F. F. A. Meeting Held

At the meeting of the Future Farmers of America, last Friday, the president appointed several yearly committees, the two most important being the yearly program committee, and one to build a new constitution for the Heppner chapter. The latter part of the meeting was spent in giving a grand send-off to the boys on the judging team who were to attend the Pacific International Livestock exposition.

Girls Have Interesting Meeting

Last Friday the first official Girls' League meeting was opened by the new president, Bethal Blake. The first part of the meeting was devoted to new business, which pertained mostly to the planning of a dance, similar to the Barn Yard Brawl given last year. The last half of the period was used for the program.

Before the meeting it was planned that every girl should construct a hat out of anything within five minutes for roll call. The girls all responded to this plan, thus making it more interesting. There were many types of hats represented, even some types not yet seen in the new fall styles, but there is no doubt in the girls' minds but that some of these styles will be adopted for hats in the future.

Everything, from hot water bottles, to kitchen utensils, was used to construct these hats.

The hat that the judges thought most outstanding was one constructed by Mary Emma Curran, out of book ends, with the help of a typewriter brush, which added a great deal of dash. The second prize went to Betty Happold. Betty's hat was made from a utensil lid with the aid of several yards of green and red ribbon tied under her chin to hold the classy 'lid' on. The third prize went to Lois Jones. Her hat was constructed out of a pie tin and lots of grapes.

After the roll call the girls were shown some of the do's and don'ts in dress for high school girls. Examples were given by Jean Hayes, Margaret Doolittle and Shirley Wilson.

Alumni Doings

It is seldom that we hear of the graduates of Heppner high. When we do, it generally pertains to one. In this column we will try to inform you of the doing of each student of last year's graduating class. Several of the girls have entered the nursing field. Hazel Adkins and Bertha Akers are in training at the Emanuel hospital in Portland, Norma McFerrin at St. Anthony's in Pendleton, and Evelyn Kirk at The Dalles hospital.

Arlene Morton, Paul McCarty and LaVerne Van Marter have enrolled at the University of Oregon. So far, little has been heard as to the progress made by LaVerne in football. Margaret Browning has reentered this high school as a post-graduate, while Bill Browning is working with a survey crew. Bob Davidson, Florence Becket and Harriet Hager are going to Oregon State. Harriet received a scholarship to this institution. Marvin Casebeer is driving a school bus, and Gladys intends to stay at home this year. Daniel Chinn has entered Mt. Angel college. John Hays has recently started work on the Grand Coulee dam. Emmet Kenney and Clayton Wright are assisting on their fathers' ranches. Jack Healy is employed as clerk in Clark's grocery establishment. Jackson Gilliam has entered Whitman college where he has already been admitted to the symphony orchestra. Vernon Knowles is filling a position on the Eastern Oregon Normal football team. James Healy is successfully employed in the local bakery. Maxine McCurdy is enrolled at Pacific university.

At present, Scott McMurdo is on a pleasure trip to California; he does not plan on entering school until next year. Irena McFerrin and Rose Cunningham are remaining at home for the time being. Ruth Green, who attended University of Oregon during the summer, is secretary for the high school.

Ten Years Ago This Week

The Heppner Rodeo was well under way with one of the largest turnouts in history.

Bert Bleakman was awarded a fine rifle for killing the largest buck of the season.

Ten Years From Now

Art McAtee will be the football coach.

Juanita Phelps will be local Home Ec. teacher.

John Crawford will be a school superintendent.

Howard Patton will teach Af. Heppner will have a stream-lined train.

Art Vance will be the world's fastest miler.

Betty Happold will be a doctor. Main street of Heppner will be a one-way street.

Student Opinion on Lipstick

Emery Coxen—High school girls should not have to use it.

Floyd Williams—Have no use for it.

Bethal Blake—All right, if the other person likes it.

Bob Scrivner—All depends on who uses it.

Joe Aiken—It's all right if it isn't taken on too heavy.

Sibyl Howell—Too much looks cheap.

Art McAtee—Never indulge in the art of smearing it.

Milton Morgan—I like all six flavors.

Bill Barratt—Kissproof for me.

Omer McCaleb—All are alike to me.

Mr. Peavy—Touchy subject.

John Crawford—Requires a lot of polishing.

Andy Davidson—Bad stuff.

Dean Gilman—Tastes awful.

Don Bennett—Like a large variety.

Muddled Mutterings

Why has Harold Armstrong been playing tennis so much with Cora Scott, when he gets all the exercise he needs on the football field?

Seen around town:

Miss Nordstrom waving at one of the Joseph football players.

Sibyl Howell entering the theater establishment Sunday, accompanied by Dick Bogger.

Billy Scrivner taking an eighth grader to the show Saturday night.

Bob Pinckney ringing the doorbell at Frances Egan's home and asking where Howard Gilliam lives.

