

Lucille Jones and Guy Moore Named Top 4-H Workers

Morrow County Boy, Girl to Attend P. I. as Guests of Bank

Chosen as the outstanding 4-H club boy and girl in Morrow county by a local judging committee, Lucille Jones of Irrigon and Guy Moore of Pine City, will go to Portland as guests of The First National Bank of Portland for three days during the Pacific International Livestock exposition. They were selected as winners from this county in the third annual 4-H club Achievement and Leadership contest sponsored by the state-wide banking institution among the 25,000 club members in Oregon.

Two club members from every county in the state are being announced as winners this week through H. C. Seymour, state club director, in charge of judging and awards. Together with two winners from the city of Portland, the 72 county members will convene in Portland October 5, 6 and 7. Heightened interest and personal achievement among 4-H club members have made this year's selection a difficult task, according to the local judging committee, composed of Joseph Belanger, county agricultural agent; Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, county school superintendent, and B. C. Pinckney, manager of the Heppner branch of The First National Bank of Portland.

Lucille Jones, member of Homemaking and Cookery 4-H clubs, directed by Mrs. A. C. Houghton and Vonna Jones, was announced winner among girls for her work in county fair exhibits, winning two first place awards and first place in demonstration.

As recognition of his activity in sheep club work over a period of the past four years during which time he has exhibited some 30 to 35 animals at the Morrow County fair and 12 animals at the Oregon State fair, Guy Moore was chosen from among boys of the county. He is a member of the Pine City 4-H club under the leadership of L. D. Neill.

Awards include transportation and all other expenses during the visit to Portland which is being arranged by officers of The First National Bank of Portland. The 74 guests will follow a three-day program which will include attendance at the Pacific International Livestock exposition, sight-seeing tours of Portland, special luncheons, an evening at the Horse Show, banquets and a dance. Mr. Pinckney states that every detail of the visit has been arranged by the bank to insure complete comfort and safety of its 4-H guests. "We consider it a distinct privilege to honor these young people who are proving themselves exceptional in character and leadership through the fine 4-H movement," he added.

Students Informed On Safe Driving

Past safety records are no guaranty against future accidents, John Kerrick, safety speaker from the office of Secretary of State Earl Snell, told students of Heppner high school at an assembly here this week. The speaker also appeared at Ione high school.

Kerrick is making a tour of all the state's high schools for the second successive year, giving a safety talk and showing sound films in each school. Last year he appeared in 267 schools and spoke before more than 44,000 students.

"One doesn't have to be a fast or spectacular driver to be a good driver," Kerrick told his audience. "Good driving means constant attention to the all-important rules of the road, rather than the reckless handling of the horse-power and tonnage in an automobile."

Kerrick pointed out that whether or not a young person learned the importance of safe driving before becoming involved in an accident depended upon that person's attitude toward his obligations as a highway user.

"In the last fifty years, the archaeologists have discovered and uncovered the buried remains of so many cities, mentioned in the Bible, whose very existence was denied by critics. Of the hundreds and thousands of discovered and deciphered ancient records and inscriptions, not one has been found contradicting the statements of the Scriptures, while literally hundreds have been found verifying them."—C. J. Sharp.

HARDMAN NEWS

Hardman Nimrods Succeed in Hunts

By Hardman High School
Fan Miller, Lewis Batty, Darrel Farrens, Adrain Bechdolt, Harold Wright, Donald Robinson and Chas. McDaniel have all been successful in getting bucks this season.

Harry and Carl Sevey and Jimmy and Lewis Page, all of Vale, were visiting friends and relatives from Wednesday to Sunday of last week.

Henry Graham and Misses Frances and Alene Inskeep attended the show in Heppner Sunday.

John Kerrick who was sent out from the office of Earl Snell, secretary of state, was in Hardman Friday to talk about rules of safety for young drivers.

Miss Delsie Bleakman who is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jim McDaniel at Scio, is much improved in health and enjoying her stay there.

