

Local News

Mrs. Julia Clark left Sunday for Hillsboro after a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Becket, in Eight Mile. Mrs. Clark will join her husband, "Bub" Clark, who is at the home of his sister, Mrs. Russell Morgan, at Hillsboro. Mr. Clark was reported as feeling quite well in the course of convalescence from the serious illness with which he has been afflicted for three years.

H. J. Biddle, in the city from Rhea creek Friday, reported that he and Mrs. Biddle had just returned from an enjoyable trip to Willamette valley and coast points. On the trip Mr. Biddle inspected several modern dairies which he said were a revelation in cleanliness and facility for milk handling.

Clyde Wells was transacting business here the first of the week from his home in Pendleton. A pioneer resident of this city, Mr. Wells still feels that coming to Heppner is like getting back home. He reported that his health had been rather poor of late.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin L. Kleinfeldt would appreciate receiving statements of all obligations due now or that will be due next week. These may be mailed here until March 21 or to 253 N. Oakley Ave., Burley, Idaho, after March 15.

Heppner friends attending a birthday party for Judge C. L. Sweek at Pendleton Friday night included Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jones, Mrs. A. D. McMurdo and Harry Duncan.

Mrs. Pauline Boyer expected to leave her home at Ione today for Portland for a short visit before going on to California to make a more extended visit near Fresno. She was calling in Heppner Tuesday.

Otto Rietmann of the Ione section was transacting business in the city yesterday. He reported that he had no fall sown wheat, but thought prospects were good for spring grain if rains came in season.

W. H. Zinter and R. H. Zinter were in the city Friday from the Ione section. The former Mr. Zinter is a recent arrival in the county from the Spokane country who comes here to make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Blahm were in the city this morning from their home at Walla Walla. Mr. Blahm calling at the sheriff's office to pay taxes on his Morrow county holdings.

Tom Abel of the Stanfield section was in the city Monday investigating building prospects. An experienced carpenter, he resides on an irrigated tract near Stanfield.

John Kinsman of McMinnville, Heppner butcher for many years, was visiting old-time friends and transacting business here the first of the week.

The crocheted tablecloth, which was to have been given away at Hardman March 4, is being held until more tickets are sold.—Ethel Knighten.

C. N. Fridley of Wasco, former Morrow county resident, was visiting old-time friends and transacting business in the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Laxton McMurray were transacting business in the city Friday from the farm home at Jordan Siding.

Mrs. Le Grand Guild is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Blanche Patterson, from her home at Snohomish, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker and children of the Ione district were transacting business in the city Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Miller visited relatives at Portland and Oregon City over the week end.

House for rent, 3 rooms with bath, furnished. Clara Beamer, city. 1tp

IRRIGON NEWS

Friends Remember Eightieth Birthday

By MRS. W. C. ISOM
Several friends of Mrs. Josephine Grabiell surprised her Saturday evening at her home when they brought birthday greetings and gifts honoring her 80th birthday which was Sunday, March 5. Mrs. Grabiell is in reasonably good health though she has had to get about on crutches the past year as a result of a broken hip through a fall. The entire community extends good wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Gammett of Idaho is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. F. Brownning.

Rev. Carl Alquist of Vale arrived Friday to spend a week or ten days with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiks. Mrs. Reiks has been quite ill but is improving. Mr. Alquist took her to Pendleton Monday where she is taking medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom and Mr. and Mrs. Don Isom and baby were business visitors in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Dusenberry, 1st grade teacher, spent the week end at La Grande.

Miss Crooks who teaches in the high school visited in Boise, Idaho, from Friday until Sunday.

Florence Brace is now making her home at Weiser, Idaho, where she is employed.

The ladies and members and several of the men will meet at the Presbyterian church Thursday for an all day meeting. Prearranged work will be done by the ladies while the men will grade on the yard. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon.

PINE CITY NEWS

McGreers Return From World's Fair

By BERNICE WATTENBURGER
Mrs. Robert McGreer and daughter Shirley returned home Thursday from the World's Fair at San Francisco. Mrs. McGreer's mother, Mrs. Brewster, is spending a month with her.

Mrs. Barton Clark and Mrs. Marion Finch attended the home economics meeting at Lena last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger spent Sunday in Pasco, Wash., visiting their son Earl and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers and

EVERY-DAY NEEDS

SCHOOL SUPPLIES
Tablets 4c each and 10c
Filler Paper 4c each and 10
Crayons 4c, 8c, 10c, 15c
Pencils, 1c, 4-5c, 3-5c, 2 for 5c, 5c
Scrap Books 10c
Note Books 5c, 10c to 25c

DISHES
Glassbake 39c to 59c
32-pc. Set Dishes $4.98
Whiteware 10c to 25c
Water Glasses 5c to 10c

JEWELRY
Pins, Brooches, Clips, Rings, etc.

PARTY GOODS
Playing Cards 29c-39c Deck
Napkins Pkg. 10c
Bridge Luncheon Sets 10c
Tally Cards 4 for 5c
Candles 5c and 10c
Poker Chips 49c Box

KITCHEN GOODS
Aerowax, self-polishing wax
10c, 25c, 49c
Furniture Polish, 15c pt., 25c qt.
Wall Paper Cleaner 15c Can
Clothes Pins 5c doz., 10c box
Chore Girls, etc. 5c and 10c
Dish Rags 5c and 10c
Kitchen Hand Towels 10c Roll

DICKSON'S VARIETY STORE
HEPPNER, OREGON

family and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and family spent Sunday in Mottinger, Wash., visiting the Bill Westmeyer family.

