

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers and Miss Effie Wilhelm were visiting in the city Monday from the Hardman section, Miss Wilhelm being a guest at the Steers home from her home at Spray. Mr. and Mrs. Collins reported some difficulty getting to the highway from their home in Camas prairie due to the heavy snow. While the snow was leaving fast, there was a coat of some eight inches of ice underneath on the prairie and they expected it would last for some time. Mrs. Collins, who was ordered to her bed for six months in course of treatment for illness, was forced to get up after six weeks when Mr. Collins became quite seriously ill. Mr. Collins was feeling better when in the city Monday, but was told by his physician to take things pretty easy. He made final proof on a piece of homestead land while in town.

Mrs. W. V. Crawford came up from Portland last Thursday with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jones, and visited until today with relatives and friends. Mr. Crawford was expected to leave Portland last Friday for San Francisco to spend a week attending a meeting of representatives of the insurance company with which he is employed in the city.

Mrs. Chris Brown returned this week from Corvallis where she stayed through the fall and winter terms, keeping house for her son Paul and several other Oregon State college students. Paul pledged Theta Kappa Nu, and Kenneth Peck of Lexington pledged Delta Tau Delta, and these boys will move into the respective fraternity houses at beginning of spring term.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Pease and Dale Watkins were in the city Monday from Naches, Wash. Mr. Pease, logging contractor, was here to contact representatives of the Kraft Box company with view to contracting the logging for this concern when it gets into operation here. Mr. Watkins is a former resident, having attended the Heppner schools as a boy.

Mrs. Eddie Thorpe and son Carl arrived home last evening from Portland where Carl underwent treatment for a leg infection with which he has suffered for some time. e was treated at the Doernbecher hospital. It was expected that he would return to the hospital in June for further treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Parker who arrived last week to remain while Mr. Parker assumes the duties as assistant at the local forest office have taken residence in the house of Mrs. Mattie Gentry on K street. Mrs. Gentry recently assumed management of the Case hotel where she is residing.

Spring weather, taking off of the lamb crop and preparation for shearing are making activity lively in the wool industry at the present time. Among outside stockmen looking over the situation here yesterday were Joe Hayes of Long Creek and Paul Webb of Walla Walla.

Mrs. Cecil Lieuallen of Pendleton was in the city Monday, visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. R. Shaffer.

Used Pick-Up Bargains

1937 STUDEBAKER—Motor just reconditioned in our shop, good paint and 90% rubber. Pay down $165.00.

1937 FORD PICK-UP, equipped with hot water heater and new Firestone tires. Pay down $165.00.

1936 FORD PICK-UP, reconditioned motor and good paint. Pay down $135.00.

CHEAP!

1927 CHRYSLER COUPE,
Full Price $60.00

The large number of trade-ins on the New 1939 Ford Car gives us the choice of good used cars to sell.

ROSEWALL-GENTRY MOTOR
Heppner CO. Oregon
FORD DEALERS

Miss Ilene Kenny visited over the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, in Sand Hollow, coming from Ontario where she has a nursing position. She attended the St. Patrick's dance Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartholomew, Butter creek pioneers, were transacting business in the city Monday, and Mr. Bartholomew consulted a physician for treatment, having just gone through a severe case of influenza.

Laxton McMurray, in the city yesterday from the Jordan Siding farm, reported 4.32 inches of moisture precipitation at his place since September. The wheat is starting good, but more moisture is needed, he reported.

Commissioner L. D. Neill, in town Tuesday from the Butter creek ranch, reported lambing completed at his place with an average increase of 115 per cent. The season had been especially favorable, he said.

Mrs. Sarah Nichols White of Lexington was a business visitor in the city yesterday. She reported the new wheat crop on her place as coming along quite well, though considerably spotted. It was sown in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hayes of Corvallis were week-end visitors here at the home of Mr. Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes.

Last chance to roller skate, Ione Legion hall, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, March 24, 25, 26.

EASTER NOVELTIES

- Baskets 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c
- Easter Egg Candy Per Lb. 20c
- Easter Novelty Eggs 5c
- Rabbits 10c, 25c, 50c
- Chicks and Rabbits 1c to 10c
- Easter Tally Cards 4 for 5c

YARN—THREAD—NEEDLES
Crochet Thread, Darning Cotton,
Embroidery Thread
New Shipment of All Items

- CANDY SPECIALS
- Jelly Beans Lb. 10c
- Chocolate Drops Lb. 10c
- Gum Drops Lb. 10c

DICKSON'S VARIETY STORE
HEPPNER, OREGON

● Ten Years Ago

(Gazette Times, March 28, 1929)

Mayor W. G. McCarty proclaims annual clean-up day for Monday, April 15.

Fannie O. Rood bequeaths $500 to city library.

Legion doubtful about opening swimming tank for coming summer.

Bert Bowker, L. Van Marter and Charles Latourell compose team scoring 73 in Oregonian shoot.

Wheatland baseball league to open April 7 with Ione playing at Heppner.

Miss Kate Francis Ede directing Easter cantata to be given by combined choirs.

Born in this city, March 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Moore, a girl.

Considerable complaint is heard from farmers over the county because of the continued cold weather.

