

Local News

Elmer Hamrick visited his family here Sunday from The Dalles where he has undergone treatment for two months following burns received when he came into accidental contact with the high power line at Ione as P. P. & L. linemen. His progress toward recovery has been good and he expected to be dismissed from the hospital in two weeks. In spite of amputation of one hand, he has been in good spirits and has taken advantage of opportunities for recreation as short respites from hospital life have afforded.

Norton King, home on vacation from his studies at Oregon State college, underwent an emergency operation or appendicitis at Heppner hospital Tuesday evening. No complications were reported and he came through the ordeal in good shape. His father, A. T. King, came from Kinzua in response to word of the emergency, returning home yesterday.

LaVerne Van Marter arrived yesterday to spend part of spring vacation from studies at U. of O. with his mother, Mrs. Muriel Van Marter, having stopped over in Portland a couple of days on the way. He has held a regular berth with the frosh basketball team the past season, turning in a good record.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Jay Merrill were in town Monday from the farm home in the mountains south of Hardman. Mr. Merrill had just had a bandage removed from an eye that he had had treated for more than a year, and looked forward to its being well recovered. Much snow in the timber was reported.

O. M. Scott and Norman Nelson were transacting business in the city Saturday in connection with the benefit dance for Lexington Boy Scouts to be held at the Lexington grange hall next Saturday evening. They extended an invitation for everyone to join in having a good time.

Among Oregon State college students home for spring vacation are Nancy and Charles Cox, Norton King, Louise Anderson, Bernard McMurdo and Howard Cleveland. Clair Cox, who has a position in Corvallis, drove up with his sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gorger and children were in the city Tuesday from the farm north of Ione. Mr. Gorger reported his health well on return to normal following recent illness from a serious infection.

Egbert L. Young was transacting business in the city Tuesday from Rhea creek where he has been for the last four weeks at the Earl McKinney farm.

Joe Green arrived home the end of the week to spend spring vacation from studies at U. of O. with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Green.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the HEPNER HOTEL on WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt motored to Portland Sunday, returning Monday evening.

Harold Anderson of Gooseberry was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Used Car Bargains

1936 FORD PICKUP $395
Reconditioned motor

1937 FORD PICKUP $450
Low mileage, new rubber all around

1938 FORD 60 TUDOR $525
This thrifty car has new car appearance

The large number of trade-ins on the new 1939 Ford car gives us the choice of good cars to sell.

ROSEWALL-GENTRY MOTOR
Heppner CO. Oregon
FORD DEALERS

Lee Howell and Cornett Green were Heppner Oddfellows attending a lodge meeting in Pendleton Tuesday.

Skaters: Free favors and big time at the St. Patrick's Frolic at Ione Friday night, 7:30 to 10. Regular prices.

Skaters: St. Patrick's Frolic at Ione Friday night. Over in time for the dance, 7:30 to 10. Free favors, big time.

A benefit dance for Lexington Boy Scouts will be held at Lexington grange hall next Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jones motored to Portland Tuesday, expecting to return home the end of the week.

Skaters: Don't forget the St. Patrick's Frolic at Ione Friday night. Free favors, big time. 7:30 to 10.

Mrs. Lewis Cason, in the city Saturday from the mountain home, reported heavy snow there.

Gar Swanson and Roy Lindstrom were business visitors in the city Tuesday from Ione.

Young bronze turkey gobblers for sale. Phone 4F13. Mrs. Ed Acton, Lena, Ore.

Miss Harriet Hager is home from Oregon State college for spring vacation.

HARDMAN NEWS

Former Hardmanite Dies in Australia

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL
Word was received this week of the death of George Robinson of Cranbrook, in western Australia, who died January 17. Mr. Robinson was the father of Roy Robinson and for years was a resident of Morrow county. In 1909 he left here for Argentina and later went to Australia. One son is married and is living in Australia and a daughter died there, leaving a family. Another son, Henry, resides at John Day and a daughter, Mrs. Basil Harrison, lives at Redmond. Mr. Robinson would have been 88 years old in May.

Those from here attending the dance at Rhea creek Saturday night were the Misses Vern and Vera McDaniel, Pat Bleakman, Betty Gaither, Grace and Jean Leathers, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redding, Gus and Bunny Steers, Donald and Creston Robinson, Burt Burnside, Irvin Greener, Marvin Saddler, Tommy Graham and Leon Chapin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McDaniel went to Arlington for a trappers' meeting. Mr. McDaniel returned on Tuesday without his wife, who because of illness remained until Sunday. She stayed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bud Fisk.

Glen McCutcheon withdrew from our high school and is now enrolled in Heppner high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinnard McDaniel were visiting in Hardman Monday morning.

The Rebekahs had an expected surprise party for the Odd Fellows Saturday night. Refreshments consisted of pie, sandwiches and coffee.

April 1—put that date down on your calendar, for the high school plans to give four one-act plays then, and are now hard at work. Also, the Rebekahs are planning on giving a very special dance with unusual features. Read this column next week for additional information.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hayden and Marion went to Pendleton Tuesday.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Redding and small daughter, Earline, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Redding at Eight Mile.

Mrs. Marvin Brannon and Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon attended the grade school teachers luncheon in Heppner Saturday.

