their belief in the Providence of God and the brotherhood of man." REDMAN'S PASSING crowd in any race, however, than that of a previous quarter-mile race when the Frank Turner horse (now owned by Dr. A. D. McMurdo) won its first race in several years of running at Rodeo. It was the first time the mare ever got a good start, and though crowded by John D. Watkins, she won handily.

Joel Byrnes, R. L. Baze, Harland Kelly and Frank Swaggart split up the three-day relay money, and these four with Ted Baisden took the pony express awards.

Baze, Byrnes, Kelly, Baisden, Frank and Merle Swaggart, Harry Dick, O. A. Philbrick, Alex Shuster, Leo C. Yallup and Mary Jane Hawkins, the latter the only girl rider and who showed she was entitled to her position as attendant to the queen of Pendleton's Round-Up, made all the racing events outstanding with their good ponies, the most evenly matched ever appearing here.

Hot competition also prevailed in the bulldogging, with Shanik Red turning in best three-day time of 1:15 4-5, and record single day time of 1:17 4-5 on Sunday. Jess Lawrence had second 3-day time, 1:51 4-5, and Hoitt Moss, third, 1:58. Kenneth Depew, livestock director and all-round showman, took first day time of :22, came through with :43 the second day, but lost his chance at the three-day money when the long-horned maverick with which he tangled left him dangling in the east fence boards the third day. Though skinned up a bit, Kenneth was not badly injured.

Adding to the colorful three-day performance was the Heppner school band, led by Miss Jeanette Blakely in nifty white drum majorette attire, and directed by Harold Buhman; the addition of the Condon band on Sunday; the trick riding of Bobby Baisden; trick roping of Bud Jory, and the roman race riding of little Billy Smith, Jr., of St. Paul with his beautiful team of buckskin ponies. Another team of blacks was provided by Add Moore for this event, with Kenneth Depew riding Saturday, and Bobby Baisden riding Sunday. Probably no feature of the whole show was more enjoyable, however, than the hoop dance of Rudy Saluskin, petit Indian lad, who appeared before the grandstand Saturday and Sunday and was accorded an ovation by the crowd.

The show was announced by the Commercial Sound Co. of Portland with Joe Howard at the microphone.

(As gleaned by Paul McCarty at the Heppner Hotel desk)

In Sheriff Clarence Bauman's estimation the Browning Bros. Amusement company which provided the carnival entertainment for Heppner Rodeo fans, is the cleanest show he's ever seen, and Bauman doesn't believe in giving credit where credit isn't due. The Brownings are ready to return next year, which will make their fifth straight...two years ago the carnival made hardly enough to merit their coming back again but the people of Heppner, the Rodeo association, and all concerned displayed such a royal attitude that it was almost impossible to erase Heppner from the annual circuit. The carnival people weren't, as most people think, here merely to drain the town of innumerable coins...these entertainers do take in considerable money, true, but they also spend many dollars in our city...they buy their supplies here, eat at local restaurants, employ local men and boys, stay at our hotels, and try as much as possible to make their stay a profitable one for Heppner citizens. In fact one of the carnival contingent bought a suit of clothes before leaving town. If anyone doubts these statements, look up E. R. "Shafe" Schafer, who has been closely associated with Fred and Ed Browning and families and employees for four years through his managership of concessions.

Robert Knox, the man behind the local high school athletic set-up, arrived in town yesterday and is preparing for an outstanding year in connection with the 1938 football schedule. Knox, principal of the high school as well as physical education instruction, says, "No radical departure from last year's system is planned, other than necessary to accommodate the material we have. Our backfield should be better balanced and a good deal speedier than it was last year."

Someone mislaid a Rodeo parade judging sheet on the desk at the hotel and included were the winners of the oldest pioneer man, best goat pack string, best dressed cowboy and so on...but at the top of the page, written in free hand, the other items being typed, was the caption, "The Best Band in the World."

Two of the cowboys who participated in the Rodeo had been in Hollywood a short time ago making movies, and one of them proved his story by pointing himself out to the ushers at the Star theater as one of the cast in "There's a Goldmine in the Sky," which was showing then at the movie house...one of the buckaroos claimed to have doubled for Gene Autrey who, he says, is the worst rider in Hollywood among the screen westerners...according to him Autrey can hardly sit in a saddle. After the Walla Walla show this cowboy actor is leaving for the film capital for a movie try-out.

Rodeo Roustabouts...A few of the boys looking very similar to a Xmas tree...all lit up. Several gentlemen looking for a bald-headed man with red hair.