What a hum of activity in the grade school these days! Children exchanging rooms, boxes, papers, pencils, other materials under their arms, happy smiles on their faces. Where are they going? To the new special activity classes on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. On Tuesday there is a sewing class conducted by Mrs. McCutchen and a crafts class conducted by Mrs. Brannon. Mrs. McCutcheon teaches basketry on Wednesday afternoon while Mrs. Brannon teaches painting. Thursday all the children dance to music played by Mrs. Brannon as Mrs. McCutcheon teaches them folk and tap dancing.

The Sunday school attendance was the same as previously in spite of the change in time. Juanita Byers was elected president of the Loyal Leaders class and her sister, Adeline, was chosen as secretary.

The Sunday school is putting out a weekly bulletin which is distributed to the homes.

Less Robinson and Guy Chapin went to Potoso to visit Less' brother, Art Robinson.

Mrs. Kinnard McDaniel moved to Ione Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and children and Miss Vern McDaniel went to Pendleton Monday to consult a physician. Both Yvonne and Vern had their glasses changed.

Jim Stevens was called back to duty in the forest service Monday. This time he is at Ranchario. Owen Leathers went back on the same day and his new station is Wheeler point. During the summer Jim had been at Potamus and Owen at Red Hill.

Mrs. Thomas Williams of Portland, a sister of Mrs. E. G. Craber, has been visiting at the Craber home. She also visited at the Guy Hustons and with other friends. After having been here for about two weeks she returned to her home Wednesday.

Christian Endeavor met at 4:30 for the first time Sunday with a slightly smaller attendance and with Mrs. McCutchen as leader. Next Sunday Irl Clary will lead and his subject will be "War and what it means to us."

Due to the resignation of Bernard Bleakman as a school director in Dist. 40, a special meeting was called Saturday. Lewis Batty was elected.

Mrs. Owen Leathers and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children visited Owen Leathers at Wheeler point for an all-day picnic Sunday.

Gordon Craber was taken suddenly ill with an acute attack of indigestion Saturday night. A Heppner doctor was called out, and Sunday morning Gordon's condition was not serious.

Donald Robinson got a four-point buck the first day of the season and to make sure it would not chase him up a tree he shot it three times in the head. We all recall Donald's experience in shooting a deer from a tree last season.

On Marvin Brannon's birthday last Sunday the Brannons entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Brannon and daughter Darlene at dinner.

Tommy Garham and Marvin Sandler stayed with Creston and Donald Robinson over the week end. While there they did some intensive hunting but have no evidence in proof.

Mrs. Ed Hayden and son Dale of Klamath Falls have been visiting at the George Hayden home. Friday afternoon they visited the Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Collins home. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Hayden. Incidentally Mrs. Ed Hayden is an aunt of Foster Collins and they had not seen each other for thirty-one years.

A sizeable crowd of Morrow county folks attended the fair and rodeo at John Day Sunday. Hardman's only representatives were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson and daughter Rita.

Several Gilliam county men interested in Hereford cattle were visitors at the Roy Robinson ranch on Saturday. They were Sid Seale, Herbert Johnson, William Marshal, Gilliam county agent, Pete Pattee and son, Don McFalome and son.

Alene Inskeep and Junior Leathers were on the spelling honor roll last week. Vera McDaniel and Jean Leathers were on the week before. Mrs. Rodgers, Miss Stoneman and Dr. Rice were out Wednesday to give Schick tests for diphtheria.

Serious highway crashes are likely to result when two drivers traveling in the same direction attempt to pass a third car at the same time, Secretary of State Earl Snell comments. He advises that the second car in the line be given first chance to pass, and that the driver of the rear car pass the other two only after sounding his horn and making sure the second car will not pull out of line.

The average man or woman driver requires exactly .8050 seconds to spot danger on the highway, take his foot off the accelerator and apply the brake, Secretary of State Earl Snell announced on the basis of tests made with the reactometer displayed in the state department booth at the state fair in Salem.
