

Columbia Athletic Mentor Visits

Gordon Ridings, former U. of O. basketball star who now holds a position on the Columbia university physical education teaching staff, arrived Monday from Eugene where he has been spending the summer. He joins Mrs. Ridings who has been visiting for a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark, and together they expect to leave for New York tomorrow.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ridings hold teaching positions in the metropolis, Mrs. Ridings teaching kindergarten in Riverside Memorial church, while Mr. Ridings teaches physical education, assists with intramural athletics and coaches freshman baseball at Columbia. Ridings enjoys an occasional game of handball with Lou Little, head football coach, who he says is one of the hardest working football coaches in the country. Still having a fancy for the maple court, Ridings does a little casaba instructing on the side, taking the Columbia pharmacists under his wing last season.

He expressed pleasure at the prospect of Heppner having a new swimming tank, having a personal interest in the matter through having been manager and Red Cross instructor at the old American Legion tank here a few years ago.

Noted Singer Heard At Wightman Party

Bill Bassett, singer of national reputation, a member of the Elks quartet in Los Angeles and soloist at the First Baptist church in that city, was the featured attraction of a party staged in his honor last Saturday evening at the John Wightman home with Mr. and Mrs. Wightman and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham as hosts. Mr. Bassett with his family visited several days at the farm home of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Hughes, departing Sunday by motor.

Mr. Bassett sang a number of songs for the assembled group with Mrs. J. O. Turner as accompanist. Besides the hosts and honored family those present included Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Anna McNamee, F. W. Turner, Mrs. R. W. Turner and Mrs. and Mrs. J. O. Turner.

Mr. Bassett worked in harvest in this county for several summers a good many years ago and appeared as soloist at the Star theater about 1925. Since going to California he has been in popular demand as a singing attraction at many national conventions and has sung over national radio hook-ups a number of times.

SUPPER, SOCIAL SET

There will be a pot-luck supper and social at the Methodist church Monday night, the 12th, at 7:30. Friends and members invited.

The Most Dramatic Spot on Earth

A tiny speck of an island in upper New York bay—one which many of us have never seen, yet one which for many, many others of us was the beginning point of a new life and new ambitions in a great new country—a tiny spot which since 1892 has seen more than 20,000,000 human beings passed through its gateway: Dramatic Ellis Island, last portal of freedom, background for the absorbing story GATEWAY, starring Don Ameche and Arleen Whelan, which will be shown at the Star Theater Sunday and Monday—GATEWAY depicts those caught in this human wave beating against Ellis Island—all flung together where old lives end and new lives begin.

GATEWAY is essentially an actor's picture—it provides an excellent field for varied talent and each role has been filled by a capable player particularly suited to the part, from Don Ameche, a newspaper correspondent, who meets beautiful Irish Emigre Arleen Whelan among the second cabin passengers from a 7 months old child in the steerage to the bombastic "Prince" Gregory Ratoff and much married Binnie Barnes of A deck.

GATEWAY is a distinctly different motion picture—yet lacks none of the ingredients necessary to excellent entertainment. The motion pictures are your best entertainment!

Union evening service at this church.

"Thomas Paine wrote against the Bible from recollections, and acknowledged that he had not much read it. David Hume acknowledged not long before his death that he had never seriously read the New Testament through. I have never to this hour met with a skeptic who was well acquainted with the Holy Scriptures or who had in his writings evinced that he had given them a close or critical examination."—Alexander Campbell.

Band, Citizens Attend Legion Conclave

Heppner's school band under the direction of Harold Buhman headed this community's participation in the state American Legion convention at Pendleton last week end, while many legionnaires and citizens generally made the trek for various features of the convention.

The band went over Friday morning, played on the streets most of the afternoon, and in the evening marched to Round-Up park where they were presented as a non-competitive attraction of the annual drum corps contest. This colorful event attracted the largest number of Morrow county people.

Henry Peterson, recently elected commander, and Loyal Parker, adjutant, were local post delegates attending the legion convention sessions, and Mrs. Loyal Parker was delegate to the auxiliary sessions. Several local post members served on convention committees, and Spencer Crawford was named alternate delegate to the coming national conclave at Los Angeles.

CANDIDATE VISITS

Howard K. Zimmerman, who by the way says he is no relation to Peter Zimmerman, was in the city yesterday evening with Mrs. Zimmerman in the interests of his candidacy for the supreme court. A past grand master of Oregon Oddfellows, he attended the special session of the local lodge last night when Sid Bowman of Pendleton, district deputy grand master, made his official visitation. Mr. Zimmerman opposes Judge Henry J. Bean in the only contest for a supreme court position held over from the primaries. A buddy of T. Babb, local contractor, in the late World war, Mr. Zimmerman renewed this friendship when he and Mrs. Zimmerman were dinner guests at the Babb home last evening. They make their home at Astoria where Mr. Zimmerman has been circuit judge of Clatsop county for ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Bundy are returning to the Blahm farm a few miles below Heppner on Willow creek which they operated for several years, coming from Columbia county where they have farmed since leaving here. The Lowell Stockard family who have been on the Blahm place since Bundys left have gone to Woodburn, their household effects having been moved the end of the week by Walter Corley of Ione.
