Six Weeks Tests Coming

The most helpful advice about cramming is "don't." True, you can neatly arrange all the facts you think you will need and can give the right answers to most test questions if you cram hard enough just before an examination. This plan is all right if your chief aim in the course is to "squeeze through"; but if you want to gain knowledge, give up the plan of cramming. Learning is a day-by-day process, and information should be gained in such a manner that you can draw upon it when it is needed.

By taking the same tests three weeks later, prove to yourself that cramming is really injurious. You will be amazed to find that you do not know what seemed to have been at your finger tips in the first test; you have quickly lost what you gained in such a superficial way. If you expect to link up what you learn to a real situation, it is worth your while to gain knowledge in an orderly fashion.

County Sheriff Armistice Speaker

The students of Heppner high school had the privilege of hearing C. J. D. Bauman give an interesting speech last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Bauman, who is sheriff of Morrow county, represented the Heppner Post of the American Legion.

He started his talk by commending the students on their school. This commendation was based on the following three facts: that Heppner has the state championship band, that Heppner has won the Upper Columbia Athletic League football championship, and that no serious Halloween pranks were "pulled" this year.

The main point of his speech was that the United States has gone twenty years without realizing the fact that the last war didn't make the world safe for democracy, and that the United States, after the last war scare, is realizing the necessity of rearming and having a navy second to none.

The large amount of applause given Mr. Bauman when he had finished his talk and the silence during the talk showed how much the students appreciated the speech.

After the speech, a pep assembly was held for the Hermiston game.

GAS HOUSE GOSSIP

By JOE AIKEN

To the annals of Heppner High history we add another page with this year's football season. Its highlights read something like this: In the first game of the season, Heppner swamped Fossil, 32 to 0. Fossil never had the ball past Heppner's thirty-yard line. In other words, Heppner won by an easy margin. Heppner took Joseph, 13 to 6. Heppner played the hardest game thus far in the season upon their home field when they met Joseph, the lads from Wallowa Lake. The game proved to be what we call a spectators' game, as it was full of passing, tricks, and fluke plays. Joseph made their bid early in the first quarter with a pass and thirty-yard run for a touchdown. In the second half, Heppner came back with double strength to score two touchdowns and one conversion, making a total score of 13 to 6 in favor of the locals.

Heppner met defeat at Arlington. Arlington shattered hopes of what appeared to be an undefeated season, the Mustangs playing the worst ball game of the year. Comparative scores indicated that Heppner was figured to have an advantage of about 30 points, plus their weight and experience. The score was 6 to 0 in Arlington's favor. Heppner beat Condon. The Mustang lads, strong for revenge, defeated Condon 25 to 0, in the easiest game of the season.

Heppner defeated Touchet. The locals played the best ball this year when they met Touchet on the local field, defeating them 50 to 0. This game was much harder than the score indicated, as the Touchet lads were the game that have ever played upon this football field. Condon held Heppner to 7 points. The Mustangs played a greatly improved team over the one they defeated two weeks before. The Condon lads really put up a fight, which started with the first quarter and lasted up until the gun boomed to end the game.

Heppner got their revenge upon Arlington by a 25 to 0 score. Arlington used an eight-man line against Heppner, hoping to stop the line plays, but Heppner, which was figured to use a pass every thirteen plays, opened up with an effective aerial attack that did much to win the game.

Heppner defeated Hermiston, 6 to 0. Hermiston blames a bad pass from center as the cause of defeat, but in my opinion, it was a matter of power and experience against Hermiston's spirit, which really is to be commented upon. Heppner's touchdown came in the last quarter with a power play off tackle.

Heppner closed their season with a total of 158 points as against 12 points for the opponents. There has been some chatter around the halls that we may play a post-season game. Due to a sudden change in weather, however, this is hardly possible, but if it does happen; that is, if a game is signed up, it probably will be some school in the Blue Mountain league, or a Willamette valley school, Lebanon, which has gone undefeated for two seasons, up until Armistice day, when Woodburn defeated them, 12 to 6.

The team as a whole is said to have no star, but I think that there are a few individuals who deserve recognition. These boys played steady ball, not necessarily all the quarters, but while they were in the game, they played hard and gave it all they had. These fellows are as follows: John Crawford, center; Lee Pettyjohn, fullback; Howard Patton, guard, and Emery Coxen, captain. All the other lads deserve commendation, as it took all of them to make the record what it is.

Ten Years Ago

Heppner and Hermiston battle to scoreless tie.

5 Years Ago ... An assembly program was held in the gymnasium. War songs were sung. Spencer Crawford gave a talk on the World war. ... Heppner's football team completed its season with a scoreless tie with Hermiston on Armistice day. The season ended with five wins, two losses, and one tie.

1 Year Ago ... Heppner and Hermiston battled to a 6-6 tie. ... The health class is trying an experiment. Instead of going by the text, Mr. Knox is discussing questions handed in by the students. ... The F. F. A. held a carnival last Saturday night.

