'Danger at Crossroad' Slated at Hardman

By Hardman High School
Since Rhea creek is giving a dance on December 17, the high school play, "Danger at the Crossroads," must be postponed until after Christmas.

The community Christmas program is well under way. There will be a one-act play put on jointly by the "Let's Talk" and the high school. Also, another one-act play by the Birthday club and the Christian Endeavor, in addition to other numbers. It was voted to hold the program in the high school auditorium Thursday evening, December 22.

On Friday after school Misses Rita Robinson and Vern McDaniell went to Heppner with Marion Saling, and a little later Pat Robison took Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon and Glen, Misses Vera and Maxine McDaniell, Jean Leathers and Mildred Clary. All of these were delegates to the Christian Endeavor convention. Rita and Vern stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman, and Mrs. Frank Turner entertained Jean, Mildred, Vera and Maxine. Other Hardman people who went in for some of the meetings were Mr. and Mrs. Neat Knighten, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brannon and Miss Juanita Byer. All of the delegates returned after the afternoon session Sunday.

Rita Robinson lead Christian Endeavor. Instead of a topic the people who were there who had been at the convention in Heppner reported on the different meetings. Three pep songs learned at the convention were sung: "Since Christian Endeavor Came to Town," "Wonderful Love" and "Come Into My Heart."

Mrs. Anna Heiny of Fairview was a visitor at the G. I. Clary home Saturday and Sunday. She has returned to Heppner to visit at the E. O. Ferguson home.

Miss Frances Inskeep and Jim Stevens visited at the Wm. Emert home near Ione Sunday. Tommy Graham accompanied them as far as Kincaid's.

Alvin Kleinfeldt of Heppner will visit our Sunday school next Sunday. Anyone interested is invited to be present at 3:30.

Everybody come to the dance on Dec. 10. Good music.

Les Robinson was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday.

Marvin Saddler, with the aid of Creston Robinson and Tommy Graham, directed a party in the high school auditorium Saturday evening. In spite of the fact that the girls were at the Christian Endeavor convention there were enough present to make a very good party. During the first part of the evening, pinochle, five hundred and pit were played. Then everybody danced with Oren, Sam and Ed McDaniell furnishing old-time music. After supper the dancing was continued.

Mrs. E. E. Rugg was a visitor in the city this morning from Rhea creek. She said that her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus E. Brown, are now nicely settled in an apartment in Portland.

Oregon Wildlife Group Holds Busy Session at O.S.C.

The placing of all wild life in Oregon, including fish and game, except salmon and steelhead in the Columbia river and certain coastal bays, under the control of the Oregon Game commission, with their propagation and taking regulated for recreational purposes, was advocated in a proposed amendment to the state constitution approved by the third annual conference of the Oregon Wild Life federation at Oregon State college December 1 and 2.

The amendment would close all bays and coastal streams in Oregon to commercial fishing except the Columbia river and parts of Coos, Winchester and Tillamook bays.

After a busy two-day session in which delegates representing sportsmen, stockmen, commercial fishermen, forest service, wild life societies and other interests involved discussed Oregon's wild life problems from many different angles, the conference was brought to a close with the passage of several resolutions and election of officers. William J. Smith of Portland was re-elected president, and the society retained H. H. Stage, Portland, secretary-treasurer. Alva Day of Hood River was chosen to succeed Malcolm Epley of Klamath Falls as vice-president.

Among the resolutions passed was one presented by the conservation committee of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union which provided that no commercial fishing be permitted east of Bonneville dam except by Indians according to their treaties; that the fish commission be given power to close the Columbia to fishing for at least two weeks in July and all of September, and recommended abolishment of all stationary fishing gear, including seines, on the Columbia and its tributaries; the measure to carry a referendum clause referring it to voters for approval.

Other resolutions favored forcing dredging operations to leave land in productive condition; requested study by a competent authority of effect of contemplated dams over the state on wild life before construction is undertaken, favor passage of the soil conservation districts bill to be presented to the legislature, provided for appointment of a committee to work for the establishment of an animal industries building at Oregon State college, and expressed appreciation to President Smith for his services and to Oregon State college for its cooperation. A committee was appointed to investigate the possibility of sponsoring an Oregon wildlife sports show next spring.