Jack Merrill may have had most of the dances with Norma Friday night, but Jack Vaughn made sure that he didn't take her home.

It seems rather odd that Bob Applegate should run a mile to a fire when he had access to his car.

Even after two weeks planning, Connie and Don Evans didn't get to dance. Two weeks is long enough for anyone.

The sixth grade elected new officers Tuesday as follows: President, Patricia Kenny vice-president, Billy French; secretary, Ted Ferguson; sergeant-at-arms, Betty Marie Coxen.

We have four brown bachelor spiders in our room now.

We have a reading chart in our room, which was made by Miss Forsythe, our reading teacher.

Jack Edmondson brought a geranium plant to school.

By Marylou Ferguson.

GAS HOUSE GOSSIP

The football fans of Deah Old Heppna witnessed a hard, fast and tricky game of football last Friday. Those who failed to attend missed the game of the season. Joseph used an offense similar to the type used by Arlington last year. This game did much to point out Heppner's weaknesses, both defensively and offensively so they can be corrected in due time.

An article appearing in "the Honker" (Arlington's high school paper), last week stated: "Heppner has a line averaging 175 pounds to the man. With Gilman, the fastest halfback in eastern Oregon, and "Chubby" Drake, a giant end, they will make their running and passing attack very effective." Our boys must have gained 15 or 20 lbs. to the man since they last stepped on the scales as well as fleetness of foot but we hope they are right about the running and passing attack.

A possible starting lineup for Heppner in the game to be held at Arlington will be as follows: Ends, Bogger, Barratt; tackles, Dick, Fal; guards, Armstrong, Patton; center, Crawford; Backs, halves, Morgan, Merrill; full, Pettyjohn; quarter, Coxen.

In the past, Arlington has usually turned out a team equal to Heppner; but this year Heppner seems to have a slight advantage over the river lads, not only in poundage but in experience. Arlington lost most of their last year team by graduation, leaving only a few veterans for replacements. I again venture a prediction of a Heppner win of 19 to 0.

A Joseph lad said that he would like us to play Enterprise, for he thought we could beat the latter. We do have an open date, Nov. 4, which we hope to fill.

Condon and Arlington grade schools both have a six-man football team; for the last two years they have played among themselves. It is the hope of the local grammar school lads to schedule a game with Arlington and borrow the high school uniforms. The lads are willing enough but the matteh is beyond their control. Last week the Arlington grade school beat Condon grade school, 40 to 19.

Here and Yon

There has been a rumor to the effect that a representative from Arlington was up scouting last Friday's game. He was supposed to have written down to the last detail every move of Heppner. Judging from this, the river lads must be a bit worried as to just what Heppner really has in the way of a football team.

The local lads enjoyed this week's grid practice to a greater extent than usual because of the rain that fell during the week. It was a great relief from the dust, which is so hard upon the lungs of the players. A turf athletic field would be a wonderful civic improvement from a recreational point of view. It would not be used for high school athletics alone, but many inter-city activities could be promoted if such a field were available.

As you know, "Knowles and Hoskins" are candidates for the football team at E. O. N. Both boys saw action in the game with Boise Junior college. Hoskins played end for Heppner two years ago, while Knowles played guard last year.

Bob Scrivner's Dream

I had a dream the other night; I never before had it's match. I dreamed I was a bachelor, Although I knew I couldn't batch. All the girls were married off, Or engaged to be, and not a single One left for me.

All the girls were married off, Or engaged to soon so be, And not a single gal was left For poor little me.

Humor

Mary Florence (learning to drive): "But I don't remember what to do now, dear."

Emery Coxen: "Just imagine that I'm driving."

Hugh C.: "Is a chicken big enough to eat when he is two weeks old?"

Don B.: "Certainly not."

Hugh: "Then how does he lie?"

Andy Davidson: "Boy, I sho' has a fine new wife. She saved the most tender part of the chicken for me when I was late for supper last night."

Howard Patton: "What part was it?"

Andy: "The gravy."

Jack Merrill: "Edison once said that four hours of sleep were enough for any man."

Mr. Knox: "That's apparently what our baby thinks, too."

Frances: "Every time I'm kissed, it upsets my nerves. If you were a doctor, what would you give me?"

Dean: "A nervous breakdown."

John: "After the accident, did they have to put stitches in?"

Howard: "No, I just pulled myself together."

Art Vance: "I always say what I think."

Edna Stevens: "I wondered why you were always so quiet."

Dick Wilkinson using high school slang at the breakfast table:

"Mother, chase the cow down this way"

Mrs. Wilkinson was equal to the occasion and remarked to her husband:

"Give the poor calf some milk. Don't you hear him bawling for it?"

The sailor was recounting his experiences to a dear old lady.

Old Lady: "What rank did you hold?"

Sailor: "Ship's optician, lady."

Old Lady: "I didn't know there was such a rank. What did you do?"

Sailor: "I scraped the eyes out of the potatoes."
