Transient Tests Mails With Coin

By MARGARET BLAKE

One day last summer a transient visitor in Ione insisted on mailing a silver dollar to his sister in Indiana, "just to see if she will ever get it." Contrary to the advice of the postmaster, Mrs. Ruby Roberts, he prepared it for mailing by pasting a piece of paper (just the size of the dollar and addressed to his sister) on one side and the necessary postage on the other. A few days ago Mrs. Roberts received a card from the sender that his sister had received the dollar, so perhaps he is now convinced of the honesty of Uncle Sam's mail messengers. Mrs. Ruth Martin accompanied by her children, Patricia and Olive, and Barbara Wagner arrived in Ione Saturday night. Mrs. Martin and children returned to their home in Eugene Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Martin's son, David Cantwell, who has been attending high school here. Miss Wagner has been working in Eugene and will remain here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wagner. Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson took their son Denny to Portland for medical examination last week. They returned home with the baby but will need to take him down later for an operation for hernia. C. W. Swanson returned home last Thursday from a visit of several weeks with relatives at Sumner, Wash. There was no school last Thursday and Friday while the teachers attended institute at Pendleton. Following the meeting there a number of them spent the remainder of the week end at their various homes. Miss Katherine Sharf and Mr. Gronquist were at Salem, Miss Frances Stewart at Silverton and Mrs. Roy Brown at Hermiston. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Feldman and W. A. Hayes were in Pendleton Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rietman visited Mrs. Rietman's father, J. Y. Gibson, at The Dalles Monday. Mrs. Walter Corley and son, Walter, Jr., were week-end visitors here from Hood River. Mrs. Corley came up to enjoy a few days hunting before the close of the season. Ladies of the three local churches which have joined forces in securing a pastor for this field will organize a ladies aid in the parlor of the Congregational church Thursday afternoon. Rev. C. F. Trimble will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning after Sunday school. E. M. Baker is building a machine shed on his farm southwest of Ione. Mrs. Ruby Roberts visited her husband at The Dalles hospital Sunday and found him recovering satisfactorily from his recent operation. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Engelman, and her brother, Joe Engelman. Mrs. Esper Hansen returned to her home in Portland after a short visit with relatives here. Her sister, Mrs. Victor Rietman, took her to Arlington. Mrs. Melvin Knapp of Portland is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Ritchie. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halvorsen have returned from Salem where they have been working. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Blake and son Donald spent the week end with relatives in Auburn, Wash., and Portland. The grade school will give its carnival and program in the school gym Friday night. Funds raised will be used for the hot lunches. The program is built around a Halloween motif and the youngsters have been working hard to make it a good one. P. S.—The teachers have, too, and they will again appreciate the loyal support which the community has always given this project. Leonard Carlson has been quite ill.

RODEO PRINCESS GETS BUCK

Miss Evelyn Kirk of Lexington, princess at the court of the last Rodeo, is among the considerable number of county amazons who have been successful in bagging the wily stag deer. She hunted last week with her father, Merle Kirk, and each, with a third member of the party, had their tags on three four-point bucks that came into town on a trailer behind their car last Friday. "She actually killed it, and made a nice shot," Evelyn's father averred.

Heppner Mustangs Sink Touchet, 50-0

The Heppner high school football machine started clicking last Friday when an inspired Mustang rolled up a score of fifty points to Touchet's nothing.

Gilman, Merrill and Moore were outstanding with their long gains on off-tackle plays and end runs; while the bullbacks, Hayes and Pettyjohn, showed their ability to gain through the middle of the line when a few yards meant a first down.

Both teams went scoreless the first period, but Heppner started the second with a touchdown on a line plunge by Pettyjohn. A little later Drake scored on a long pass from Morgan. Coxen kicked the point. Later in the same period, Gilman ran around end for about 30 yards, another tally. Just before the half-time whistle, Pettyjohn ran a pass interception back for the final touchdown of the first half.

The only score of the third quarter was made on an off-tackle play by Bennett, Heppner's small, plucky, reserve halfback.

In the fourth period, Gilman went around end twice for two touchdowns, one run being for 60 yards. Heppner's final score was made on a run of about 35 yards on a pass interception by Hayes. Morgan converted the extra point on an end run.

The Heppner team showed an improvement in blocking and tackling and in pass defense. Touchet fought until the last whistle was blown but were greatly outweighed and handicapped by having too few reserves.

TAKE IN HOMECOMING

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and Mrs. Harriet Mahoney motored to Seattle Thursday night to be present Saturday for the annual University of Washington homecoming, which Mr. Mahoney attended as an alumnus. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney also took in the U. of W.-U. of C. football game, and the resulting 14-7 victory by California was not altogether to Mr. Mahoney's liking, though not entirely unexpected. All visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Espy (nee Patricia Mahoney) at Bremerton, Wash., where Mr. Espy is stationed as resident engineer with the U. S. navy in charge of maintenance at the large Bremerton navy yards. Mr. Mahoney reported that a new $6,000,000 dry dock, one of the largest in the country, is just being started at Bremerton, and when completed will accommodate the large new style battleships which Uncle Sam is projecting. He said they just missed seeing the Lexington, large airplane carrier, go into drydock, which she did a few hours after their visit to the dock.
