"Yes" or "No"— That Is the Question

By SCOTT McMURDO
With the coming of the special election June 10 for the purpose of voting on the swimming pool bonds, the voters of the city of Heppner are faced with a perplexing problem. Shall we vote for or against this measure, they ask themselves.

And how shall we examine the facts? If the measure goes through, pool construction will be carried on, and early in the month of July everyone who so desires will be enjoying the cool refreshment derived from such a wholesome activity as swimming; and the taxes will also be increased 86 hundredths of a mill per one thousand dollars valuation of taxable property per year, or $4.30 for the five years until the retirement of the bond. And on the other hand, if this bond issue is voted down, work on the plunge will cease, and the young people of Heppner will be forced to retreat once again to the contaminated waters of Willow creek for relief from the scorching rays of "Old Sol."

The authorities in charge of this civic improvement realize that the pool and bath houses are costing more than was originally planned, but it is also a much better pool in many ways than was originally planned. The tank is so constructed that heating and filter systems can easily be installed. The best of materials went into its building, and it is made to withstand any high water that may come.

All those who wish to view the pool in its near-complete stage are asked by the pool committee to come either Thursday or Friday of this week when the tank undergoes its initial filling.

This article is written in an effort to bring to the attention of Heppner's voting population the viewpoints held by its young people—the future lawmakers of this city.

Shall we complete the pool this summer . . . eventually—why not now?

Edward Kenny started the first of the month as deputy to Assessor Thomas J. Wells, succeeding Mrs. Richard Wells, resigned. Kenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kenny, is a graduate of Heppner high school and recently took special business training in a Portland college.
