Petition for Rehearing Of KOAC Case Filed

Oregon State College—A supplementary petition for a rehearing of the KOAC-KOY frequency case was filed with the federal communications commission the last week in December, Oregon State college officials have been notified.

Hundreds of letters, telegrams and petitions have been pouring in on the Oregon congressional delegation protesting the granting of the KOY application to use the same frequency now assigned KOAC. These have been used in attempts to gain a rehearing and if the case is reopened, will serve to indicate the service being rendered Oregon listeners, according to L. R. Briethaupt, emergency representative for KOAC.

Myles Martin, north Lexington wheatraiser, was transacting business in the city Friday.

State Herds Invited to World Fair Dairy Show

Oregon dairy producers will have opportunity to make up state herds of eight animals for each breed to compete in the international dairy show at the Treasure Island Golden Gate exposition October 21 to 30, 1939, according to premium lists and rules received by Roger W. Morse, extension dairyman at Oregon State college.

Rules require that the state herd must be owned by at least three breeders. For Holsteins, Guernseys and Jerseys, there will be $1500 in prize money per breed, while for Ayrshires and Brown Swiss $750 will be divided among the entries for each breed.

Each state in the United States and each province in Canada will be restricted to one herd in any one breed. Details may be obtained through Morse or breed associations.

Dates of the annual convention of the Oregon Dairymen's association have also been announced as February 2 and 3 at Eugene. Details of the program will be announced soon, says George Fullenwider, Carlton, association president.

Applications for 1939 chauffeurs' licenses are running nearly 16 per cent ahead of last year, Secretary of State Earl Snell reports. To December 27, 6133 applications have been received, compared with 5331 last year.
