W. W. Windsor, Long Resident, Passes

By KATHERINE GRIFFITH
W. W. Windsor, well known pioneer of this section, was found in an unconscious condition at his home here Monday evening. A physician was summoned to take him to Heppner, but he passed away at six o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Windsor was not known to be ill until A. E. Reed, who went to clean the yard, discovered that he was not about, and the house was locked. He called the marshal who forced the door. Food which he had purchased on Thursday had not been touched, nor had his paper for that day been opened.

Wm. W. Windsor was born in Cooper county, Missouri, April 22, 1855. He came to Pendleton in 1883 and to Morrow county in 1888. Three sons survive. They are Walter of Phoenix, Ariz.; John of New York, and Sid, whose address is not known. Also two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Helms of Sedalia, Mo., and Mrs. Lucy Cordrey of Viento, Okla.

Mr. Windsor was a homely philosopher whose writings sometimes appeared in county newspapers under the pen name, "Sage of Windsor Castle."

Funeral services have been announced to be held from the Ione Christian church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with interment in Ione cemetery. Phelps Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Erret E. Hummel, high school principal, has been offered a contract for the coming year by the Ione school board. Mr. Hummel has held the position at Ione for two years. No announcements have been made in regard to the other teachers.

The Ione Union Missionary and Aid society met in the Congregational church Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Laxton McMurray acting as hostess and presenting an interesting program on the Navajo Indians. Election of officers was held as follows: President, Mrs. Della Corson; vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Blake; secretary, Mrs. Laxton McMurray, and treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Swanson.

Wallace Matthews left for Umpqua Friday after a short visit at Morgan. Mrs. Matthews remained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely, for a longer visit.

Norman and Eva Swanson drove up Saturday evening and spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson. They returned to Portland Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. J. Blake left Saturday to join her husband on their new ranch near Heppner. Mary Kay entered high school there Monday and Joanne the third grade, while Helen remained in Ione at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blake, to finish school.

George Griffith made a business trip to Portland over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Misner of Thornton, Wash., arrived in Ione Saturday evening to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin. After spending the winter in southern California, they attended the fair at San Francisco. On their return trip they visited a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbart, in Portland.

Arthur Bergstrom, a student at Reed college in Portland, is spending reading week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, of Gooseberry.

Misses Helen and Betty Lou Lindsay and Katherine Griffith spent the week end in Condon. Helen and Betty Lou were guests at the John Monahan home and Katherine at the J. W. Howk home. While there the girls attended the basketball tournament at Fossil Friday and Saturday.

Rose Marie Gorger, who is attending the Catholic academy at Pendleton, returned to school Monday after spending the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorger. Misses Molly and Anna McIntyre of Hardman who are also students at the academy, accompanied them after spending Sunday with Mrs. Ada Cannon and family in Ione.

The following boys with their coach, Homer Williams, attended the sub-district basketball tournament at Fossil last Friday and Saturday:

Harry Ring, Norman Bergstrom, Clyde and Claude Pettyjohn, Bill Eubanks, Ted Palmateer, Melvin Brady and Jimmie Ledbetter. Richard Gronquist and Mr. and Mrs. Erret E. Hummel took the boys in their cars. They played Condon and were defeated, thus eliminating them from further games in the tournament.

Mrs. C. F. Feldman, chairman of the Ione Library board, reports that friends from distant points have sent books to the library. Some came from southern California and another from Iowa.

Anna Doherty enrolled in the Ione high school as a post-graduate student Monday.

Gerald Fehrenbacher, relief agent for the railroad company, is in Ione. J. C. Hatmaker has been transferred to Mosier and left with his family Saturday. He has been depot agent here about two months.

Fred Hoskins and Robert attended the tournament at Fossil Saturday evening and Delbert Emert, Patricia Emert and Lee Pettyjohn attended Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Biddle returned Thursday from a three-weeks visit at Portland, Corvallis, Eugene and on the coast. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grimes, former Ione residents, at Yachats.

SCOUTS HAVE MEETING

Heppner Boy Scout troop 61 met at the high school Tuesday evening for their weekly meeting. Knot tying and advancement tests were studied the first part of the evening. Scoutmaster Tom Wells notified the troop of the March of Time program coming to the Star theater tonight (March 9). The film deals with the Boy Scout organizations and teachings. Robert Grockett was elected troop scribe. Games were played before closing ceremony. Tom Wells and Gilbert E. Dickson were officers present, Billy Bucknum and Lyle Cox were visitors and scouts in attendance were Donald Wehmeyer, Claude Snow, Bob Pinckney, Billy Snow, Robert Grockett, Leon McClintock, John Skuzeski, Jr., and Don Bollard.
