Willows Grange Installs New Officers

By MARGARET BLAKE

Willows grange held its regular business meeting in its hall at Cecil last Saturday night. Officers for the coming year were installed into their respective chairs with Mary Lundell, George Krebs, Vida Heliker, Stella O'Meara and Marjorie Baker as installing officers. Martha Dinsmore and R. H. Happy were elected to become members of the grange by initiation. It was decided that the grange would have a Christmas tree and program on Friday evening, Dec. 23. On New Years eve the men of the grange will entertain the ladies. The officers for the coming year are Markham Baker, master; Mary Lindsay, overseer; Marjorie Baker, lecturer; Manell Krebs, steward; Marion Krebs, asst. steward; Kenneth Lundell, chaplain; Clara Kincaid, treasurer; Helen Lindsay, secretary; Henry Graham, gatekeeper; Mary Lundell, Ceres; Geneva Palmer, Pomona; Marie Ledbetter, Flora; Dorothy Brady, lady assistant steward; executive committee, Oscar Lundell, J. O. Kincaid and Donald Heliker.

The H. E. club of Willows grange will hold an all day meeting in the hall at Cecil on Wednesday, Dec. 21, with a pot luck dinner at noon.

Mrs. Diantha Akers departed on Wednesday for Portland for a visit. She expects to visit in Canada before returning.

Claude and Gladys Brashears and Donald Heliker were week-end visitors in Portland.

The officers of Lena, Lexington and Rhea Creek granges were installed at Rhea Creek grange hall Friday night by a team of officers from Willows grange. Mary Lundell, O. L. Lundell, Mary Lindsay, Vida Heliker and Mr. and Mrs. Markham Baker composed the team.

A large group of friends met at the I. O. O. F. hall in Morgan last Saturday evening to enjoy a pot luck supper and party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ekleberry who are leaving soon to make their home at Prosser, Wash.

Mrs. Oscar Arvig who has been caring for Mrs. Ida Peterson has gone to Heppner for a vacation. Her place is being filled by Mrs. Pauline Boyer.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Garret are living in the Henry Clark house while Mr. Garret is employed on the bridge gang at Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heliker were visitors in Pendleton last week. While there they visited at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Timm.

Dr. C. C. Chick of Hood River was here for a few hours Sunday. He was accompanied by Miss Blanche Bristow and Mrs. Meyers.

Mrs. Frank Engelman and Mrs. Victor Rietmann were in Pendleton Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Clark and her daughters, Mrs. Sam Pomerantz and Valjean Clark, drove to Pendleton Saturday to visit Mrs. Clark's father, George Ganger.

Plans are underway for a community Christmas tree and program to be held in the school gym on Thursday evening, Dec. 22. The entire community and surrounding country are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McCabe have moved to the Lee Beckner farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks have moved into the Willard Grabill house on Second street.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Bert Mason, Mrs. C. W. McNamer and Mrs. Agnes Wilcox drove to Stevenson, Wash., to attend a bridal shower for Miss Lucy Butler who used to visit Mrs. McNamer here several years ago. They were accompanied as far as White Salmon by Mrs. E. J. Keller and Miss Emmer Maynard who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Balsiger until the party returned.

Mrs. Ida Moore has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wrex Hickok, in Portland. She was taken down by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eubanks.

Mrs. Fred Buchanan came over from her home at Echo last week and took her father, W. E. Ahalt, home to live with her.

Another old landmark is being torn down. The Carle rooming house as it has been known for many years was built in 1898 by Tom Carle and was originally used as a livery stable. Later it served as a rooming house, undertaking parlor and in the past few years as house-keeping rooms. In the course of its removal an old letter was found bearing a postmark of Weston, Oregon, in the year 1884. It was addressed to Mr. Carle at Pettysville. Pettysville will be remembered by a few as the postoffice which was located at the Pettys farm at the forks of Rhea and Willow creeks and served a large territory before other postoffices were established.

Women's Topic club met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Denny last Friday afternoon. Fifteen members were present. The book, "On Her Own," by Mary Knight was reviewed by the hostesses, Mrs. Denny, Mrs. Agnes Wilcox and Mrs. Lena Lundell. Refreshments were served.

The Women's auxiliary of the Legion met at the home of Mrs. Omar Rietmann last Friday evening. A social time was enjoyed with members of the Legion joining them after their meeting in their hall. Games were played and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Thomson have taken the Jeff Jones house on Gale street formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Belanger.
