

Heppner-Arlington Jinx Broken

Nosing out the Arlington Honkers by a 32-31 margin in Friday night's thriller, the Mustang basketball team upset the famous Arlington "jinx" existing since 1934. For five years no Heppner team has proved itself capable of defeating the Arlington basketball teams. This win also evens up for a 37-20 shellacking handed the Mustangs earlier in the season on the Honkers' floor. This game was a decisive one—losing it would have meant a tie for league leadership with Fossil, while the possibility remained that a loss of the coming game with Condon would result in Heppner's losing the top bracket. By winning the Arlington game, the Mustangs now lead by one less loss, the game with Condon being the initial one in deciding whether Heppner wins the league or has to play off a tie with Fossil for the coveted title.
