Ione Hot Lunch Benefit Nets $75

By MARGARET BLAKE

The grade school presented a program in the gym on Friday night for the benefit of the hot lunch fund. Modern white witches were given lessons in the proper observance of Hallowe'en by the traditional black witches. Elves, black cats, jack o' lanterns, etc., danced, sang or otherwise did their bit to provide entertainment. After the program a carnival was enjoyed. Something over $75 was cleared.

Light condition your living room with... I.E.S. LAMPS!

- FOR EYE COMFORT
- FOR SAFETY
- FOR BEAUTY

Your eyes need conditioned light for safe, easy seeing. They need light that is free from glare and harsh contrasts—that's plentiful—that is distributed throughout the room as well as on your book or sewing.

I.E.S. lamps were designed by illuminating engineers to give just such light. A glass diffusing bowl between bulb and shade prevents glare and sends some light upward. The bulbs in these lamps give abundant light so there's no danger of eyestrain even if you do prolonged visual work under them.

A model for every purpose I.E.S. lamps come in floor, table, end table, bridge and wall models. There are designs and colors that fit in perfectly with every kind of furnishing. Either parchment or silk shades. See the I.E.S. lamps at dealers or in our nearest office today. Select models to go by every easy chair and on your children's study table.
