Legion Conference Draws Good Crowd

Representatives from most of the posts and units of the 6th district, American Legion and Auxiliary, were present at the first district conference in the state held here Friday afternoon and evening. State officials attending included John Beckwith of Portland, department commander; E. L. Knight, La Grande, department vice-commander; Carl R. Moser, Portland, department adjutant; Jerry Owens, Salem, department historian and editor of the Oregon Legionnaire; Marion Coyner, Pendleton, 6th district commander; Mrs. Hazel Snyder, Astoria, department president; Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, Portland, department secretary, and Mrs. Marie Todd, Hermiston, 6th district president.

Following the afternoon conferences, held at the Elks hall and at the home of Mrs. Spencer Crawford, dinner was enjoyed at Hotel Heppner, with entertainment furnished by Mitchell post, the baby post of the district, having but recently received its charter. In the evening, at Elks hall, Commander Beckwith and President Snyder addressed a good audience on matters of interest not only to ex-service people but to the general public as well. Commander Coyner presided at the meeting, and the Heppner school band gave a short concert preceding the speaking program.

Posts and units represented were Pendleton, Milton-Freewater, Arlington, Hermiston, Mitchell, Ione and Heppner.

WHAT IS A SLEEPER?

In the language of the movie business, a "sleeper" is a picture that comes through the studios, unheralded and unsung—almost unnoticed—and TURNS OUT TO BE BETTER ENTERTAINMENT THAN SOME OF THE SUPER-COLO-SALS!

Such a picture is "A Man to Remember" in which Anne Shirley, Edward Ellis and other great troupers bring you the story of a country doctor. We join Hollywood's critics in urging you not to miss it. It will come to your theater on Friday and Saturday.

The companion picture on the Friday-Saturday double feature program is "Colorado Trail," featuring Charles Starrett, Iris Meredith and the singing cowboy group, Sons of the Pioneers. Starrett reached Hollywood via Dartmouth College where he was a member of Dartmouth's famous "Wonder football team."

The Hi-Yo Silver Matinees at 2:30 on Saturday are starting off with a bang. Why not get in on the fun? 10c for everyone.

The Sunday-Monday feature—"Four Daughters"—is based on Fannie Hurst's famous story "Sister Act" and features the three Lane Sisters (Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola) and Gale Page as the Four Daughters. It is not claimed to be magnificent, colossal, gigantic, stupendous or amazing, but we do claim that here indeed is delightful, heart-warming entertainment, the kind of picture that deserves the patronage of every man, woman and child.

Edward G. Robinson once thought himself something of a specialist in gangster roles. Then Columbia made "I AM THE LAW" and Mr. Robinson was cast as a fighting prosecutor who cleans up the rackets. The feature comes to the Star on Tuesday only. There is a fine supporting cast.

Imagine Public Funnyman No. 1 as a superman on the gridiron... and the modern Hercules of the wrestling ring! Tearing down the field for a hundred-laugh gain... and throwing ferocious Man Mountain Dean for a total loss! That is Joe E. Brown in THE GLADIATOR, Wednesday-Thursday.

The short subjects consist of a newsreel covering reciprocal trade pacts, skiing at Mt. Hood, California vs. Stanford, Notre Dame vs. Northwestern; an Our Gang comedy in which the kids get a yen for the theater; and the story of Michel de Nostradamus who became one of the greatest doctors of all time.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan Jr. (Ione) are invited to present this coupon for complimentary admissions. To be used before December 16th.

Christmas

THROUGH all of the year no other holiday is quite so big as Christmas. . . . No other Gifts mean quite so much as Christmas Gifts. . . . Yet Christmas is gone so quickly and many Christmas Gifts are all too soon forgotten. . . . Why not give a gift you know will last all through the years, that will bring them a pleasant reminder of you who gave them.