The prayer meeting group has organized a recreation club which will meet on Friday evenings at the hall in the Miller building. Everybody is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reid moved to the mill on Rock creek. They are living in the Lovgren house.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Smith and children, Mrs. Bessie Craber and daughter of Walla Walla visited Mrs. Ethel McDaniel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peterson and children and Mrs. Fred Bartness of Gridley, Calif., visited friends and relatives here from Tuesday till Friday and then went to Walla Walla to visit relatives there.

Mrs. Maud Robisan and son Richard arrived in Hardman Wednesday and visited for several days.

Gus Steers has gone to work for Mr. Buschke above Heppner.

A well attended and very enjoyable birthday party was held at the home of Mrs. Lewis Knighten Friday afternoon. It was a regular meeting of the Birthday club in honor of Mrs. Carey Hastings and Mrs. Knighten. Since the club is raising money for church repairs, they selected a committee who shall have charge of all things relative to the church. The following were elected: George Hayden, chairman; J. B. Adams, Mrs. Charlie McDaniel, A. D. Inskeep, and Neal Knighten.

Bill Mahrt was in town last week installing a Delco light plant at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers.

On Friday evening a number of the Christian Endeavor members went to Heppner to attend the rally. They reported an interesting meeting and especially enjoyed the singing in the Indian language by a group of Indians, and the duet by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick, who are Indians. Those who went in were Mrs. Neal Knighten, Mrs. G. I. Clary, Misses Frances Inskeep, Nona Inskeep, Mildred Clary, Juanita Byer and Jim Stevens, Tommy Graham and Irl Clary.

Nash for sale or trade for cattle, good condition. W. H. French, Hardman. 47tf

Annual Meeting Lexington Oil Co-Op

LEXINGTON GRANGE HALL
SAT., MARCH 18

● Business meeting begins at 10 A. M.,
Program following lunch served by
Home Ec Ladies, 35c the plate.

All Farmers Invited
Whether Members or Not

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday

MARK TWAIN'S

TOM SAWYER, DETECTIVE

Billy Cook as Tom Sawyer - Donald O'Connor as Huck Finn
Honest entertainment for juveniles and the entire family—plus

PACIFIC LINER

with Victor McLaglen, Chester Morris, Wendy Barrie, Alan Hale
Red drama on a crippled ship at sea... the story of a likeable tyrant who asked no man to do what he wouldn't do himself.
In Disney's "The Practical Pig" the Three Little Pigs once more sing "Who's Afraid of the Big, Bad Wolf?"

Sunday-Monday

DAWN PATROL

with Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp
This new version of "Dawn Patrol" is second to no aviation or war picture, whether it be "The Big Parade," "What Price Glory," "Hell's Angels," or the original "Dawn Patrol"—the story of flying soldiers who live robustly and die heroically—it hits human emotions with powerful impact.

Cartoon

Movietone News

Sunday matinees at 1 p. m. and 3 p. m.

Tuesday

THE DUKE OF WEST POINT

with Louis Hayward, Joan Fontaine, Richard Carlson
A picturesque and interesting story of cadet social and sport life at West Point.

The Daffy Doc

Table Manners

Wed.-Thu., March 22-23

ARTISTS and MODELS ABROAD

with Jack Benny, Joan Bennett, The Yacht Club Boys, Mary Boland
Buck Benny rides again! Comedy, music, romance—and beautiful girls modelling fashions of the world's outstanding designers.

Pudgy Cartoon

News of the Day

This ad is good for 10c on any adult admission if used before March 24th.

STAR THEATER

Heppner, Oregon

Lexington School CARNIVAL SAT., MARCH 25

COME EARLY - STAY LATE
Jitney Dancing, Booths, Conetti, Serpentine, Eats Games, Drinks and FUN!

Come One and All

● Ten Years Ago

(Gazette Times, Mar. 21, 1929)

St. Patrick's day celebration raises neat sum for new church.

"The Younger Generation" is first talking moving picture presented at Star theater, a road show attraction.

Laurel Beach appears here with Whitman glee club.

W. V. Pedro of Cecil and Miss Daisy Butler of Heppner exchange property.

Ed Bennett elected president of Heppner Golf club.

Paul Hisler undergoes operation for appendicitis at Heppner hospital, Wednesday.

Dwight Misner returns to county and purchases 2600-acre Friewald farm.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Noble enjoy Sunday motor trip to Columbia river, report many new lambs in evidence.

Phelps Funeral Home

Ambulance Service
Trained Lady Assistant
Phone 1332 Heppner, Ore.

Home Needs

- Clothes Pins Doz. 5c
- Wax Paper 10c and 25c
- Genuine "Waxtex" per roll
- Westinghouse Light Globes
15, 25, 40 50, 60, 75, 100 Watt
15c Each
- Flashlight Batteries 5c-10c each
- Kleenex, 500 sheets 28c
- Kotex, 12's 20c
- San Nap Pak, 12's 15c
- Bathroom Toilet Tissue
- Prim 4 Rolls 19c
- M. D. 3 Rolls 25c
- Easter Cards 3 or 5c, 5c each
- Easter Napkins 10c Pkg.
- Bridge Sets, Easter 10c each

DICKSON'S VARIETY STORE
HEPPNER, OREGON