HARDMAN NEWS

Church Benefit Dated at Hardman

By Hardman High School
Keep in mind the 4th of March because the girls and ladies of the community are giving three one-act plays then to raise money to fix up the church. The Birthday club is in charge and there will be a dance at the I. O. O. F. hall as well as the program at the high school. Mrs. Neal Knighten, Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon and Mrs. Irl Clary are each directing one play. One of the plays, "Don't Tell a Soul," includes the following cast: Mrs. Roy Robinson, Mrs. George Hayden, Mrs. Carey Hastings, Mrs. Max Buschke, Mrs. Charlie McDaniel, Mrs. Carl Leathers, Mrs. Earle Redding, Mrs. Sam McDaniel and Miss Muriel Farrens. The other casts will be announced next week. But keep in mind the date—Saturday, March 4. Buddy Batty was in Hardman last Tuesday to get Louis Batty's truck.

Patsy Ann Wright, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, who has been in the hospital with pneumonia, is improving.

Those attending "The Citadel" in Heppner Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robinson and Doris, Mrs. McCutcheon and Glenn, Jim Stevens, Mildred and Irl Clary, and Frances, Nona and Alene Inskeep.

John Monahan and his son of Condon were visitors for a short time in Hardman while en route to the Roy Robinson ranch last week.

Those attending the show "Rhythm in the Saddle" from here were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers and Jean, Vera McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and children, Leon Chapin, Elmer Steers, Delvin McDaniel, Mrs. McCutcheon and Glenn, and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Knighten and children.

A number of Hardman Odd Fellows met with the lodge in Heppner Tuesday. Those who went were Francis Craber, Bunny and Gus Steers, Louis Batty and Leon Chapin.

Creston Robinson and Marvin Saddler walked to the Roy Robinson ranch in the mountains Saturday and returned Sunday.

The Odd Fellows opened the hall after lodge so that the home people could have a little dance. In spite of the many other attractions there were enough for a good time.

The Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. L. C. Batty last Thursday, the occasion being her birthday. Refreshments consisted of chicken sandwiches, pickles, assorted home made cookies, and coffee. Everyone had a good time, and further plans were made for the evening of one-act plays, the time being March 4.

John Hastings and Nelson Knighten went to Monument Friday to bring Billy Knighten over to work for Harold Wright.

Those attending the dance at Rhea creek Saturday night were Delvin

The weather the past week was much colder, reports as low as 20 below zero being heard. At least it was very cold, with new additions of snow each day and strong winds which carried off much of the snow. At the end of the week a chinook played havoc with the remaining snow and ruined all the skiing prospects.
