

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Parker, J. J. Wightman and daughter, Mrs. Claude Graham, motored to Portland Friday afternoon for the Oregon State-Oregon football game Saturday, returning after the game. While in the city Mr. and Mrs. Parker visited Mr. Parker's brother, John, and Mr. Wightman and Mrs. Graham called on Mrs. Ida Dutton, pioneer Morrow county resident.

Joseph Belanger, county agent, returned to Heppner Monday morning after having moved his household goods to Moro the week previous preparatory to taking his new position as research cooperative agent there, beginning December 1. He and Mrs. Belanger were in Portland Saturday to take in the annual Oregon civil gridiron war.

The Frank H. Lindsey's had as their Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Morgan farm home, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender and family and Mearl Comstock of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halvorsen of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers of Lexington. The Stenders visited with friends over the week end, returning to Salem Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Ball returned home Sunday evening from a three weeks sojourn at Portland and other Willamette valley points while Mr. Ball was enjoying a vacation from his position at the M. D. Clark store. Mr. Ball reported fine weather generally prevailing while they were below and the trip most enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miller were among Morrow countians in Portland Saturday to see Mr. Miller's alma mater, O. S. C., take her traditional rival, Oregon, to the football cleaners. They were joined at Moro by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belanger who took in the game with them.

Fred Mankin was among farmers from over the county attending committee meeting of Eastern Oregon Wheat league here Monday evening preparatory to taking recommendations to The Dalles convention this week end. He would welcome a good heavy snow any time now.

Harold Cohn arrived home the end of the week from the San Francisco bay area where the week before he attended the annual California-Stanford grid classic. He reports it absolutely tops for all football games he ever saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Becket of Wallowa were Thanksgiving day visitors with relatives and friends, being guests at the homes of Mr. Becket's mother, Mrs. Daisy Shively, and Mrs. Becket's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker were in the county over Thanksgiving day, visiting at the home of Mr. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner, here, and Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman, at Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCarty and daughter Frances motored to Portland with their son Paul in time for the football game Saturday as Paul was returning to his studies at the university after spending Thanksgiving at home.

Homer Tucker is among fortunate elk hunters of the recent season, bagging an animal with antlers 53 inches wide. He hunted with a party of six that bagged five bulls in all. They checked out through Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gaily are moving this week into the residence in south Heppner being vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rippee. Mr. and Mrs. Rippee expected to leave today to make their home at Pilot Rock.

James Farley, Jr., was in the city last week end from Hood River visiting at the home of his parents. He is employed with The Fair, Hood River department store.

L. Van Marter spent the week end visiting relatives and friends here from his home at La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monahan visited last week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Barrie, in Yakima and were introduced to their new granddaughter, Mrs. Barrie was formerly Miss Patricia Monahan.

Miss Kathryn Bisbee was in Heppner for Thanksgiving at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bisbee, coming from Oregon City where she is located as health nurse for Clackamas county.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford, sons John and Calvin, Norbert Peavy and Bob Scrivner composed a car load of local football fans attending the Oregon-Oregon State football game in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Lieuallen of Pendleton spent Thanksgiving at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Barratt. Mr. and Mrs. Barratt drove to Pendleton with her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rotzien and son Frederick from Salem were over Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mrs. Rotzien's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwarz.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gragg came up from their Salem home to spend Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Gragg's mother, Mrs. Lillie Aiken, and other relatives and friends.

Henry Smouse, Henry Peterson and R. B. Rice were among farmers of the outlying territory attending a meeting at the county agent's office Monday.

Jack Aiken came up from Portland where he is a student at a military academy to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Peggy Aiken.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocket Sprouls and Janet and Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson and child of The Dalles were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gaily.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hyatt of Pendleton were over-Thanksgiving guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Maohney.

Miss Kathryn Farnsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farnsworth of The Dalles, was a guest this week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. D. M. Ward.

Gene Grabill of Ione who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis was able to return home from Heppner hospital on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Mikesell of Toppenish, Wash., spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Mikesell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mikesell.

William S. Campbell, Lexington school principal, was in the city yesterday afternoon attending the meeting of county school boards.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tetz and children visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson, coming over from Adams.

Claude Knowles arrived in the city the first of the week from Browning, Mont., where he has been chief chef at the Yegen hotel.

Johan Troedson and sons Carl and Vernon, were in the city Saturday from their farms in the Ione section, attending the tractor school.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Adams were among county people taking in the Oregon-Oregon State football game at Portland last Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hagerman at the home of Mrs. P. A. Mollahan in this city Saturday, a 7-pound boy, Jerry Thomas.

C. E. Carlson of Gooseberry, in town Monday, said that the cold dry weather wasn't doing the new wheat any good in his section.

Leo Gorger, large wheat operator of the east Ione section, was transacting business in the city Tuesday.

H. A. Cohn left Tuesday for Yakima on business.

Charles Wilcox of Hermiston arrived in the city Tuesday evening and spent yesterday in the county transacting business.

LeGrand Guild came from Snohomish, Wash., to spend the Thanksgiving week end here with Mrs. Guild.

Frank Anderson of Eight Mile was among interested attendants at the tractor school here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox and baby daughter motored to Idaho for Thanksgiving with relatives.

Art Stefani, tractor farmer of the Ione section, came in Saturday for the school at Braden-Bell's.

Frank Swaggart was a business visitor in town Monday from the ranch on Butter creek.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Schwarz Tuesday at their home at Seneca, an 8-pound boy.

