HARDMAN NEWS

Adams Family Has Reunion at Hardman

By HARDMAN HIGH SCHOOL

A happy group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams last Sunday and had a reunion dinner together in honor of Mrs. Adams' birthday. All of their children and grandchildren were present. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Duff McKittrick and small son, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore, all of Kinzua; also Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Adams and four children, Forest and Vonnie Adams.

Hardman en masse went up to the Tyndal Robison mountain home

Thursday for the regular school and community picnic. Upon arrival a game of softball was played with mixed teams, followed by the pot-luck dinner which is always the main attraction at a picnic. Afterwards softball, pitching horse shoes and gathering wild flowers were the main pastimes. All had a very good time.

Bill Greener made a business trip to Portland Friday of last week, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke and Delmar, Carol and Joyce had dinner at the Claude Buschke home on Sunday. On Monday Max and his family moved out to the Long prairie station where they will spend the summer.

On Monday of last week Mrs. J. E. Craber and son Gordon went to Hermiston, where they plan to stay for some time while Gordon is receiving medical care from a Hermiston doctor.

On Wednesday of last week the Birthday club met at the high school for the birthday party for Mrs. G. I. Clary who received many lovely gifts. One of the special guests was Mrs. Mary Coats who has been away part of the winter and spring, visiting in Boardman at the home of her son, Claud Coats.

Miss Aline Inskeep went Monday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harshman where she plans to visit for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald and son Lewis, formerly of here but who have been living for the past three years in Boardman, were here Friday for the commencement party. On Saturday they went on to Porter creek, near the Roy Robinson ranch, where they will camp for the summer while Mr. McDonald and Lewis make posts and cut wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman have moved out to the Tupper ranger station for the summer. George McDonald, who has been sick for some time, it with them and hopes that a summer spent in the mountains will improve his health.

On Saturday Mrs. Marvin Brannon entertained the eighth grade class, consisting of Jean Leathers, Vera McDaniel and Nona Inskeep, at her home.

On Saturday a number of Hardman folks went to the show in Heppner. They were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers, Mrs. Owen Leathers, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Farrants, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Saling and children, Miss Rita Robinson, Miss Vera McDaniel, Creston Robinson and Marvin Sadler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Henderson called at the C. E. McDaniel home Monday. Mr. Henderson is a government trapper from Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reid went to Pendleton Saturday and returned with a very good looking Plymouth coupe.

Mrs. Bud Fisk of Arlington arrived on Thursday for a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charlie McDaniel. Her daughter Marlene has been here for several weeks.

Last week Miss Alta Stevens went over to Condon to work. John Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens and small son took her over and visited there for the day.

Marvin Brannon for the past two weeks has been busy papering the Fred Kruger home.

Mrs. Wm. Greener and her mother, Mrs. Hector of Ritter, left on Thursday for San Francisco where they will visit the fair.

The many friends of Gene Matteson in the Hardman community were sorry to hear of his death. We all wish to express our sympathy for the immediate family, and especially for his sister, Mrs. George Kirk, who lived here for years.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyle and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Fehmerling, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buschke and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans were dinner guests at the Max Buschke home. Mrs. Hyle, Mrs. Fehmerling and Mrs. Evans are all sisters of Max's.

On Saturday the Roy Robinsons moved out to their mountain home. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers gave examinations at the grade school Tuesday, after which she visited at the high school.

The owner of the lucky number on the crocheted table cloth made by Mrs. Roy Robinson was Mrs. Maude Robison. The money raised by the event was used to complete the payments on the Christian Endeavor piano.

Owen Leathers and Junior went out to the Red Hill station Friday afternoon in response to a call that there was a fire on Gilman Flat, also known as Watkins Flat. When they got there they found that the fire was on Wall creek, and it is now under control.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Keene are the happy parents of a son, born on May 11, which is also the birthday of the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Loy McFerrin. It is needless to say that Mr. and Mrs. McFerrin are very proud of their first grandchild.

The biggest item of interest this week was the commencement party at the high school in honor of the lone senior, Creston Robinson. The party started at about nine o'clock with dancing, followed by a supper, during which Mrs. Lucy Rodgers gave a short talk and presented the diploma. The musicians were Jim Stevens, Donald Robinson, Irl Clary and Miss Vera McDaniel. Creston received many lovely gifts, and the whole evening was a happy, informal one, marking the close of Creston's formal education, as he does not plan on going on to college.

Miss Frances Inskeep left Wednesday to visit indefinitely at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. W. Wacken of Salem. Mrs. Wacken and small son, Larry Lee, who have been visiting at the Inskeep home for several weeks, returned with Frances.

Posters are out for a dance to be held here in the hall on Saturday, May 20. The Rebekahs are giving it, and good music has been secured. Last week the carnival was postponed because the dance had been called off, but it will take place on next Saturday. So come early and have a little fun upstairs in the Miller building before you go to the dance. The carnival will start at 8 o'clock.