A large crowd attended the dance at the Lena grange hall last Saturday evening.

Frank Helms and Fred Rauch were Heppner callers Monday.

Roy Neill was a business caller in Wallowa Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Geneva Young left Saturday to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Ollie Cox of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright of Rhea creek. They attended the play and dance at Hardman Saturday evening.

Mrs. McGreer and Mrs. Brewster were lunch guests at the Tom Boylen home in Pendleton last Tuesday.

A party will be given this Friday evening in honor of Bernard Doherty who received the most points in an English contest. Bernard is a Freshman.

LEXINGTON AGENT APPOINTED

Lexington customers of Pacific Power & Light Co. may now pay their electric bills at the Hunt Service station, announces Ray P. Kinne, local manager. Mr. Hunt was chosen as the company's Lexington representative after careful consideration of the customers' convenience, as well as the fact that Mr. Hunt is available at most any hour to report failure of customers' service or any other emergency.

Employment Off 2 1/2 Pct. in February

Salem, March 8.—Two thousand and seventy-two more benefit checks were issued by the state unemployment compensation commission during February than in January, the commission announced. Disbursements totaled $519,964, an increase of 2 1/2 per cent.

Pendleton, covering Morrow and Umatilla counties, accounted for $7735, or 1.5 per cent of the total.

Increases of one per cent were recorded for Albany and Klamath Falls. The Portland metropolitan area dropped 4 per cent and Marshfield, 2 per cent, although second on the list of district totals. Salem received the third highest amount.

Read G. T. Want Ads. You may find a bargain in something needed

Lexington School CARNIVAL

SAT., MARCH 25

COME EARLY - STAY LATE

Jitney Dancing, Booths, Conetti, Serpentine, Eats Games, Drinks and FUN!

Come One and All

● Ten Years Ago

(Gazette Times, Mar. 14, 1929.)

Large audience gives Pendleton Elks minstrel warm welcome.

Local Elks slate get-together at Fossil on April 6.

First call issued for organization of baseball team to enter Wheatland league.

William D. Ingram, Civil war veteran, passes at Hardman home.

Jeanne Elizabeth Wier writes from Reno, Nev., telling of family's connection with early local school history.

Parent-Teachers association elects Mrs. Arthur McAtee, president; Mrs. W. R. Poulson, first vice-president; Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, second vice-president; Miss Harriet Case, secretary; Mrs. J. O. Hager, treasurer.

Mrs. Fannie O. Rood interred in local cemetery following rites in Portland.

Phelps Funeral Home
Ambulance Service
Trained Lady Assistant
Phone 1332 Heppner, Ore.

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday, March 10-11

FLIRTING WITH FATE

with Joe E. Brown, Leo Carrillo, Beverly Roberts, Wynne Gibson, Steffi Duna

Joe, with his heart in his mouth and his mouth wide open, battles bandits and flirts with fate—a mixture of comedy, music and romance.

(Note: Ferdinand has a rival! He's "Boots"—fond of beer and proud of his tricks.)—plus

THE TERROR OF TINY TOWN

with AN ALL-MIDGET CAST

Half-pints in 10-gallon hats, routin', tootin', shootin' on their Shetland pony broncs. A fun-filled, rip-snortin' hit!

Sunday-Monday, March 12-13

MEN WITH WINGS

(in technicolor)

with Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland, Louise Campbell, Andy Devine, Lynne Overman

A new high in airplane epics, tracing the development of aviation from the Wright Brothers to the new modern air bombers.

Popeye

Newsreel

Tuesday, March 14

WHILE NEW YORK SLEEPS

with Michael Whalen, Jean Rogers

The Rambling Reporters solve the murder of a man who laughed himself to death—plus

RIDE A CROOKED MILE

with Akim Tamiroff, Leif Erickson, Frances Farmer, Lynne Overman, John Miljan

You would be pleased to ride many miles to see this sterling entertainment, a highly original story entrusted to a capable cast.

Cartoon

Wednesday-Thursday, March 15-16

HEART OF THE NORTH

(in technicolor)

with

Dick Foran, Gloria Dickson, Gale Page, Allen Jenkins, Patric Knowles

A masterpiece of breath-taking scenic photography—a lightning-fast action picture—the story deals with the colorful Canadian Mounted Police.

Newsreel Miracle of Salt Lake

Clyde Lucas and Orch.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brannon, Hardman, are invited to present this coupon at the boxoffice for complimentary admissions. To be used before March 17th.

STAR THEATER

Heppner, Oregon

Heppner Gazette Times, Only $2.00 Per Year

Radio Sale

Used Sets

ZENITH Table Model, all new tubes, all wave bands $20

R. C. A. Victor 1938 Table Model. Ten metal tubes, largest and strongest table model made by R. C. A. in 1939. Was $95. NOW $50

R. C. A. Floor Console Model, 8 metal and glass tubes, all wave bands, originally $124. $39.95

CROSLY TABLE MODEL $2.50

R. C. A. 6-volt battery set 1938 model (new), now $19.95

Radio Batteries, 6-volt $6.95 and $9.95

Gonty Shoe Store

RCA and G. E. Radio Dealers