Leonard Carlson and family were visiting in the city Saturday from the Gooseberry farm.

Baled alfalfa hay, $10 ton. Lotus Robison ranch, Rhea creek, 1 mile below Rugg's. 37th

A. M. Edwards, well driller of Lexington, was transacting business here Monday.

Hugh and Chauncy Grimm, long-time Irrigon residents, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt spent Thanksgiving in Walla Walla with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Hood River.

Bill Doherty of Alpine was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Blue Mt. Council Meets at Pendleton

The annual meeting of the Blue Mountain council of Boy Scouts of America will be held in Pendleton on Tuesday evening, December 13, at the Presbyterian church. This will be in the form of a dinner meeting and is for all adult Scouters of the council. The annual report of council activities and accomplishments will be given at this time.

Edward L. Curtis, regional Scout executive, will be the speaker of the evening.

Carl Hebenstreit, finance chairman, is calling a council budget and finance meeting in Walla Walla on Saturday, December 10.

REFEREE EXAM SET

Examination for basketball referees will be held at the school house Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time all aspirants for the referee list will be given the standard state test for basketball officials.

Ten Years Ago

(Gazette Times, Dec. 6, 1928)

More than $300 given in drive for Boy Scout funds.

Contract let for new reservoir. City to build new bridges across Hinton creek on Elder street, and across Willow creek on Morgan street.

Legion auxiliary to send cheer boxes to veterans in hospital.

Leonard R. Schwarz and Miss Mary Crawford married November 29th.

E. C. Amspoker, J. G. Thomson, Jr., and Crocket Sprouls to leave first of week on trip to Orient.

James K. Simons and Mrs. L. Redding pass in week.

Barbara Juanita born to Mr. and Mrs. Reid Buseick, Nov. 26, at home on John Day.

Dan Beighle, Mitchell Thorn, Paul Aiken, Frances Doherty, Ray Ferguson, Paul Hisler, Jack Isom, Stanley Reavis on town basketball squad.

F. E. Farrior named Royal Arch high priest.

Phelps Funeral Home
Ambulance Service
Trained Lady Assistant
Phone 1332 Heppner, Ore.

Willows Grange Elects for New Year

Willows grange met for business in the hall at Cecil, Saturday, Nov. 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lundell and son Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Markham Baker, Miss Helen Lindsay, Marion and Mancel Krebs, Mrs. P. C. Peterson and Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter were Willows grangers who attended national grange in Portland last week and were initiated into the 7th degree of the order. Mary Lundell as chairman of the agricultural committee of Willows grange gave a splendid talk on the agricultural exhibits at the national meeting, and of the agricultural talks.

Some new names of applicants for membership were read and Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann were reinstated.

The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: Master, Markham Baker; overseer, Mary Lindsay; lecturer, Marjorie Baker; steward, Mancel Krebs; assistant steward, Marion Krebs; chaplain, Kenneth Lundell; treasurer, Clara Kincaid; secretary, Helen Lindsay; gatekeeper, Henry Graham; Ceres, Mary Lundell; Pomona, Geneva Palmer; Flora, Marie Ledbetter; lady assistant steward, Dorothy Brady; executive committee, O. L. Lundell, J. O. Kincaid, Donald Heliker.

On December 10 Willows grange will have a potluck supper at 6:30, then a business meeting and installation of officers.

IRRIGON NEWS

Irrigon Wins Two Basketball Games

By MRS. W. C. ISOM

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Markham spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Portland.

The Irrigon high school basketball teams, both boys and girls, won from Adams and Westland, respectively, Friday at the local gymnasium. They will play Arlington there Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leach, Bill Graybeal and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Isom were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Josephine Graybeal Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Moses and family and W. C. Isom were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Isom Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson of Prairie City were holiday visitors in Irrigon.

G. T. Want Ads bring results.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF COUNTY PROPERTY

By virtue of an order of the County Court, dated the 1st day of December, 1938, I am authorized and directed to advertise and sell at public auction, at not less than the minimum price herein set forth after each parcel or tract:

All of Blocks 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 to the Town of Irrigon, Oregon. Minimum price $132.00. Terms cash or on payment plan.

Therefore I will on the 24th day of December, 1938, at the hour of 2:00 P. M. of said day, at the front door of the Court House in Heppner, Oregon, sell said property to the highest bidder for cash in hand or as stated in said order.

C. J. D. BAUMAN, Sheriff.

CHRISTMAS Trees

ALL SIZES
Order early and get your pick.
GREEN'S FEED STORE

SHIP BY TRUCK

The Dalles Freight Line, Inc.

SERVICE BETWEEN

PORTLAND : THE DALLES : HEPPNER

AND WAY POINTS

Arrive Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays

Warehouse: KANE'S GARAGE Carl D. Spickerman, Agent

"PREVENT FOREST FIRES—IT PAYS"

WE WANT YOU TO COME to the

STAR THEATER

even if we have to give you a

FREE TICKET

● If you don't attend the Star regularly, we want you to. If you haven't been to the Star within the last six months (or if you are so unfortunate as to have never been to the Star) you've been missing out on a lot of good times.

● THAT makes us both unhappy. Both of us will benefit if you will accept a free ticket from the theater. If you'll enjoy one show as our guest, we think you'll become a "regular."

● Present this coupon at the boxoffice anytime before December 15th.

● I haven't been to the Star Theater during the past six months. I wouldn't fib to you.

Name

Address

STAR THEATER

HEPPNER