W. H. Willey Was Great Grandfather

By Hardman High School
Word has been received here of the death of W. H. Willey who died on October 7 at the age of 94. Saben Hastings is one of the 54 great grandchildren still living. There are also ten great great grandchildren. Miss Helen Cunningham came out from Heppner Monday of last week and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brannon. "Danger at the Cross Roads," a mystery play, has been selected by the high school as their next presentation, which will most likely be on December 10.

Mrs. Earl Redding and Mrs. Richard Robison were visitors in Heppner Friday and again on Sunday when Mrs. Redding took her baby daughter to a doctor. She has a severe cold and at this writing pneumonia is feared.

On Friday the grade school organized the "Grade School Council," the purpose of which is to promote grade school activities and social affairs. Their colors are blue and gold. Vera McDaniel is president; Jean Leathers, secretary; Roy McFerrin, vice president.

Leon Chapin, Harlan Adams and Ed McDaniel went to Heppner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ada Cannon and children spent the week end at their ranch near here.

Miss Edith Stevens left Wednesday night for Salem where she is going for an indefinite visit with Mrs. Theodore Wocken, who was formerly Mary Inskip.

The Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Charlie McDaniel on Friday afternoon. There were 17 guests, two of whom have not attended regularly, Mrs. Blaine Chapel and Mrs. Anderson.

The "Let's Talk" club met Wednesday evening at the regular time. Besides the business that was provided there were five special numbers. Recitations by Joyce and Delmer Buschke, Mrs. Richard Robison, Vern McDaniel and Mildred Clary were given.

The Sunday school invites any one of any denomination to attend the services at 3:30 on each Sunday.

Last week Roy Robinson and son Donald trucked home from Brownstown, Wash., the two registered cows and calf purchased recently.

Those attending the dance and play from Lonerock were Mr. and Mrs. Carl McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. James Mathews.

Mrs. Glen Farrens and Merl attended a school program at Lexington on Friday.

The Let's Talk club is planning for a bonfire party on Nov. 11. The question of "Carolic Canines" is still up, and on Wednesday night it will be settled. If the weather is not suitable, the party will likely be held in the high school. The bonfire committee is headed by Mrs. Ethel McDaniel and the place will be just west of the high school ball diamond. The "eats" committee has Mrs. Bernard Bleakman as chairman and Mrs. Richard Robison is chairman of the song and program committee.

Mrs. Richard Robison led Christian Endeavor last Sunday night. The topic for discussion was, "Gambling." Miss Vera McDaniel will lead next Sunday.

On Saturday night promptly at 8, a very good crowd assembled in the high school and two plays, "The Wedding Present" and "The Trysting Place" were presented by the high school pupils, and two short numbers by the grade school. Misses Vera McDaniel, Jean Leathers and Maxine McDaniel sang between the plays. The proceeds of this are to be used for the "On to San Francisco" group, which includes all the high school students and teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Batty are the parents of a baby boy, born Thursday. They named him Lewis Clinton, and his small brother calls him Joe Batty Lewis.

Not to be outdone by the ladies, a number of men—most of those in Hardman—have organized a birthday club, which meets regularly for they even have a club room. Case Adams is the very popular president of the club.