The Hardman jail was destroyed by fire Saturday night.

Phelps Funeral Home
Ambulance Service
Trained Lady Assistant
Phone 1332 Heppner, Ore.

Little Mary Andrews of Lexington, whose hand was severely cut by an axe last week, returned to Heppner for treatment the first of the week, and the injury is reported to be healing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bennett were among those from Heppner accompanying the grade basketball team to Arlington for the tournament Friday evening.

Among Pendleton folk in the city Friday evening for the St. Patrick's ball were Misses Lois Oliver and Patricia Griffith, William Anderson, William Peebler and Miss Peggy Peebler.

Mrs. W. E. Straight who underwent medical treatment in Portland for two weeks returned home last night, her condition improving sufficiently for her to leave the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone were in the city Sunday from their home at Pendleton attending funeral rites for their old-time friend and neighbor, the late E. E. Clark.

Mrs. J. O. Rasmus went to Portland the end of the week to undergo further medical treatment in an illness from which she has suffered for some time.

A. C. Becholdt was a business visitor in town yesterday from the ranch near Hardman.

Roller skate, Ione Legion hall, this week end. Last opportunity.

STOP

... 90% of all tire troubles come in the last 10% of a tire's life. Don't gamble with DANGER!

LOOK

... Now you can buy famous PATHFINDER Tires almost at "Give-away" prices!

NEW 1939 PATHFINDER

- 4.40 - 21 $648
- 4.50 - 21 $648
- 4.75 - 19 $670
- 5.00 - 19 $670
- 5.25 - 17 $835
- 5.50 - 17 $835
- 6.00 - 16 $932

(Net prices, including your old tire)

THINK

... Here you have a tough, rugged, reliable tire—made for long mileage, sure center-traction safety, "fine-car" beauty—the best tire Goodyear ever made at these low prices. ... Buy today and be SAFE tomorrow!

"LIFETIME GUARANTEE"

GOODYEAR TIRES

LOW COST... HIGH VALUE

Save at the Sign of the Goodyear Diamond

FERGUSON MOTOR CO.
HEPPNER, OREGON

C. W. Smith, assistant state county agent leader, made an official visit to the city yesterday, calling at the office of County Agent Clifford Conrad.

L. Van Marter came over from Pendleton Saturday for a visit with his son, La Verne, Jr., home on spring vacation from University of Oregon.

George Carlyle, injured in an automobile accident last week, is reported to be making good progress toward recovery.

Elsie Ayers of Stanfield was a visitor in the city the first of the week.

Last Chance to Roller Skate

IONE LEGION HALL
Friday - Saturday
Sunday
March 24-25-26
7:30 to 10

Millard Rodman, district supervisor with Soil Conservation service, was a visitor over the week end from Pendleton.

Grant Olden was in town Tuesday from the farm on Rhea creek, wearing a broad smile induced by spring's arrival.

Read G. T. Want Ads. You way find a bargain in something needed.

It's Here

In Heppner for first time
PHILCO
Mystery Control
RADIO

You must see it to believe it.
Special factory trade-in allowance for old radio

Limited Time Only

BRUCE GIBB
Phone 1382

HURRY! HURRY!

Just a few more days left to get your motor tuned up on our special offer at

$1.99
Reglar Price $3.50

SAVE! SAVE!

Rosewall-Gentry Motor Co.
Heppner, Ore. FORD DEALERS Phone 1092

The STAR REPORTER

Friday-Saturday
THE GREAT MAN VOTES
with John Barrymore, Virginia Weidler, Peter Holden
Delightful, wholesome comedy with a touch of satire—de luxe entertainment for the entire family. Flawless performances by Barrymore and youngsters Holden and Weidler. Plus—

CHARLIE CHAN in HONOLULU
Charlie Chan fans can sit back and relax for this first picture in the venerable series with Sidney Toler as the Oriental Hawkshaw measures up in every way to the excellent calibre maintained in the past.
Filming Thrills

Sunday-Monday
SWEETHEARTS
(in technicolor)
with JEANETTE MacDONALD, NELSON EDDY
Frank Morgan, Ray Bolger, Florence Rice, Mischa Auer, Herman Bing
Victor Herbert's light opera, embellished with Hollywood streamlining, but retaining his immortal music, and all wrapped up in the most gorgeous technicolor yet achieved, ranks with the best of the film musicals.
Our Gang Movietone News

Tuesday
OFF THE RECORD
with Pat O'Brien, Joan Blondell, Bobby Jordan, Alan Baxter
Breezy comedy drama with a combination mobster-newspaper background—good solid entertainment.
Porky the Gob Sophomore Swing

Wednesday-Thursday, March 29-30
PAL NIGHTS—2 adults 35c, 2 children 10c—PAL NIGHTS

ZAZA
with Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall, Bert Lahr, Helen Westley, Constance Collier, Genevieve Tobin, Walter Catlett
One of the world's great plays, "Zaza," comes to the screen with Claudette Colbert as the incomparable character of the title role, who came out of the gutter to music hall fame.
Music Thru the Years News of the Day Playful Polar Bears

STAR THEATER
Heppner, Oregon