Pomona Grange To Meet at Cecil

By KATHERINE GRIFFITH

Willows grange will be host to Morrow County Pomona grange on Saturday, July 1, at their hall in Cecil. A business session will be held in the morning with a pot-luck dinner at noon. In the afternoon a lecturer's program will be presented and the public is invited to attend. Another business meeting will be held in the evening.

The Women's Topic club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bert Mason for their social meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Clyde Denny, Mrs. Dorr Mason, Mrs. Agnes Wilcox and Mrs. Henry Gorger. Six tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. Omar Rietmann receiving high score and Mrs. Cleo Drake receiving low. Other members present besides those mentioned were Mrs. Ed Dick, Mrs. Hugh Smith, Mrs. M. E. Cotter, Mrs. Carl Feldman, Mrs. Bert Mason, Mrs. Clel Rea, Mrs. C. W. Swanson and Mrs. Victor Rietmann. Guests present were Mrs. Fred Man-kin and Mrs. Frank Lundell.

Bert Mason, Jr., returned from Tollgate Saturday evening and departed Tuesday for his post at the Wheeler lookout station, where he is to work this summer.

Miss Ida Botts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Botts of Ione, was united in marriage to Elroy Ellis of Heppner Junction at the home of sister, Mrs. Jack Griffith, at Natches, Wash., last Monday. All of the bride's sisters, Mrs. Lem Cooley, Mrs. Tom Brown and Mrs. Jack Griffith, were present. Mrs. Charles Botts and Mrs. Brown accompanied the young people to Natches and returned here with them Monday.

Bill Morgan of Albany arrived in Ione Friday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Botts and little son and Mrs. Bott's brother, Harold Obert, arrived in Ione from Selah, Wash., Monday to visit relatives.

Mrs. E. R. Lundell and Miss Mildred Lundell entertained the Past Noble Grand club at their home on Friday afternoon. The following members were present: Mesdames E. J. Bristow, C. W. Swanson, J. E. Swanson, Ida Fletcher, Ella Davidson, Milton Morgan, Cleo Drake, Frank Lundell and Clel Rea. Mrs. Lee Howell, Mrs. Norton Lundell, both of Heppner, and Miss Helen Lundell were guests. Delicious refreshments were served.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laxton McMurray were Mr. and Mrs. C. Haughtaling and Howard Willis of Orting, Wash. The two men were comrades in Cuba and Alaska.

Miss Rossbelle Perry, daughter of Ross Perry of Morgan, returned to her home Wednesday morning from Eugene where she is a student at the University of Oregon.

Miss Bernice Ring departed Tuesday morning for Portland where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Emil Swanson left Sunday evening for a visit in Portland with her son and daughter.

Locust chapter of the Order of Eastern Star held its last meeting before the summer vacation Tuesday evening. Mrs. John Krebs, worthy matron, made an interesting report on her trip to grand lodge. Refreshments were served.

Clifford Carlson and Rollo Crawford left for Eugene Sunday morning. While they are there they will make arrangements to enter college in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom and daughter Carol drove to Salem Friday to visit Mr. Odom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Odom, and to attend his cousin's wedding the next day.

Mrs. Frank Lindsay is visiting in McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker and little sons spent the week end in Dayton, Wash., visiting relatives.

Willows grange has purchased a lot across from the warehouses in the west end of town where they plan to build their new hall.

Lewis Allyn of Gaston is spending the summer with relatives in Heppner and Lexington. He was formerly a resident of Lexington and is the son of George Allyn of that place.

Temporary Permits Banned This Year

Ormond R. Bean, public utilities commissioner of Oregon, desires to call to the attention of operators of motor trucks who propose to transport grain for compensation, either as a common or contract carrier, that no temporary permits will be issued this season for this hauling.

Persons who intend to engage in this type of transportation service are requested to communicate immediately, either with the commissioner in Salem or Field Auditor Roy J. Ford, who is located in the Umatilla county court house, Pendleton, and secure the information necessary in order to obtain the required authority.

Registered at Hotel Heppner on Tuesday were Leonard Kraft, H. E. Leash and K. H. Leash. They were in town on business in connection with the Bridal Veil Lumber company.
