

LEXINGTON NEWS

Lex People Attend Portland Wedding

By MARGARET SCOTT

Mrs. Laura Rice and Anabel Turner attended the wedding of Katherine McLaughlin and Edward Rice Wednesday, November 23, in Portland and reported a very impressive ceremony. The wedding took place at eight p. m. in the rectory of the Davis street cathedral with twenty-five guests present. Nonie McLaughlin was maid of honor and Bill Doherty was best man. The bride wore a floor-length dress of blue-green velvet and carried a bouquet of gardenias. The bridesmaid was dressed in burgundy velvet with a mixed bouquet of roses, lilies, and snapdragons. After the wedding a reception was held at the St. Helens apartment house with about thirty guests present, after which the young couple left for a honeymoon in Seattle.

Lexington grange will meet with Rhea Creek grange Friday evening for joint installation of officers.

At 6 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 10, Lexington grange is giving a dinner for the past masters and their wives with a program following. Every granger is urged to be present and bring a hot dish.

The H. E. club will meet in an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Laura Rice.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gale of Portland. The baby has been named Patricia Mae. Mrs. Gale was formerly Mabel Wright.

Mrs. A. H. Nelson of Canby arrived here Thursday for a visit with her sons, Norman and Fred.

C. F. Trimble was a Portland visitor last week. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Trimble who came to attend the Christian Endeavor convention in Heppner.

Those attending the Columbia Union C. E. convention in Heppner last week end were Edith and Jerrine Edwards, Erma and Doris Scott and Rae Cowins.

Myles Martin was a business visitor in Moro last week.

Maxine and Zelma Way accompanied their grandfather home Wednesday afternoon and spent the week end in Portland.

A. M. Edwards returned home Friday evening from his work in Washington.

E. C. Miller of Salem is visiting at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Miller.

O. D. Forbes of Boardman was a guest at the home of his brother, Earl Forbes, Friday night.

Mrs. Ira Deultgen, Mrs. A. M. Edwards and Mrs. Trina Parker were hostesses for a stork shower at the Congregational church Friday afternoon honoring Mrs. Ladd Sherman. Games were played and refreshments were served. Those present besides the hostesses and the honoree were Nellie Palmer, Getta Cox, Edna Munkers, Alma Daugherty, Cecile Jackson, Susie Padberg, Laura Scott, Cecil Smith, Ann Johnston, Reta Cutler, Carna Campbell, Jessie Wright, Cora Allyn, Margaret Leach, Cora Warner, Mary Hunt, Ruth McMillan, Amanda Duvall, Frances McMillan, Emma Cox, Sarah White, Norma Marquardt, Emma Breshears, La Verne Henderson, Bernice Bauman, Ruth Lasich, Doris Lane, Opal Leach and Patricia Jewell.

Ralph Jackson was a Pendleton visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller of Jefferson were visiting here last week.

Business visitors here Monday were Ray McAlister and Sheriff Bauman of Heppner.

Esther Ruhl returned to her home in Estacada after being employed at the Cutsforth ranch for the past few months.

Elmer Hanks and family spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth and Thelma Smethurst spent the week end in The Dalles.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt were Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carmichael.

An aluminum demonstration dinner was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lieuallen at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg Sunday evening. Those present besides the above mentioned were Mr. and Mrs.

Cecil Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson, Grace Turner, Ray Phillips, Mrs. Biddle and Vernon Brown.

RHEA CREEK-EIGHT MILE NEWS

Grange met at the hall Sunday with pot luck dinner at noon. Lura Stephens was initiated in the third and fourth degrees. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bennett of Heppner joined our grange on a demit.

John Reid of Weiser, Idaho, was visiting over the week end with his family at Eight Mile.

Rhea Creek will hold a joint installation at their hall Friday night, Dec. 9, with Lexington and Lena granges. A pot luck supper will be served at six-thirty. Mrs. Mary Lundell will install. On December 18 the annual grange Christmas tree will be held at 7:30 for grangers and their families. Gifts will be exchanged and there will also be a program.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Bergstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson visited at Hermiston Tuesday.

Miss Marian Moyer, teacher at the Liberty school three years ago, visited over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom. Miss Moyer teaches at Stanfield this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Becket and daughter, Mrs. Johnny Hanna, spent Sunday at Fossil, visiting Mrs. Becket's parents.

H. E. C. will meet at the hall on Thursday, Dec. 22, with pot luck dinner at noon. The afternoon will be the Christmas tree and ladies will exchange gifts.

PINE CITY NEWS

Christmas Benefit Set at Pine City

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER

A basket social and program will be given by the people of the community to raise funds for the Christmas tree to be held December 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark spent the week end at the Wright home on Rhea creek.

Mrs. Lucy Rodgers of Heppner and the state school inspector, Mr. Emerson, were callers Friday at the Pine City school.

Miss Margaret Weaver and Mrs. Lois Kent attended the teachers' meeting at La Grande Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and Mrs. Pete Wilkins were Heppner callers Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger were Pendleton callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Neill are moving this week to the Baker place in the Stanfield district.

Tom Boylen of Pendleton has bought the W. J. Wattenburger place on Butter creek. H. E. Young has lived there for a number of years.

The Home Economics club of Lena grange will meet Wednesday with May Finch.

A Sunday school class will be held at the auditorium at 2 p. m. this coming Sunday.

Ross Updike and his brother Floyd were week-end visitors at the Fred Rauch home. Mr. Updike was employed at this ranch about ten years ago.

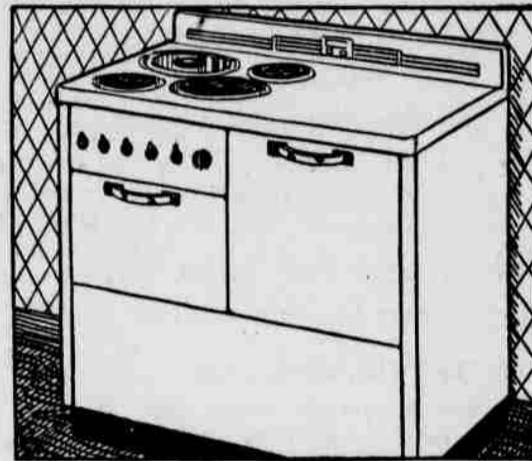

J. A. Troedson was in the city Monday from the farm in the Morgan section.

Herman Nielson was in town on business Monday from the Rood canyon farm.

WHAT MOTHER REALLY WANTS IS A NEW HOTPOINT Electric Range

THE Lancaster $158.00 CONVENIENT TERMS

How Mother will enjoy using this handsome electric range! Has one Select-A-Speed and two Hi-Speed Calrod Units, Thrift Cooker, Oven Heat Control, Storage Drawer. See it in our office today.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
Always at Your Service

Gifts All through the Store

at WILSON'S

—in fact every article in this store is a potential gift—useful, practical and appropriate. . . . Newest offerings from men's style centers make this year's stocks especially attractive. . . . We like to have everyone look to their heart's content. Be they young, old, discriminating or not.

- SHIRTS - $1, $1.65, $2, $2.50
- PAJAMAS - $1.65, $1.95, $2.95
- LOUNGING ROBES - $4.95 to $11.00
- HOSE - 25c, 35c, 50c
- SLIPPERS - $1.95, $2.50, $3.00
- We know He will want a GRAYCO TIE - 50c, $1.00, $1.75

MEN! You can please the ladies, too. No woman has too much hosiery. Every woman knows Kayser quality. GIVE KAYSER Hosiery of Style and Quality $1.00 -- 3 for $2.85

MERRY CHRISTMAS