What Were Your Thoughts?

What were your thoughts on Armistice Day? Did you think of the dance you were going to attend, the show, the football game, parties, etc., or did you think of the rejoicing of people all over the world about twenty years ago?

Did you think of the lives that had been lost so as to help save our country, and to make it a better place in which to live, how some families were again together, and how some of the loved ones were gone. If you didn't, do you think you would be classed as a good citizen? When the next Armistice Day comes, keep the above in mind.

Tests Being Given

County-wide tests in all high schools are being given this year. The purpose of these is to make a survey by the use of personality tests which will help to locate maladjustments that the school can and will help.

The states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Province of British Columbia are cooperating through a central testing bureau in each state, which is carrying on the whole northwest project, including reading problems, personality tests, and subject matter achievement tests.

The schools of this county are working only with reading and personality tests. As a result, those people with reading difficulties can be given specific help and personal adjustments through the school.

T. Gonty—"Some swell games."

Art McAtee—"I think I was pretty good."

Sibyl Howell—"Best games I have seen played."

M. Fell—"Very successful."

B. Scrivner—"Shouldn't have been defeated at all."

J. Crawford—"Best in years."

H. Egan—"Makes me look forward to basketball season."

Bill Barratt—"Should've played Pendleton."

H. Patton—"Most fun I ever had."

Bill Scrivner—"Hot stuff."

Ruth Green—"They did quite well."

9-10 of the Student Body—"Very successful."

Coach and Captain Lions' Guests

Mr. Knox and the football captain, Emery Coxen, were guests of the Lions club at their weekly meeting, Monday noon. At the meeting, Mr. Knox spoke of the fine spirit of the Heppner players, their reputation for clean play with opposing teams, and their general sportsmanship attitude. Emery attributed the team's success to Mr. Knox for his work with them throughout the season. Both Mr. Knox and Emery feel the season was highly successful.

Muddled Mutterings

Speaking of songs, have you heard the parachute song—"It Don't Mean a Thing if You Don't Pull the String"?

Many a girl marries a night owl in the hope that he'll turn out to be a homing pigeon.

A girl who knows all the answers probably learned them from going around with fellows who ask all the questions.

A bashful boy has to be more than half shot before he comes out of his shell.

Old-fashioned dolls were stuffed with sawdust, but modern dolls are stuffed with lobster and caviar.

Some gals use a pill to get rid of headaches, but others use a headache to get rid of a pill.

The modern miss is weak in the nays.

The pompadour is coming back. Just when you think your past is safely buried, some dirty dog digs it up.

Gossip

John Crawford doesn't think a postcard works so well, but Bob is perfectly satisfied with the results.

Congratulations, Emery, you had the cream of the crop at Hermiston.

Looks as though Carolyn will be starting a charge account at Clarks. It seems that Guy Moore wasn't cheated out of a date at Hermiston after all.

Joan Wright and Pete are hitting it off again.

Bob Scrivner thinks that the skating rink at Hermiston is "just the thing."

Don Evans has applied for all open dates with Dorothy Howell.

During the preview of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," Harry O'Donnell's mouth was wide open. Could Alice Fay, a blonde, remind him of someone in the past?

It seems that since the football season is over, the players are in "training."

Football Banquet-Dance Friday

Thursday, Nov. 10, a Home Economics meeting was called to order by the president, Helen Egan, to discuss plans for the football banquet. Various committees were appointed, and it was decided that the banquet should be held in the lunch room on Friday, the 18th, at 6:30 p. m. Plans were also made for a dance to be held in the gymnasium after the banquet.

Humor

Caroline McR.: "Ah! Pat, some one has been following me all the way down to your place."

Pat Healy: "Are you sure he has been following you?"

Caroline: "Of course I am. I went back two or three times to see if he was coming."

Dick F. was sitting on the front porch one Sunday playing his trumpet when a man approached him and said, "Do you know the Fourth Commandment, my little man?"

"No," Dicky replied, "but if you'll just whistle it over I'll do my best."

Alumni Doings

We wonder at Spud Furlong's and Clayton Wright's interest in high school activity.

Fred Hoskins and Vernon Knowles were among the crowd to witness Arlington's defeat at Heppner's hands.

Bill Browning returned from Mapleton, Oregon, to Heppner last week. He intends to spend the winter here.

Scott McMurdo has been advanced to foreman at the McMurdo ranch. This was due to his recent successful harvest activities.

Conduct of High School Students

The conduct of the students in the local theater is getting to a point where we wonder, and are somewhat afraid of, what is coming next. These unpleasant actions are usually more in evidence at the Sunday matinees than at any other time. We should consider the opinions that people will immediately form when they see such childish actions in the show.

Frank C. Alfred returned home Monday from Silverton where he and Mrs. Alfred visited with relatives over the week end. Mrs. Alfred remained at The Dalles where she has a position.

Harold Anderson of Gooseberry was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.
