Christmas sermon on Sunday morning. No service in the evening. "Who are the Wise Men now, when all is told?"

Not men of science; not the great and strong;
Not those who wear a kingly diadem;
Not those whose eager hands pile high the gold;
But those amid the tumult and the throng
Who follow still the star of Bethlehem."

—Williams.

The pastor, on behalf of the church, wishes to all a very cheerful Christmas season.

School Transportation Voted at Hardman

By Hardman High School

The voters of Dist. 40 met at the school house Saturday afternoon for the purpose of voting on whether to allow transportation for the remainder of this year. This would apply only to Stanley Robinson and the Eldon McFerrin families. The vote was 9 to 3 in favor of transportation.

Tyndall Robison went to Pendleton last week and while there he purchased a new 1939 Chevrolet pickup.

Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman of Heppner has been quite ill the past week.

Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Opal Hastings and Glen Merritt at Mukatio, Wash., on Dec. 10. They will reside at Mukatio, where Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Merritt live.

Fred Hoskins and Bill Howell were visiting at the Owen Leathers home and other places on Monday.

Mrs. Raymond McDonald and her infant daughter, Patricia Louise, arrived home from the hospital Sunday.

Roy Lieuallen furnished and cooked an aluminum dinner Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten. Those that were present were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brannon, Frances and Jean Leathers, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and two daughters, Yvonne and Clarice, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer and two children, and Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon and son Glenn.

Men who have recently gone to work at Reed's mill are Carl and Owen Leathers, Earl Redding and Raymond McDonald. They all have work with Bill Greener's logging crew.

On Wednesday night the "Let's Talk" meeting was held. Floyd Adams and others gave talks on county unit system, which is being much discussed this season.

A farewell dinner was given at the high school Tuesday for Tommy Graham, who left Hardman Wednesday. Everyone was sorry to see him go. He plans to attend high school at Rufus.

On Tuesday afternoon the Birthday club met at the high school for their annual birthday party, at which time the members exchanged gifts. For refreshments they served candy, nuts and popcorn, and all of the children of the community from pre-school age up to and including the high school were guests at the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins have been in Portland for about two weeks. Mrs. Collins is going through a clinic while she is there. She hopes to get relief from an illness of long duration. Mr. Collins is going to have his teeth pulled.
