Mountain Region Receives Soaking

More than an inch of rain fell in the Blue mountains south of Hardman over the week end, according to W. H. French of the Blue Mountain ranch who was in Heppner Monday. The showers have held up haying operations to some extent but have been of incalculable value to range lands and late grain.

Mr. French stated that he had completed a contract for delivery of fuel to Camp Heppner, wherein 110 cords of four-foot wood had been cut and delivered in 18 days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Salter of Ione took time off from their hatchery to spend a few hours in the county seat Monday.

Miss Coriea Bride of Ernest A. Dumond

A wedding of interest to many Morrow county people was solemnized on Sunday, June 11, at the Catholic church in Hermiston when Miss Anna Louise Coriea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Coriea of Echo, became the bride of Mr. Ernest A. Dumond of Stanfield. Attended by Mrs. Mary Coriea, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, Miss Frances Coriea, who held the veil, Mrs. Reata Brown, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Mrs. Brown's little girl as flower girl, the bride approached the altar to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Pearson of Hermiston, where she was given in marriage by her father.

Following a wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, to which 35 guests were invited, the newlyweds left for Portland on their honeymoon.

Outside guests attending the wedding included Mrs. Antone Cunha and Mrs. Frank Coriea of Butter creek, Mrs. Lillie Aiken and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aiken of Heppner, Mrs. Charles Corder of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Christian of Vancouver, Wash.
