

Shooters Open Trap Tourney With 73

Heppner Rod and Gun club's team in the opening shoot of the Oregonian telegraphic trap tourney dropped two birds out of a possible perfect 75 and recorded a 73 at the local grounds, Sunday. Luke Bibby broke all of his first string of 25 to head the team, while P. W. Mahoney and H. E. Warner registered 24 each. Only eight shooters participated though the day was ideal for the sport. Those shooting with birds broken out of number shot at were: Ralph Jackson 110-125, P. W. Mahoney 94-100, C. C. Carmichael 69-75, Vivian Kane 67-75, C. A. Kane 57-75, Luke Bibby 48-50, A. D. McMurdo 48-50, H. C. Hapold 41-50, H. E. Warner 24-25.

COUNTY TEACHERS MEET

Teachers from all over the county will meet at the local high school tomorrow evening for a dinner meeting. Miss Montgomery of University of Oregon will discuss, "Remedial Reading Problems and Methods of Solving Them." Other numbers on the program will be provided by Mr. Peavy and Miss Forsythe of Heppner, Mrs. Carmichael and Mr. Sherman of Lexington, Miss Tilden and Miss Messenger of Boardman, and Miss Scharf of Ione. The banquet is being served by the high school home economics club under supervision of Miss Cecilia Nordstrom.

ELKHORN WORK COMPLETED

Work of renovating and remodeling interior of the Elkhorn restaurant was completed this week. With walls and ceiling painted ivory and cream, and installation of new low-cut booths finished in mahogany and decorated in cream, the interior is especially pleasing. Peter Dufault and Les Brannon did the painting and Frank Roberts and Charlie Johnson did the carpenter work. Recent installation of new fountain and extension of lunch counter have added to the restaurant's facilities. New arrangement doubles the seating capacity, says Eddie Chinn, proprietor.

SET COMMUNITY SALE

To more conveniently serve all the people of Morrow county, Jack Osier, community sale manager, announces selection of a more centrally located point for the next sale to be held Thursday, March 30. This sale will be held at the Swift farm at Lexington, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Miscellaneous articles will be put on the block in the morning, and livestock will be sold in the afternoon beginning at 1:30 with V. R. Runnion as auctioneer. E. H. Miller will clerk the sale. The sponsors announce that an exceptionally large amount of good livestock is being listed.

OLD-TIME RESIDENT PASSES

Charles Van Winkle who was a resident of Heppner at the time of the Heppner flood and who since 1924 has been city marshal at Arlington, passed away March 14 at a hospital in The Dalles from pneumonia. Funeral services were held at Arlington Friday with interment following in the Heppner cemetery. He was a brother of William C. Van Winkle of Lexington. He married Cora Luella Carmichael at Heppner, March 10, 1901. Two children survive besides the widow.

A city bicycle ordinance closely following the recommendations of the Springfield safety council was recently adopted by the council there. The ordinance empowers enforcement agencies to impound the offender's bicycle, instead of levying a fine or jail sentence as is usual with older traffic violators.

A Negro who was being tried for a traffic violation in Austin, Texas, was caught slightly off base when the judge asked him what the traffic sign "R.R." signified. "Why, dat mean 'room fo' rent'," replied the darky.
