State Inspector Visits

D. A. Emerson, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, inspected the entire school system during his visit here Wednesday. He commented very favorably on the several changes and renovations made during the year, namely the new lunch hall, the lighting improvements, the new F. F. A. building, and rearrangements in the library and domestic science room. He seemed to be pleased with the general staff and complimented the maintenance of the buildings.

He regarded compulsory typing for freshmen a practical measure taken by few schools. Required public speaking is also a novelty to most school systems, but has been suggested in the state course of study for next year.

Marimba Xylophone Program Given

On Wednesday, Dec. 1, Roy Graybill of California presented a most entertaining program before the student body and eighth grade. Mr. Graybill first explained the structure of the marimba xylophone and then presented an entertaining program of old melodies. Of special interest was the playing of two pieces in three tempos.

GAS HOUSE GOSSIP

By JOE AIKEN

This week the casaba season opened officially for Heppner as they met Ione Monday and will meet Fossil this Friday. Ione had played two games previous to the game with Heppner. Both of these games were lost to Arlington.

Many wonder why the basketball schedule is not more complete. The schedule has fourteen games and includes a league play-off, besides the sub-district tournament, which will mean plenty of basketball before the season is over. However, in past years, we have had as many as twenty games, besides the sub-district tournament.

This year it is our hope that the spectators will be watching the game from the gym floor.

This may sound impossible, but it is still probable as the mental work has already been completed. An estimate upon the cost has not yet been made; but if the cost isn't too great, the building will start after Christmas. The labor is to be furnished by the local F. F. A. chapter.

It is the purpose of these bleachers to give the spectators a better view and in turn get bigger turn-outs for the games.

Anyone knows that the support that is given to student body activities isn't nearly what it should be for the size of this town. The school puts forth its best efforts and gives you a winning team, yet we have no support. What is wrong? Is it we or you.

Any suggestions would gladly be accepted, and if you think there is something wrong with us, whatever the case, we would like to know and would appreciate any change that would be possible.

Here and Yon

This year there is going to be a finger bowl game in Texas. Two six-man teams will play in the first game of this kind in history.

Upon sending in a substitute this year, it is necessary for the players to exchange jerseys. The new players must inform the officials of the change.

Coach Irvin of E. O. N. invites the H. H. S. basketball squad and faculty to attend his games this year.

To all those who hold season tickets: These tickets are transferable, and anyone presenting them at the ticket booth will be admitted to the games.

Student Body Votes on Amendments

Last Friday the third student body meeting was held. A big surprise was given to everyone when Bob Scrivner, legal advisor, read a summons to Bill Barratt, to the effect that the student body is being sued by Ruth Green, trustee of the Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1938, for the sum of $1.00.

Written votes were taken on the amendments concerning the student body tax and parliamentary procedure, but a revote must be taken as the ballot box was "stuffed."

Two new amendments were proposed. One was to repeal the Article 5 of section 2 of the constitution, which states that a club activity cup be presented to the club most active during the year. The second is to be added to Article 2, Section 3, and states that the student council be empowered at the beginning of the year to appoint a song leader who will serve the full year.

Dub Aiken made the motion that $3.50 be appropriated for a new printing press. The assembly voted unanimously in favor of it.

After the official business was all taken care of, Mr. Knox presented letters to the twenty-one boys who earned them during the football season. Following this, the Girls' league held their White Elephant sale with Bob Runnion as auctioneer. This sale was very successful, with $5.65 being cleared.

Peering Into the Past

One Year Ago . . . The sophomores defeated the freshmen in an inter-class basketball game.

Five Years Ago . . . The Heppner basketball squad defeated the Ione squad on the local floor, 30 to 21.

Ten Years Ago . . . The seniors and freshmen debated the question: "Resolved that Heppner high school should publish an annual." The seniors, who upheld the negative, won the debate.

F.F.A. to Hold Banquet

sponsibilities better. A parent and son banquet December 10, at 6:30 p. m. It is to be held in the lunch room of the school house. The Home Ec club is cooperating with the F. F. A. by cooking and preparing the food. The officers are planning to hold several meetings for the purpose of learning their responsibilities better.

Humor

Norma Prock: "Why, Don, what's the matter?"

Don Jones (coming down the hall looking very disappointed): "I got gyp't on that White Elephant sale."

Norma: "How did you get gyp't." Don: "I came up here under the impression that I could get a date with every package."

Joe Aiken: "When I take a girl riding in a taxi in the city, I never let the mounting fare bother me." Emery Coxen: "Ah, mind over meter, eh?"

Hugh Crawford: "If you go home at this late hour, will there be a light burning for you?"

Donnie Bennett: "Yes, my mother doesn't like to lick me in the dark."

With a wild yell he sprang behind a chair, threw it madly to one side and then flung himself under a table. For several minutes he lay there, wiggling and squirming. Then he dragged himself out, hitting his head on the bottom of the table, and cursing furiously, dashed across the room and dived over a divan. After a minute he crawled from behind it and stood up. "These danged ping pong balls sure are the devil to catch," he muttered.

Student Opinion of Ear Muffs

Harold Armstrong—Swell* for keeping ears warm.
 Bethal Blake—They save on water and soap.

Joe Aiken—I would like to have a pair.

John Crawford—Good idea.
 Bob Applegate—You can't hear all the good dirt.

Dick Bogoger—Good for married men.

Dub Aiken—They seem to increase the size of the ear.

Jack Merrill—You don't have to wash your ears.

Joe Farley—Too hot.

Frances McCarty—They tickle!

Norma Prock—They serve their purpose.

Dean Sprinkel—Colored ones are too loud.

Homer Hughes—Anyone who wears them is a softy.

Mr. Peavy—They improve some people's looks.

Miss Marie Healy, bookkeeper in the local branch for some time, has been transferred to the head bank at Portland, leaving this week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Healy.

Notice to Taxpayers

All taxpayers who have unpaid personal taxes for 1936, 1937 and 1938 are urged to call at the Sheriff's office during the month of December and pay these taxes.

By paying these taxes during December, a convenient payment plan can be arranged for any prior years.

Unpaid taxes for these years, after January 1, are subject to foreclosure proceedings and additional expense to the taxpayer.

All unpaid 1938 taxes become delinquent December 16, 1938.

C. J. D. BAUMAN,
 Sheriff and Tax Collector.
