Party Features Week at Hardman

By Hardman High School

On Thursday a birthday party was given at Mrs. Roy Robinson's for Mrs. Dick Steers and Mrs. Roy Robinson. There were very delicious refreshments, and the gifts to both ladies were lovely. New persons at the party were Mrs. Anna Heiny and Mrs. Ed Rugg. The ladies had planned a bazaar which was given at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday night. Aprons, table covers, and other attractive things were sold to furnish money to fix up the church. The names of the club members were presented for drawing, as the ladies will exchange gifts at Christmas.

Christian Endeavor met Sunday evening at the regular hour, with Pat Robison leader. The topic for discussion was, "Is Profanity Harmful?" Ethel Knighten will lead next Sunday night.

Come to the dance December 31. On Friday Kinnard McDaniel went to Ione after his daughter Pomona. She went back Sunday as she attends school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eskelson and Bill Huddleston of Lonerock were at the dance Saturday night.

On Sunday Les Robinson, Mrs. Ethel McDaniel, Vera and Cecil took Owen Robinson to Arlington. From there he went on to Portland by bus.

Mrs. Pat Robison, Maxine McDaniel and Monte McDonald went to Heppner Saturday.

At noon on Friday the high school met in the dining room for a birthday dinner honoring Frances Inskeep and Vera McDaniel. The dinner consisted of everything from soup to mincemeat pie. Both girls received presents from each of their classmates.

There was a party in Mrs. McCutcheon's room Friday.

Hardman had an interesting "Let's Talk" meeting last Wednesday with a large attendance. The subject under discussion was Morrow county schools. A well prepared talk was given by Floyd Adams, followed by discussion from representatives of the school districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Batty of Maupin visited the L. C. Batty home Sunday, after which they returned to the home of his brother J. N. Batty, in Heppner.

Roy Robinson, while coming to Hardman from Fossil Saturday night, slid off the road near French's. The car was badly damaged.

The Birthday club met at the high school Monday afternoon. Since there is now money in the treasury, Ethel McDaniel was chosen as treasurer and Elsa Leathers was elected as secretary. The club will hold a Christmas party at the high school on Tuesday at 3:30 at which time gifts will be exchanged.

IMPROVE RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Ball have started improvement of their residence on South Court street by covering it with slate siding. This siding, of late development, is fire- and weather-proof and eliminates necessity of painting.

Camp Has Class in Wild Life Methods

Fifty CCC enrollees at Camp Heppner have organized a class in wildlife management methods and are receiving instruction in this interesting field under the guidance of William G. Harmon, senior foreman.

Members of the class assisted in setting up and operating elk and deer checking stations at Heppner during the recent hunting season, where, in cooperation with forest service officials, counts were made of the game bagged in this area. Establishment and maintenance of game bird feeding stations is being carried out in cooperation with the local sportsmen's association.

Purpose of the organization, according to Mr. Harmon, is to interest boys at the camp in this phase of the conservation of natural resources. The instruction offered in game conservation and management will be valuable to those who wish to train for jobs with the forest service, biological survey, or state game departments.
